Trains Crash at Arlington; Blow Up

ONE KILLED; 23 HURT IN WRECK IN WEST SUBURB

Steel Cable Snaps on N. W. Tracks.

A steel cable, used for sledding huge drain tiles across the Chicago and North Western railway tracks, snapped at a critical moment last night, resulting in the collision of an express and a suburban train in which one was killed, three seriously hurt, and twenty others sustained minor injuries.

In the crash, which occurred at 8:55 p. m. a mile southeast of Arlington Heights, Carl Kutzner, 55 year old engineer of 1314 North Mansfield avenue, stayed at the throttle of the suburban train as his engine ripped into the other locomotive, causing both to blow up. Kutzner was crushed or scalded to death and wrecking crews were prying at the scrapped steel mass early this morning to reach his body.

Heavy Pipe on Tracks.

Workmen employed by Spencer, White & Prentice, Chicago sewer contractors, had unloaded a car of pipe last evening to be laid this morning in the adjacent subdivision of Stonegate. A caterpillar tractor was towing one of the 4,000 pound sections across the rails on a sledge when the cable parted, leaving the sledge with the heavy pipe on the tracks.

A half mile up the track the Badger State Limited, Chicago bound from St. Paul, whistled for clearance and the sewer diggers scurried frantically for a red lantern, which could not be found. One toiler whipped out a red bandanna handkerchief and waved desperately, a signal which the engineer, Harry McCloskey, 937 North Kedvale avenue, afterwards declared he did not see.

McCloskey estimated he was driving his train 45 miles an hour when he first perceived the tile of five foot diameter between the rails. He clamped on the air, but the express, with the momentum of ten steel coaches behind it, shivered the tile obstacle to fragments, jumped the rails, and pounded 500 feet along the ties.

Leaps Save Enginemen.

McCloskey and his fireman, Gustave Ring, sprang from the cab to the ditch as the locomotive toppled over on its right side, blocking the parallel track. Trainmen and the sixty passengers were swarming from the capsized cars through broken windows and twisted vestibules when the headlight of the Arlington local, a five car train which left the Clifton street terminal at 8:02 p. m., beamed up and a whistle screeched in the distance.

Lanterns were produced, but there was no time to light the brilliant flares, which might have averted the crash. An instant before the local train rammed the wreckage the fireman, Sidney Salman, 39 years old, 2971 North Lavendale avenue, leaped from the cab, escaping with injuries which physicians at St. Luke's hospital later pronounced not serious.

Steel Coaches Save Lives.

A combination baggage-smoking coach, the first behind the engine, soared up over the crushed tender and was standing on end sixty feet in the air when the spouting steam from the ruptured boilers cleared away. The second coach partly telescoped the third, and three behind were capsized. Steel construction of the coaches and the engineer's heroism averted serious injury among the twenty suburban passengers, officials of the road averred.

Two hundred spectators, including a member who had heard the nuisance at the tile moving discussed at an Arlington Heights village council meeting, gathered at the scene and assisted slightly injured passengers to the office of the village physician, Dr. E. H. Schmidt. Within an hour the throng had grown to 2,000, their cars choking the adjacent Northwest highway.

Seize $928 and Auto in Delivery Company Holdup

Two armed robbers entered the office of the North Shore Delivery company, 927 Larrabee street, last night, held up the proprietor, James Kenney, his wife, and a driver, George Fox, and escaped with a strong box containing $928 cash and $1,300 in checks. They fled in Kenney's roadster, which was parked outside.

16 OUT OF 23 CITIES VOTE WET IN POLL BY LITERARY DIGEST

New York, March 18.—[Special.]—Incomplete results from twenty-three cities were announced today by the Literary Digest in its nationwide prohibition poll, revealing that with the exception of seven cities in the middle west the vote shows a pronounced wet tendency and favors the repeal of both the 18th amendment and the Volstead act.

The cities which favored enforcement against modification or repeal were Topeka, Wichita and Kansas City, Kas.; Kansas City, Mo.; Des Moines, Ia., and Lincoln, Neb.

Results from the twenty-three cities were:

EX-CHICAGO EYE DOCTOR TO PICK POLISH CABINET

WARSAW, Poland, March 18.—(AP)—Prof. Szymanski, who worked in Chicago as an occultist 25 years ago and who now is president of the senate, was entrusted with the task of forming a cabinet today by President Moscicki. He will seek to establish a government to succeed that of former Premier Bartel, who resigned last week after his minister of labor had offered a vote of censure in the diet.

Prof. Szymanski was mobilized for service in the Russo-Japanese war but instead went to the United States, spending several years in Chicago. Later he went to Brazil where he established an eye clinic.

After the re-establishment of Poland as an independent nation, the University of Vilna invited him to take up a post on its medical faculty. He entered the Polish senate in 1928 and became speaker. He is devoted to Marshal Pilsudski, noted Polish patriot.

Cries of Liar End Luncheon at City Club

BY PARKE BROWN.

Shouts of "Liar! Liar!" "Throw 'im out!" "Out the window! Out the window!" and similar ward heeler yells resounded through the ordinarily sedate dining room of the City club at luncheon time yesterday.

It all happened because a committee of the club took a chance and invited both Republican and Democratic candidates for the presidency of the county board to speak on the same occasion. Ordinarily partisan opponents don't face each other until the election campaign is on, but this time a mere sight of the enemy was sufficient to cause the rivals to leap clear over the primary and start their fall fight—almost a free for all.

Cermak Starts Battle.

A. J. Cermak, president of the county board, started it. Later he admitted he lost his temper when the proponents of the ticket sponsored by the Business Men's Republican organization proclaimed that the only hope of local government salvation lay in the custer of all present office holders.

Cermak started on Axel Lonnquist, who heads the independent Republican ticket for board places. Then he turned on E. J. Davis, superintendent of the Better Government association and former Anti-Saloon league worker. Davis has been supporting the business men's organization.

In each instance Cermak charged that the business record of the man he was talking about failed to establish his right to lead a business men's organization. After he had finished both Lonnquist and Davis replied.

Other Speakers Restrained.

The other speakers, Otto F. Reich, Snow candidate; Ald. Arthur F. Albert, Deneenite, and Frank J. Wilson, Democrat, were restrained in the statement of their hopes of being able to help the county out of its present troubles. Cermak had used a similarly quiet tone in a first talk, but he had reserved five minutes of his time with which to wind up the discussion.

"I don't expect to make any Democratic votes here in this Republican organization," he began his windup, "but I want to say that if Mr. Lonnquist gets as many votes as there are judgments against him he'll be doing well.

"And over here at my right is E. J. Davis; maker and sponsor for Lonnquist. He couldn't collect enough money in the Anti-Saloon league, so he organized what he calls the Better Government association.

"This man is engaged in nothing more than a racket. The Better Government association is nothing more than a racket. Years ago he borrowed money from a banker and failed to pay it back. The banker went to the pen and Davis went through bankruptcy."

Obtaining the floor, Lonnquist told the audience that he had taken up two judgments that Cermak referred to. One, he said, was a $600 matter in connection with which he had had no notice, and the other, he continued, was a Florida land matter in which his lawyer advised him to allow judgement to be taken in order to release some collateral.

Then Davis spoke. He said the bank deal spoken of by Cermak consisted of his indorsement of a note for a concern with which he was connected and that when he withdrew from the business it was with the express understanding that he was relieved of all responsibility for the note.

"Ready for Inspection."

"I'm willing," he shouted as he walked toward Cermak, "to open my bank book and check book to inspection and let the public know about every financial transaction in which I've been concerned. Are you willing to do the same?"

Davis continued to walk toward him shaking an index finger furiously.

"The grand jury's going to know about your graft!" was about all that could be distinguished.

"You're a liar!" called Cermak, and repeated the assertion. And the rest repeated the assertion. And Davis' neighbors persuaded him to take his seat again and Chairman Lee Walker declared the party adjourned.

CAPONE CALLS GANG TO MEET HIM IN INDIANA

Al Capone disappointed numerous policemen who waited long and patiently yesterday for the return of the gang boss from his ten months of exile in a Philadelphia penitentiary. But while tarrying for a day Capone arranged to make his promised homecoming all the more impressive by having his closest friends and henchmen meet him today in Indiana.

His friends last night revealed the secret that they plan to present Capone with a big new automobile in which he will ride into the city in the style befitting his eminence in gangdom. Capone himself, a few hours after he had shed his prison garments and discarded his identity as convict No. 90275, set the stage for his reappearance in his domain of booze, vice and gambling.

Gets Tip to Lie Low.

"I'm out; how are conditions in Chicago?" he telephoned to one of his trusty lieutenants in Cicero Monday evening. The answer was a trifle disconcerting to the fellow who had achieved considerable political influence as well as money in Chicago.

Capone was told that conditions were not auspicious for his early entry into Chicago. He was informed of the amount of publicity he was receiving, of the plans of the police to arrest him on sight, and of the possibility that the government might set an old contempt case for early trial.

Capone's friend also reminded him that with the recent killing of Dingbat Uberta and two of Ted Newberry's men affairs were rather messed up.

Arrival Expected Today.

"Not so good," Capone was quoted by the friend as remarking. "I'd better stay over a day or two until things are shaped up a little."

Capone then asked for Jack Cusick, his chief "man of business" in Chicago, and was told he would arrive here today from Florida.

"Fine," Capone replied. "Tell Jack to meet me in Indiana, you know where."

"A lot of us will meet you, boss, and we have a little present for you," the sub-chieftain informed his leader. "Where are you and when will you be there?"

Capone's reported answer was that he wasn't far away from the prison and he would be pleased to receive his retainers late this afternoon, perhaps in time so that if he were arrested on his arrival in Chicago he would be able to get a writ of habeas corpus.

Phones Thanks to Prison.

The conversation, revealed as an authentic account of the intentions of Capone and his bootleggers, vice mongers and gambling overseers, was in accord with a dispatch from Philadelphia. This was that Capone and his bodyguard and prisonmate, Frank Rio, alias Cline, had spent the night in the home of a friend in Philadelphia and arranged to leave by airplane yesterday morning.

The underworld czar, according to the dispatch, telephoned the penitentiary yesterday morning to thank the officials for their kindly treatment of himself and his man, Rio, and the conversation, vouched for in the city of brotherly love, included the following by Capone:

"We changed our plans at the last minute. I'm still in the city. We're going to take off now by airplane. I won't tell you where we're going, so if anybody inquires you can honestly say you don't know. We'll be gone in a half hour. The ship's already warmed up and ready to go. Thanks again."

Prison officials said last night Capone and Rio were driven away from the gates of Gratersford in a brown automobile and they went to Philadelphia, where they were in bed by 10 o'clock. They were up the next morning and out to a local airport shortly after 5 o'clock.

Disappoints Home Folks.

A welcome feast had been prepared at the home of Capone's mother, 7244 Prairie avenue, and all day yesterday there was an appearance of expectancy at the house. Whenever another automobile would stop near the house some one inside would come to the front window to see who alighted.

Lieut. Edward Goffin and twenty-four policemen, a detective bureau squad and a police flivver were stationed in the block, on which the streets were lined with cars all afternoon and evening and a crowd awaited the return of the gang boss who now

End Comes to Noted English Statesman, 82

WOKING, Surrey, England, March 19.—(AP)—Lord Balfour, veteran statesman, died at 8:45 a. m. today at the home of his brother Gerald, where he had been seriously ill for a week. He was in his 82nd year.

LEADER OF BRITISH

Arthur James Balfour, former prime minister of England, for nearly fifty years was a prominent figure in British political life. A nephew of Lord Salisbury, he once was characterized as "an aristocrat who entered parliament to protect the privileges of his caste and to taste the joys of intellectual mastery." Philosopher as well as statesman, it has been said of him that "he was never so happy as when discussing some new guess at the nature of matter or the nature of the soul."

As first lord of the admiralty in the coalition war cabinet (1915-'16), foreign secretary (1916-'19), head of the British mission to America (1917), British delegate to the Paris peace conference (1919) and to important post bellum deliberations (1920-'21) at San Remo, Hythe, Brussels, San Sebastian, Rome, London, Geneva, and elsewhere, he took a notable part in the war and the efforts at reconstruction, in settling reparation, boundary, racial and similar problems.

Came to United States in 1917.

During Balfour's term as first lord of the admiralty, the German air raiders were most active in their attacks on London and English coast towns as a result of which he was severely criticized. Interpellated in the house of commons, [illegible]itted that "mistakes" h[illegible]de in the British aerial def[illegible]on after Premier Asquith re[illegible]d, and David Lloyd George, at the head of a coalition ministry, succeeded him and named Balfour as his secretary of state for foreign affairs.

As foreign secretary, the earl of Balfour came to the United States in April, 1917, at the head of the British high commission, almost at the hour America was declaring the existence of a state of war with Germany. The purpose of the envoys, as well as that of similar allied commissions sent here, was to assist the United States in determining the scope of its cooperation with men, money and munitions. Balfour visited President Wilson, addressed both houses of congress and, by his picture of conditions abroad as well as by his eloquence did much, it was said "to help heal the breach of 141 years between the United States and England."

Shows Skill at Peace Parley.

Balfour's skill as an international diplomatist was shown at the peace table. Lloyd George was one of the big four—the others were Clemenceau, Wilson and Orlando—but Balfour's also was a master hand for England.

At twenty-six, in 1874, Balfour entered the house of commons. He had become a recognized scholar at Eton and Cambridge.

He joined forces with the conservative rebel element known as the Fourth party, whose other three members were Lord Randolph Churchill, Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, and Sir John Gorst. These men proclaimed independence of party ties and voted on measures according to their merits. All were brilliant debaters.

Suppressed Irish Terror Reign.

In 1886, Balfour became chief secretary for Ireland. Ireland was in a state of chaos. The "reign of terror" was in full force. Balfour suppressed the disorders by abolishing trial by jury. The people of Ireland detested the new administrator and many were the threats against "bloody Balfour."

For ten years consecutively, the Conservative party remained in power until 1905. In the interval, after Salisbury's death, Balfour had succeeded to the position of prime minister in 1902.

Lord Balfour made his second notable visit to the United States in October, 1921, coming as head of the British delegation to the Washington armament conference. He took one of the most prominent parts in this epochal assembly, and is credited with bringing about the restriction on battleship tonnage.

Upon his return to England he was proposed for the peerage, largely because of his services in Washington, but he declined at first. Later, however, he was invested with the Order of the Garter, and in March, 1923, at the request of King George he entered the house of lords, taking the title of Earl of Balfour and Viscount Traprain of Whittingehame."

England Orders U.S. Negro Jazz Band Out of Country

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 18.—For the first time in history an American Negro jazz band was summarily ordered to leave England today when Leon Abbe's band, playing at the Deauville restaurant, was ousted by the government. A complaint was entered last week that the five Negro musicians had not the proper authorization to play in London.

SENATE VOTES CENSORSHIP ON OBSCENE BOOKS

Smoot Twitted as He Talks Purity.

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Provisions for censorship of imports of foreign literature were restored to the tariff bill tonight by the senate.

The action, on which no record vote was taken, ended two days of debate fraught with vigorous and picturesque attacks upon the principle and the application of censorship.

It came on adoption of a modified amendment sponsored by Senator Smoot [Rep., Utah], who was the center of a day-long debate, amid cries of "intolerance" and calls for protection against influences termed "corrupting." This amendment restores that section of the tariff bill eliminated by an amendment by Senator Cutting [Rep., N. M.], but with modifications.

Appeal to Court Provided.

As it now stands, the section would provide for seizure by customs officials of literature held to be "obscene, immoral, or treasonable." Destruction would be held up, however, until the matter was adjudged by a jury in a federal district court, and until appeals from that decision had been taken to the highest court.

The amendment would permit the secretary of the treasury, in his discretion, to admit the "so-called classics or books of recognized and established literary or scientific merit," when imported for non-commercial purposes.

When the amendment was disposed of, not one of the more than a score of volumes brought into the chamber yesterday by Senator Smoot as exhibits of the books he termed "immoral" was to be seen on the desk where, throughout the day, they rested while not in use. Until the end several senators perused the books.

Tydings Ridicules Aim.

Preceding the vote, Senator Tydings of Maryland, in opposing the proposal asserted that a "race of ninnies and nincompoops" would be produced by attempting to "make men good by law."

"I don't want you to save me by legislation," he said. "If I want to read an immoral book I'll read it, and I'm afraid I'll go to hell and damnation after I have read it.

"We come to congress now, where we used to go to God. I want to get to heaven in my own way and I don't need to ask the senate of the United States to point the way. I don't want to be made a good man by the threat of the bayonet or the prison bars."

Tydings ridiculed the prohibition law as another method of attempting to "make men good by legislation."

"And what a mess we have made of it," he added. The practice of placing poison in alcohol, he described as "governmental murder in the name of righteousness."

Recalls Mother's Censorship.

Senator Trammell [Dem., Fla.], disagreed.

"I may be an old fogey," he said, "but I recall how in my youth my mother barred from our fireside obscene and seditious literature."

The result of this, said Trammell, was inculcation in the children of high ideals of patriotism and love of country.

Senator Blease made an impassioned plea for stringency. Taking from his desk one of the volumes Senator Smoot had brought in yesterday, he said:

"I wish that every man in this chamber could read page 53 in this book. I would not want any woman to read it, even if she were the lowest type this side of hades."

Senator Wheeler of Montana introduced a series of writings of Brigham Young, second president of the Mormon church. He declared that for some references in them to "our government," the Mormon leader could have been sent to prison under a law such as Smoot proposed.

Would Include All.

"If there is any literature that he [Brigham Young] ever wrote or put into circulation which would fall under the ban of this amendment," Smoot retorted, "it ought to be banned and I would have no objection to it being banned."

Senator Cutting of New Mexico said under the present censorship the works of Shakespeare might be banned. The love making of Hamlet and Ophelia, he said, was "obscene," and the first pages of "King Lear" were "indecent."

"I can show in Shakespeare," he ing asserted, "all of the matters which were contained in the extracts which have been pointed out."

"I have read Shakespeare," Smoot retorted, "and there is no more comparison between what is in Shakespeare and what is in the books of which the senator is speaking than there is between heaven and hell."

Senator Couzens of Michigan interjected that he was very much interested in "the difference between heaven and hell."

"I could never get a definition," he observed.

Chiding Smoot for distributing many seized foreign books for senators to peruse during the debate, Senator Cutting offered the Utahan a copy of "Pornography and Obscenity," by D. H. Lawrence, and said:

"I commend this to the senator from Utah. It might fill some of the hours he previously used in reading 'Lady Chatterly's Lover.'"

Jumping to his feet in a rage, Smoot asserted he had not spent ten minutes reading that book.

"I would not think of reading anything the senator suggested after hearing his speech today," Smoot added.

Fears for Boys and Girls.

A copy of "Lady Chatterly's Lover" at this juncture reposed in the hands of Senator Copeland of New York, who sat near Smoot reading it.

Pointing to the book the lanky Utahan shouted:

"No man would write a book like that unless his soul was so black it would be a shining light in hell."

"I'm not worried about the senator from New Mexico, or the senator from Montana reading these books" he added. "But what about the boys and girls."

Cutting produced a number of popular magazines and asserted that he considered them "far more indecent in every way" than the books which Smoot had brought into the chamber.

When Cutting had finished with the book Senator Couzens reached over for it and started reading amid laughter from the senators and the galleries.

Pointing to Couzens, the New Mexico senator said:

"There is nothing indecent about this book except what may be indecent in the classics."

Leaping to his feet, Senator Smoot asserted that "there can't be words put together more vile and rotten than are in these books."

Restore Countervailing Clause.

After approving the Smoot amendment on book censorship the senate restored to the bill the existing countervailing clause permitting retaliatory rates on wood pulp, pulpboard, and wallboard in event other countries levy duties on similar products from the United States. The coal and planed lumber countervailing provisions were placed back in the bill last night.

How the Senators Voted.

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—The test on the measure in the senate to give customs officers censorship power over imported obscene literature came tonight on a motion by Senator E. S. Broussard [Dem., Ia.] to insert a clause to bar importation of seditious literature, which is not in the present law but was incorporated in the bill as passed by the house. This motion was adopted by a vote of 54 to 24.

Following this action the senate adopted the complete amendment as sponsored by Senator Smoot without a roll call.

In the vote on the Broussard amendment 36 Republicans and 18 Democrats were recorded in the affirmative, while 13 Republicans and 11 Democrats lined up against it. The Republicans on the negative side were chiefly the radicals.

Of senators from central states, Senators Otis F. Glenn [Rep., Ill.], James E. Watson and Arthur Robinson [Rep., Ind.], James Couzens and A. H. Vandenberg [Rep., Mich.], and Daniel Steck [Dem., Ia.] voted for the Broussard amendment, while Senators Robert M. La Follette and John J. Blaine [Rep., Wis.] and S. W. Brookhart [Rep., Ia.] voted against it.

The Smoot amendment as adopted prohibits importation into the United States from any foreign country of "any book, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture or drawing containing any matter advocating or urging treason or insurrection against the United States or forcible resistance to any law of the United States or containing any threat to take the life or inflict bodily harm upon any person in the United States, or any obscene book, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture, drawing, or other representation, figure, or image on or of paper or other material, or any cast, instrument, or other article which is obscene or immoral, or any drug or medicine, or any article whatever for the prevention of conception or for causing unlawful abortion, or any lottery ticket, or any printed paper that may be used as a lottery ticket, or any advertisement of any lottery."

15,583 British Lose Jobs in a Week; Total, 1,563,800

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 18.—According to ministry of labor figures issued tonight, new records have been reached in England's unemployment figures. A total of 1,563,800 were out of work with the week ending March 10, or 15,583 more than the previous week.

REINDICT CAPONE GUNMAN AFTER HE WALKS FREE

Prosecutor Changes Mind —2 Gunners Jailed.

The state's attorney's office reversed itself yesterday and decided that it will let the higher courts rule on whether a gangster, as hoodlums contend, has the right to bear firearms to protect himself.

The case in point is that of Frank Diamond, Capone lieutenant, who on Monday was allowed to walk free from the courtroom of Judge Peter M. Schwaba because an assistant state's attorney agreed to the quashing of a gun-toting indictment on the ground that the police have no right to search a gangster for a gun unless they first obtain a search warrant.

State's Attorney Swanson yesterday ordered Diamond reindicted on the recommendation of Judge Schwaba and it was indicated that in the near future Diamond will be allowed to let the Supreme court decide whether he should go to jail.

Diamond Is Again Indicted.

Diamond was promptly reindicted by the grand jury after Assistant State's Attorney Edwin Spiro had presented evidence to show that the gangster was found with a loaded revolver when searched by the police last January. His case will be brought to trial within a few weeks, it was announced.

Judge John P. McGoorty, who, when acting chief justice of the Criminal court, ordered the grand jury to cooperate with the police anti-gun campaign, did not inquire yesterday about whether the police had search warrants when they arrested suspects. Judge McGoorty sentenced James Carver, an East Indian ex-convict, to the maximum term of one year in the Bridewell and fined him $300 for carrying a concealed weapon.

Jerry Allen, colored, another guntoter, was sentenced to six months in the Bridewell by Judge McGoorty. The police did not have search warrants in either case.

Cite Supreme Court Ruling.

A decision returned by the Supreme court in the case of Big Joe Saltis, south side gang leader, was the basis for the action of one of Prosecutor Swanson's assistants on Monday in agreeing that Diamond was illegally searched by the police because they had no search warrant, and that the evidence should be suppressed.

The Supreme court ruling sets forth the facts of Saltis' arrest in a back room of a saloon while he and three companions were playing cards.

"The officers had no warrant and before the search there was no evidence that any of the occupants [of the saloon] were violating the law," the decision reads. "The violation [carrying the gun] was discovered as a result of the search of the defendant."

"Upon the trial," the decision goes on, "the defendant objected to the introduction in evidence of the revolver, but his objection was overruled, and he now insists that he has been deprived of his constitutional rights. The testimony of the witnesses that the revolver was found concealed on his [Saltis'] person was received without objection, and showed that the defendant was guilty of the offense with which he was charged."

The state's attorney's office at first construed the phrase "without objection" to mean that had Saltis objected it would have been reversible error.

Others pointed out that the Supreme court in its opinion gave no such indication and, in fact, upheld the conviction.

Seize 4 Women, 4 Men; One Sought in Slaying

Four women and four men were arrested yesterday in a raid by state's attorney's detectives on a room at the Roxy hotel, 1310 Jackson boulevard. Among the prisoners is Ann Larson, 23 years old, who has been sought as an accessory in connection with the slaying last January of Frank Battaglia. She probably will be arraigned in the Felony court today. Deportation proceedings may also be started against Margaret Rothenbach, 19 years old, another of the prisoners. The others arrested are Joseph Ronga, Joseph Mancini, Joseph DeCarlo, Tony Demilio, Jeanne Gordon, and Marie Willet.

CHICAGO COMMERCE LEADERS ASK SPEED ON TARIFF MEASURE

Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, acting with the unanimous consent of its executive committee, yesterday appealed to Senators Deneen and Glenn and the rest of Chicago's congressional delegation and to members of the senate finance committee in Washington to speed action on the tariff as a means of stimulating business and reducing unemployment.

Col. Randolph asserted that the delay on the tariff is seriously affecting employment and slowing up national rehabilitation.

"The uncertainties of the tariff situation are having a detrimental effect on business," his message read. "They are slowing up production and distribution and to that extent contributing to unemployment.

"It is the feeling of many of our members that the tariff question should be settled with all possible dispatch in order that the business of the country may be promptly relieved of the situation caused by the tardiness with which the enactment of tariff legislation is surrounded."

5 CHICAGO IDLE FOR EVERY OPEN JOB, SENATE TOLD

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—Dr. Benjamin W. Squires, director of the Illinois state employment agency and a professor at the University of Chicago, testified before the senate commerce committee today that unemployment in Chicago during the past months "has been the most acute in ten years."

Dr. Squires was the first witness at the committee's hearings relative to proposed legislation to provide for a systematic gathering of unemployment statistics by the government and for the extension of federal employment agency work. Dr. Squires endorsed both proposals.

There are five workers for every job available in Chicago, the "highest ratio" in the history of the employment agencies, the witness said, but added that the situation is less acute now than a month or six weeks ago. He expressed the opinion that unemployment is "slackening slightly" in New York and Philadelphia as well as Chicago.

President Hoover's efforts to prevent a panic, Dr. Squires stated, brought "admirable results" in Illinois where employers cooperated heartily. But the prosperity program, he said, came late and was not based on complete information.

Pair Seized, Admit Theft and Sale of 50 Auto Tags

A campaign opened yesterday by Police Commissioner Russell to halt the theft of vehicle license tags brought quick results. Robert McPherson, 23 years old, and Prince Williams, 22 years old, both colored, were arrested as they were removing the tags from an auto at 57th street and Prairie avenue. The pair admitted the theft of 50 plates, saying they sold them for $1 apiece.

Golf and Poker Are Her Rivals, Wife Says in Suit

Mrs. Julia Dunning of Wilmette yesterday filed a bill for divorce in the Circuit court against Dr. Walter A. Dunning, 6357 Broadway, a chiropodist. Mrs. Dunning charges that her husband spent his spare time in playing golf or poker, leaving her at home alone. When he desired feminine companionship she alleges that he sought the company of other women.

DOHENY STICKS TO 'LOAN' STORY IN TWO HOUR QUIZ

But Breaks Down as Dead Son Is Mentioned.

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Through two hours of sharp cross-examination, Edward L. Doheny maintained today the $100,000 he advanced to Albert B. Fall in 1921 was a loan, and not a bribe to the cabinet officer to induce him to award Doheny's company a lease to the Elk Hills naval oil reserve.

The 73 year old oil man opened the way, however, for the government to get before the jury the statement that civil courts had returned the leases to the government on the ground of fraud and that he himself had refused to testify in those suits on the ground that to do so might incriminate him. This was the first time the government has succeeded in getting this evidence introduced in any criminal trial growing out of the notorious oil leases.

Doheny wept when he testified concerning his son who was killed by his secretary a year ago. He showed spirit however, during the cross-examination.

Evades Question.

He evaded the question of his refusal to testify in the civil trial which resulted in the Elk Hills lease being returned to the government until Justice William Hitz instructed him to answer.

Finally Owen J. Roberts, special government prosecutor, read to the jury a statement that Doheny had read to the court in the civil trial, which wound up with the assertion that he declined to testify on the grounds that anything he might say might tend to incriminate him in the subsequent criminal trial.

Roberts endeavored to show Doheny and Fall had conspired prior to Nov. 30, 1921, to get possession of the naval oil reserve. During this questioning Doheny told of Fall sending him security for the $100,000 Doheny had advanced him.

Security in 1924.

He received this security in 1924, he said, at a time when the first criminal indictments against him and Fall had been quashed. He said Fall could do this at that time without being charged with trying to cover up something, because nothing concerning the cases was pending in court.

"You knew the civil suits were pending, didn't you?" Roberts asked.

"Yes," replied Doheny.

"And you knew the leases were returned to the government?" asked the prosecutor, to which the defendant replied that he knew the court's decision.

NAMES LOUNSBURY TO HANDLE CHARGES OF BALLOT FRAUDS

State's Attorney Swanson announced yesterday that he has assigned Assistant State's Attorney Charles Lounsbury to investigate charges of election frauds which have been called to his attention. The prosecutor said he had been informed of alleged frauds in connection with the recent registration. He also was told, he said, of contemplated frauds.

Swanson refused to give any details of the complaints he says have been made to him. He said he was assigning Lounsbury to the cases because of his experience in these matters gained while an assistant to Attorney Frank J. Loesch, veteran campaigner against the alliance of crime and politics.

JUDGE RAPS DRYS FOR PROMOTING LAW VIOLATIONS

Tactics by which dry agents promote violations of the law in order to make arrests were assailed yesterday by Federal Judge Woodward, who let two druggists off with fines after they had pleaded guilty to a liquor charge.

David and Jack Maslowsky, through their attorney, Joseph Merensky, set forth that the dry agents came to their store, the M & H Pharmacy, 372 West Chicago avenue, and bought whisky at $3 a pint on physicians' prescriptions. Later they came and begged the proprietors to sell them more whisky without prescriptions.

The drys, according to the druggists, posed as actors, and said they needed liquor for stimulation during performances. The defendants admitted that they finally sold the agents some whisky without a prescription.

"This may not be technical entrapment," said Judge Woodward, "but it is close to it. This court does not approve of such conduct."

Police Seize 398 Suspects; 8 Found Carrying Guns

THILO MURDER CASE WILL GO TO JURY TODAY

3 Defendants Deny They Beat Holdup Victim.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Jimmy Carver, carrying concealed weapons, sentenced to one year in the county jail and fined $300 and costs by Judge John P. McGoorty.

Abe De Vorkin, assault to rob, sentenced to one year to life in the penitentiary by Judge Walter P. Steffen.

A jury in Judge John J. Sullivan's Criminal court today will get the case of three young men who are on trial for murder in connection with the death of Dr. G. W. Thilo. The state contends Dr. Thilo died as a result of a beating administered during a robbery, while the defense asserts that his death was due to natural causes for which the defendants cannot be held legally accountable. Closing arguments were started yesterday afternoon and will be concluded this morning. The jury will begin its deliberations this afternoon.

Deny Using Violence.

The defendants, Lawrence Ogden, Allan Goldstein and Raymond Scott, took the witness stand in their own behalf yesterday and admitted robbing Dr. Thilo on Dec. 14, 1928. They denied, however, that they used any violence in the crime and said that the only occurrence during the robbery which might have caused an injury to the doctor came when he tripped and fell down in trying to back away from them.

Dr. Schmidt on Stand.

Dr. Louis E. Schmidt, testifying as a medical expert for the state, said that in his opinion Dr. Thilo's death was caused by external violence. He said the injury which caused death could not have come from a fall such as described by the defendants.

Assistant State's Attorneys Harry Ditchburne and Nat Ruvell are asking the jury for a death penalty verdict. Attorneys Charles Dougherty and Sam Hoffman for the defense are asking for acquittal on the ground that pneumonia, and not any act of their clients, caused Dr. Thilo's death.

OIL MAN HELD FOR RANSOM BY MEXICAN BANDITS

San Angelo, Tex., March 18.—(AP)—J. E. Bristow, San Angelo oil operator, is being held by bandits in Mexico for $3,000 ransom, relatives here were informed today. Members of the family were trying to get in touch with the American consul at Juarez in an effort to effect his release.

Invite Strawn to Explain Tax Warrant Sale.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Members of the council finance committee criticized the Chicago banks and Silas H. Strawn, head of the citizens' rescue committee, for a considerable time yesterday morning. No representative of either the banks or the Strawn committee was present.

Ald. John S. Clark [30th], chairman of the committee, made this line of attack:

"Detroit about March 1 sold $15,000,000 worth of tax anticipation warrants, bearing 4.13 per cent interest, due Aug. 7, at a price to yield the investor 4.15 per cent. The investor then retailed the warrants to yield 4.21 per cent. Chicago has to pay 6 per cent. A difference of 1¾ per cent means an added local burden of $3,000,000 a year, because there are about $200,000,000 of tax warrants outstanding from the various local governments.

Charges City Is Held Up.

"I want to find out the reason why Chicago is being held up. There can be only three reasons. First is the financial reputation of the city, second the reassessment, and third, it may be—I do not know—that the sale of warrants is being suppressed by an organized group."

Ald. Clark quoted some authority as saying that Chicago tax anticipation warrants "are the best buy in the country" and added his own opinion that "they are the best buy in the world."

"In that added burden of $3,000,000," he continued, "I have not included the 10 per cent extra the board of education paid last year for money. The board had to borrow $40,000,000 at one time, when all it needed for the succeeding eight months was $10,000,000. It is time to straighten out Chicago's credit before the world."

City's Borrowing Recalled.

Some observers recalled that the city administration took the lead in paying a high rate on tax anticipation warrants when a year ago it went to New York and sold $15,000,000 worth of warrants at 5¾ per cent. This transaction was approved by the aldermen. Subsequently the city borrowed $40,000,000 locally at 6 per cent. Part of that, too, was borrowed before it was needed. Later came the borrowing of $45,000,000 by the board of education at 6 per cent, to which Ald. Clark yesterday objected.

Two months ago Mr. Strawn condemned the city and school board practice of borrowing money before it was needed. He asserted that such a method should be stopped at once.

The scolding of Mr. Strawn was performed chiefly by Ald. Oscar F. Nelson [46th], Mayor Thompson's floor leader in the city council. The basis of the attack was a story told by E. Wallace Caldwell, president of the school board. He claimed that he found four banking groups in New York willing to buy school tax warrants if he could obtain the written approval of two Chicago banks. He has not yet disclosed the identity of any of the six banks.

"If a boycott has been arranged," said Ald. Nelson, "and I do not say there has been, we might induce whoever is responsible to lift it."

"Boycott is a strong word," commented Ald. L. B. Anderson [2d].

"Has there been a boycott?" demanded Ald. Joseph B. McDonough [13th].

"Yes," replied Nelson, "but that word was not used. Mr. Caldwell told you the facts. Any one who wants to deny those facts should be given an opportunity here."

So the committee, at the suggestion of Ald. Nelson, invited Mr. Strawn to appear next Tuesday for interrogation. Mr. Strawn had been invited to attend the committee session yesterday, but he will not return to Chicago until Saturday.

Millionaire Youth, 17, Dead of Pneumonia

New York, March 18.—[Special.]—Paul Brown III., 17, Worcester, Mass., academy student, who two years ago inherited several million dollars from his grandfather, Paul Brown of St. Louis, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Paul Brown Jr., today after a week's illness of pneumonia.

The youthful millionaire came home from school last Saturday and complained of a boil on his neck. Infection set in and later pneumonia.

BROKER PREFERS A BLONDE

Ruth Taylor, who was married to Paul S. Zuckerman, New York broker, by Mayor Jimmy Walker, in a bridal costume which she selected for herself while she was playing in the screen version of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

She's a Bride

New York, March 18.—[Special.]—Ruth Taylor, motion picture actress, and Paul S. Zukerman, stock broker, were married yesterday evening, it was learned today. Mayor Walker performed the ceremony, which took place at the home of Billy Seeman and his wife, the former Phyllis Haver, screen star.

Miss Taylor, who began her career as a Mack Sennett bathing girl, rose to stardom last year when she was picked to play Lorelei Lee in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." She is 22 and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Taylor of Beverly Hills, Cal. She has been spending the winter here at the Ambassador hotel with her parents.

Mr. Zukerman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zukerman. He is 30. His first wife, the former Miss Agnes Kuhn, whom he married in 1926, died in April, 1927.

COUNTY SAVINGS FOR 3 MOS. ONLY 11 PCT. OF QUOTA

Taxing Branches Spend Over Allowance.

A report of the stewardship of county officials for the first quarter of the fiscal year, presented to the county board yesterday by J. L. Jacobs, county efficiency expert, reveals that the officials have effected a savings of only 11 per cent of the amount set for the period under the ten months' economy budget. Under this budget plan, the county board intended that enough should be saved out of the appropriations each month to enable the county government to carry on for the remaining two months for which no appropriation was made.

Only salaries are included in the report. While the officials outside of the taxing departments saved $111,326, or 40 per cent of the goal $278,049, the tax departments, including the board of review, assessors, county clerks, county treasurer, and reassessment staff, spent $82,015 more than they should have expended, leaving a net county saving of only $29,311.

Board Holds Down Salaries.

The county commissioners set an example for other officials by keeping their salaries $2,470 under the $30,395 figure set for December, January and February.

The allotments for the more important departments and offices for the quarter and the excesses of their expenditures over these figures are as follows:

	Appropriation.	Excess.
Oak Forest	$ 92,974	$ 2,903
Hospital	210,710	25,981
Public welfare	63,259	1,316

Pay Rolls Total $2,258,254.

For the first quarter pay rolls totaled $2,258,254. Under the ten months plan the total should have been $1,954,148. It was pointed out by Mr. Jacobs that the officials will have to make up the excess in the next three-quarters if the county is to live within its budget.

HE'S FINED $5 FOR SLAP.

Rudolph Jam, 31 years old, was fined $5 by Judge Joseph McCarthy yesterday for slapping Miss Hulia Chovanex, 22 years old, in a rooming house at 1921 Blue Island avenue, where both reside.

LIST 64 MARRIED WOMEN IN SURVEY OF CITY POSITIONS

The names of sixty-four married women who are working for the city have been sent to City Clerk Smith by department heads, in accordance with the survey ordered by the council at the request of Ald. John Toman [23]. In the absence of reports from the departments of law and public works, where a number of married women are employed, the results of the survey will not be sent to the council today.

The police department was found to be the employer of the greatest number of married women, having 26 on the rolls. Most of these were listed as policewomen and only two had husbands who also work for the city. The board of local improvements ranked second with 16 working wives on the books. Nine departments have no married women in their offices.

Ald. Toman originated the survey with the expressed purpose of ousting the married women, so that a number of unemployed men could be given jobs.

Tarrytown, N. Y., March 18.—[Special.]—John D. Rockefeller Jr., himself a Republican, emerged the victor in the North Tarrytown election today by the election of two of the three Democratic candidates for trustee.

Mr. Rockefeller had appealed to the board of trustees to close the Gory Brook road so that he could add it to his estate.

The Republican candidates, James Johnston, Michael J. Coffey, and Thomas Carroll, attacked the Democrats as being puppets of Rockefeller, and charged that if the Democrats were elected he would be given the Gory Brook road. The Democrats won.

EX-BANK WORKER CONFESSES HE KIDNAPED WOMAN

Chester Crawford, 19 years old, 7654 South Bishop street, last night was identified by Miss Grace Cooper, 2358 East 70th place, as the youth who held her up and took her car after forcing her to drive him for some distance. Crawford was arrested by Policeman J. Griffith and Charles Bohne on Saturday night when he flourished a revolver in a south side dance hall. He, last night, confessed kidnaping Miss Cooper and said he had obtained the gun several weeks ago when he took a part in a church play. On his way home from his employment as a messenger for the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company, on Feb. 1, he hailed Miss Cooper and, at the point of a revolver, ordered her to drive him away.

GIN DEATH CASE DRUGGIST ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY

Matthew McAnany, proprietor of a drug store at 901 East 55th street, where was purchased the so-called "poison gin" which three years ago resulted in the death of John Harper, 21 years old, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of maintaining a nuisance in the federal District court before Judge Wilkerson. The judge withheld sentence pending the trial of six others in the case, which is scheduled for today.

Police and federal prohibition agents raided McAnany's store after Harper died following a drinking orgy at a University of Chicago student's room. Manslaughter charges against the druggist were dropped when city chemists found the gin was "no more poisonous than any of the bootleg product." One year is the maximum sentence McAnany can receive.

The other defendants, who pleaded not guilty, are: Howard McNeil, Lucian Berry, John W. Day, and Matthew Raftree, employes of McAnany, and John Gregg and Peter Thomasson, connected with a barber shop allegedly implicated in the case.

Drinking Party Blamed for Deaths of Two in Fire

The police last night blamed a drinking party for the suffocation of two men in a basement flat fire yesterday morning at 1315 South Avers avenue. The victims, Joseph Gudowitch, 29 years old, janitor of the building, and Daniel Markus, 43 years old, 1426 South Springfield avenue, had apparently started the blaze by dropping lighted matches on the floor. The bodies were found on a bed.

A VICE PRESIDENCY IS OPEN TO A major advertising executive

THIS VACANCY, caused by the retirement of one of the members of the firm, is an enviable one in an agency established between 15 and 20 years. It presumes the services of an executive who can command an income of from $10,000 to $35,000 a year... Manifestly only a man of genuine worth, refinement and broad gauge who controls a substantial volume of billing is associable; but to him many ideal values are available: classic support in merchandising, copy and cooperation from men of extensive experience; an atmosphere of cordiality, and financial resources to accommodate several millions of additional business. The man selected will enjoy an important voice in the agency's councils and his compensation will be liberally adjusted to the position and its needs. No investment required. Eventually, if he desires it, he may acquire part ownership... Replies will be held in confidence and may be made through an intermediary.

Youthful Hats

For the Woman Whose Headsize Is Not Small

At the mention of Large Headsize one immediately has the vision of a hat almost ridiculously out of proportion with new hat smartness.

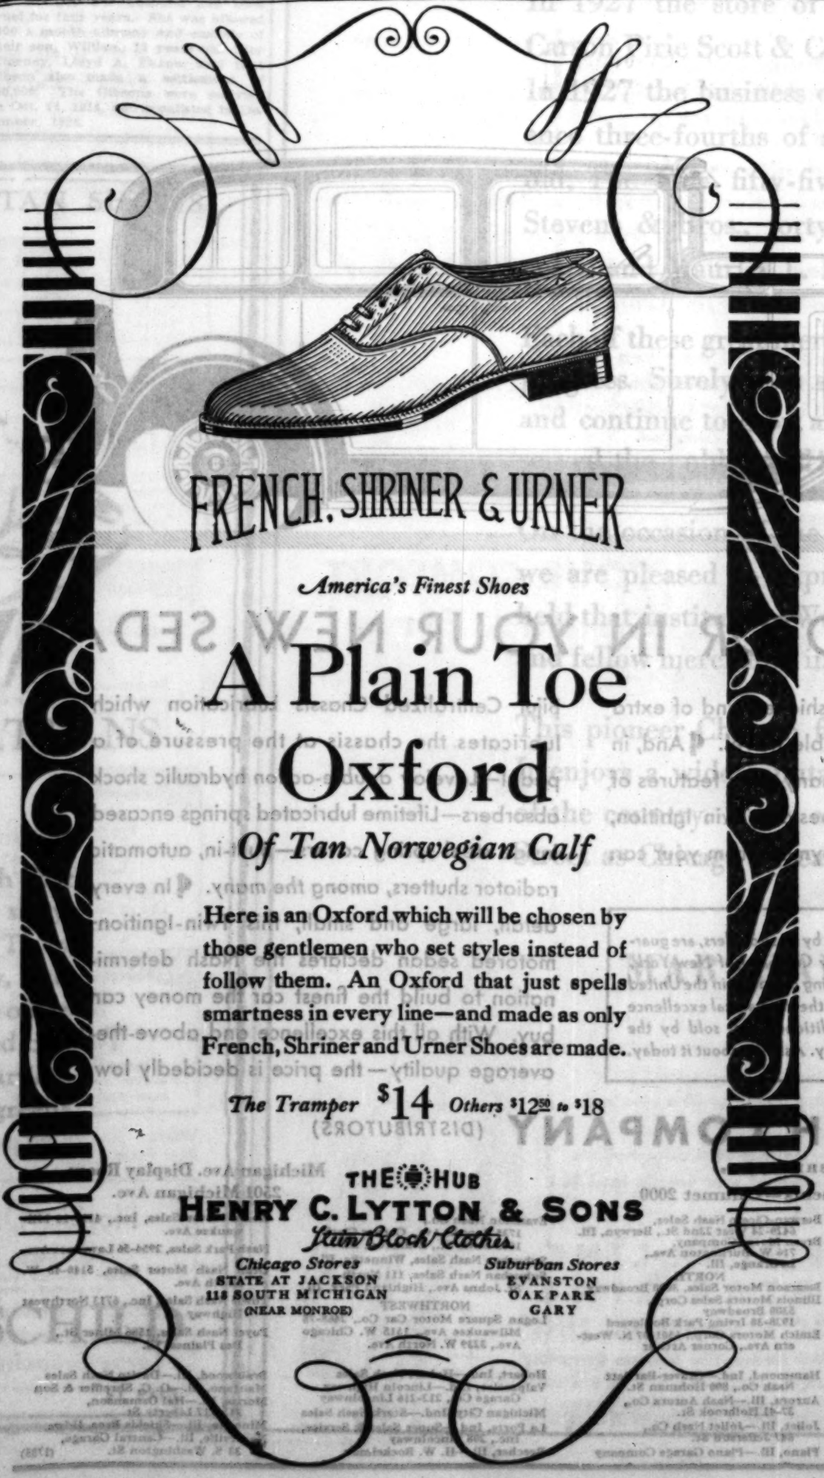

When a hat has been carefully designed as to crown and brim and with a thought as to trimming it is apt to create the illusion of the small and sleek (no matter what its size) and that is exactly what these do.

Brimmed styles have especial importance at this time, because the brim is to the fore everywhere. There are novelty straws, felts, and felt and straw combinations. The hat sketched is Baku and velvet and it is one of many styles in this group

HOPES TO TREAT PNEUMONIA BY RADIO WAVES

Engineers Experimenting on Animals.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 19.—[Special.]—Declaring he believed a door had been opened "to a new thought in the treatment of human ills," E. L. Manning of the research department of the General Electric company at Schenectady described at a dinner meeting of the Engineers' club here tonight developments which, it is hoped, may lead to the cure of ordinary colds, the prevention of pneumonia, and the abatement of a number of serious maladies through electrically induced fevers.

Mr. Manning cautioned that the work still was so early in the experimental stage that he and his associates were not prepared to speak with full authority, but asserted that experiments with rabbits and rats had brought most encouraging results.

"Diseases corresponding to those of humans appear to have been eliminated by these artificial fevers," he said.

Rise in Body Temperature.

Mr. Manning explained that when shorter wave lengths had been stepped down and down until the length from crest to crest of the electrical impulse became less than a yard and finally about an inch it was discovered that those within a few feet of the high frequency, short wave producer became ill. Clinical thermometers showed that the persons so exposed showed a rise of body temperature, and the conclusion was reached that the short waves, entering the body without heating the skin or perceptibly raising the surface temperature, did raise the temperature of the blood exactly as typhoid or malaria or influenza raises the blood temperature.

When the subjects stepped out of the zone of the short wave impulses the temperatures, which in some cases registered at 105 or 106, dropped and none of the usual results of ordinary fevers followed. There was no soreness, no shapping of lips, and little of continued lassitude, said Mr. Manning.

Tells of Nature's Way.

"In general," he continued, "it seemed to be agreed by the best medical authorities that the fever produced by illness is nature's way of trying to destroy invading bacteria or bacilli. In that burning ferment of the blood there is a tendency toward destruction of the evil invading host, which usually can be killed by a slight rise in temperature.

"The question occurs, Can this rise in blood temperature produced by these short length electrical waves kill these causes of diseases in the early stages of invasion? We are working toward an answer to that question."

THREE EXPERTS URGE AUTO TOLL CURES AT SAFETY MEET

Three experts addressing the eighth annual Midwest Safety conference at the Palmer house yesterday made three recommendations for reducing the accident toll of automobiles.

Harold S. Buttenheim of New York, editor of American City, spoke of a need for uniformity in traffic regulations and practices.

W. W. Matthews, deputy commissioner of motor vehicles of Pennsylvania, used the subject, "What a Good Driver's License Law Will Do."

Judge Lee Skeel of the Cleveland Municipal court talked of traffic law enforcement.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, former president of the west park board, was given the floor and he attacked many popular theories of traffic experts.

Judge Skeel declared that a large part of the motor toll is due to the average citizen's failure to respect laws.

In the evening, Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, addressed a banquet at the Palmer house which closed the safety conference. His subject was "Saving the Reputation of Chicago."

Czechs Jail 20 Hungarians for Singing Their Anthem

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PRAGUE, March 18.—Twenty Hungarians living in the Slovak town of Neuschloss were arrested today, charged with having sung the Hungarian national anthem after mass last Sunday. This constitutes a crime, under the Czecho-Slovakian law for protection of the state.

TRAIN HITS AUTO; TWO GIRLS AND BROTHER KILLED

Car Dragged 500 Yards Near South Bend.

A brother and his two sisters were killed instantly yesterday when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a west bound Grand Trunk passenger train at Granger, Ind., ten miles northeast of South Bend. The victims were Warren Dunning, 21 years old; Irene, 16; and Marie, 14.

Warren was driving his sisters home from a country school near Granger. The Dunning home is just over the Michigan state line, a short distance north of Granger and a good walk from the school. The brother apparently did not see the approaching train and drove directly into its path. The light coupe was carried for 500 yards down the track.

Invalid Seriously Injured.

Warren was employed by the Big Four railroad. His father, Lee Dunning, is a car inspector for the Grand Trunk railroad. Four younger children survive.

Mrs. Mathilda Kappus, 66 year old invalid, 6133 South Ashland avenue, was seriously injured yesterday when the automobile in which she was riding skidded on the state highway near Wauconda in western Lake county and plunged into a ditch. She suffered a fracture of the skull.

Two deaths yesterday raised the 1930 Cook county motor toll to 187. The victims:

Edward Sipple, 47 years old, 4818 West Erie street. Died in the Holy Cross hospital of injuries received on March 1 when the truck he was driving collided with an automobile at 65th street and Claremont avenue.

Mrs. Mary Panos, 35 years old, 213 North Kolmar avenue. Fatally injured when she was struck by a hit and run motorist at Kilbourn avenue and Lake street. She was found lying in the street by Thomas Martel, 5518 West Quincy street. She died in the Garfield Park hospital.

Nine year old Harold Mitchell, 3733 Sunnyside avenue, was seriously injured last night when struck by an automobile as he crossed the street.

RESTRICT SAFETY MEETINGS AFTER POLITICS CHARGE

Public school authorities acted yesterday to remove the political aspects from the safety meetings being conducted in south side schools by Frank C. Singleton, head of the school board's safety bureau. The action resulted in five meetings being canceled at the request of the school principals.

The new safety campaign, which Superintendent of Schools William J. Bogan has said is not needed, brought out a storm of protest when it was disclosed that most of the meetings were to be held in the Fifteenth ward, where Ernest Withall, business manager of the school board and Singleton's superior, resides. Withall is a candidate for reelection as ward committeeman of the Thompson Republican organization.

Both Singleton and Withall declared yesterday that it was only a coincidence that twelve of the sixteen scheduled meetings, all being given before the primary election on April 8, were for the Fifteenth ward.

Withall notified the school principals that he was not interested in the campaign and that if they so wished the meetings might be called off. Principals were notified by the superintendent's office to prohibit the use of the patrol boys in the programs.

SAWS WAY FROM JAIL.

Alton, Ill., March 18.—(AP)—Ray Bennett, 18, awaiting transfer to the state reformatory, sawed his way out of the new jail at Alton last night and, using a blanket rope, dropped 25 feet to an alley and escaped.

LIBERALS PLEDGE TRUCE IN WAR ON BRITISH LABOR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 18.—The threatened crisis in the house of commons over the coal mines bill, anticipated for Thursday, has been averted. The Liberal opposition decided tonight that "owing to the present situation of the naval conference, it would not be of national interest for any critical situation to arise in the house of commons at this juncture." Consequently amendments to the bill arising from the Conservatives will not have the Liberal support. The government will therefore be saved from defeat. The Liberals said this decision does not affect their actions in later stages of the debate.

NIECE ATTACKS $500,000 WILL OF SAMUEL HOFMAN

A bill to set aside the will of Samuel Hofman, Chicago real estate dealer, was filed yesterday in the Circuit court by his niece, Mrs. Florence Livingston Sanger of Dallas, Tex. Mrs. Sanger, who was cut off with $1, charges that her uncle was of unsound mind when he drew his will and was under the influence of unnamed persons. She claims to have been the beneficiary of a $10,000 bequest in the will, which was revoked in a codicil.

Hofman died Oct. 11, 1927, at the age of 75. His will created a $200,000 trust fund to be distributed among selected charities, made bequests to charities, and provided trust funds for various relatives. The value of the estate exceeded $500,000.

Only a doctor knows what a laxative should be

YOU don't want to use a laxative every day. Nor once a week. This should not be necessary. And it never would be required if all of us would learn the danger that lies in a careless selection of laxatives.

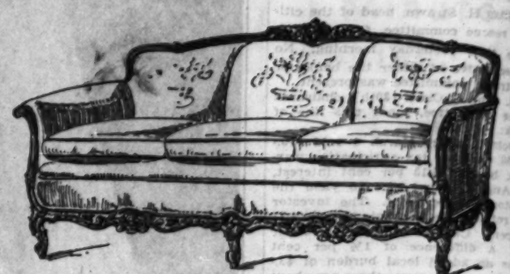

By taking the first thing that comes to mind when bad breath, headaches, dizziness, nausea, biliousness, gas on stomach and bowels, poor appetite, or lack of energy warns us that our bowels are sluggish, we risk forming the laxative habit.

Rely on a doctor's judgment in choosing your laxative. Here's one made from the prescription of a specialist in bowel and stomach trouble. Its originator tried it in many thousands of cases. He found it safe for women, children and old folks; thoroughly effective for the most robust man. There were so many calls for this prescription and its fame spread so rapidly that druggists began to fill it in quantities; kept it ready for calls. Now Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is prepared from the freshest herbs and other pure ingredients under ideal conditions. You can get the generous bottles of it from drug stores in any part of the world.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a real corrective of constipation. Millions have proved this. That's why it is today the world's most popular laxative!

FRANCO-ITALIAN DEADLOCK TIES UP NAVAL PARLEY

Rome Envoy Puts His Case Before Stimson.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 18.—Pending the return of Premier Tardieu of France next Saturday, desultory conversations among the delegates to the London naval conference continued today. Dino Grandi, Italian delegate, called on Secretary of State Stimson and discussed the Franco-Italian deadlock for more than an hour. It is said that his chief purpose was to get the Italian viewpoint before Mr. Stimson, in view of the fact that M. Tardieu had lodged the French argument with the head of the American delegation before departing for Paris yesterday.

Rene Massigli, French expert, conferred with American Ambassador Hugh Gibson. Tsuneo Matsudaira of Japan called on Senator David A. Reed to explain that Tokio's decision on the tentative settlement reached by the American and Japanese delegations will be delayed a few days.

Japanese Envoys Split.

It was learned tonight that the Japanese delegation is split over the agreement. Reijuro Wakatsuki, leader of the Japanese delegation, received instructions from the emperor that the delegation is to make no agreement that is not indorsed by Admiral Takarabe.

The admiral refused to agree to the American proposals, and Mr. Stimson persuaded Mr. Wakatsuki to seek fresh instructions. News was received in London tonight that the cabinet at Tokio has refused to vary Mr. Wakatsuki's original instructions.

The secrecy shrouding the negotiations resulted in a series of statements and denials from the Italian and French delegations tonight, which threatens further to embitter the relations between them.

Charges Fly Back and Forth.

The Fascist spokesman asserted that Sig. Grandi had offered to accept a 100,000 ton inferiority to the French global tonnage for a five year period. Premier Tardieu, he said, rejected this concession as insufficient. The French premier indicated that a 200,000 ton superiority over Italy was a vital necessity to France because of its colonial empire. The Rome representatives assert that they are now awaiting France's counter proposals and intend to do nothing further until they receive something tangible from the French.

The French delegation denied tonight that the Italian delegation had offered to accept a 100,000 ton inferiority and insisted that Sig. Grandi always has refused to discuss figures, merely demanding parity with whatever France maintains.

Americans Will Stay On.

The Franco-Italian deadlock is the chief obstacle in the way of a five power treaty. The American delegation is disposed to stay here as long as there is the slightest chance of breaking this deadlock. Not unless all hope in this direction fades will the Americans be willing to fall back on a three power treaty among America, Great Britain and Japan.

A five power treaty is viewed by the Americans as of supreme importance, for the reason that, even if no actual reduction of armaments is obtained in it, there will have been achieved for the first time a definite limitation of tonnage in all classes of ships, which will put to an end the building competition of the naval powers.

Would Promote World Peace.

This, from the viewpoint of economy in naval expenditures and the promotion of world peace, according to the American thesis, will outweigh whatever each nation gives up in the interest of an agreement.

Great Britain's acceptance of limitation to 50 cruisers aggregating 339,000 tons is regarded by the American delegation as a tremendous concession, despite the fact that Great Britain now has only 54 cruisers aggregating 327,000 tons. Great Britain, it is pointed out, demanded 70 cruisers aggregating 400,000 tons at Geneva in 1927.

America's concessions they regard as of no consequence compared to the greater good to be attained by halting naval building competition.

Abandons Geneva Policy.

America has receded from its insistence at Geneva of full freedom to put all of its cruiser tonnage into eight inch gun ships with long steaming radius, which America said she required in view of her lack of outlying naval bases. She has accepted the British proposal to restrict her to 18 big cruisers to Great Britain's 15, with the right accorded to Great Britain to go up to 18 and America to go down to 15 under specified conditions.

Although this leaves America short of parity, according to previous calculations of President Hoover and of the British, the American delegation is prepared to defend the settlement as establishing what is called "combat parity"—that is, approximate equality of fleets meeting in battle. According to the American delegates, their aim was to achieve combat equality, not equality in power to protect America's possessions and national commercial interests in far distant regions.

FIGHTS $110,000 SUIT

Mrs. Sadie K. O'Connell Goldblatt.
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Harry Goldblatt, 7119 East End avenue, is pictured as a male gold digger in the answer of his estranged wife, Mrs. Sadie Kaplan O'Connell Goldblatt, to his bill for an accounting to enforce the terms of a prenuptial agreement. Mrs. Goldblatt, who lives at 6832 Clyde avenue, filed her answer yesterday in the Superior court. She asks that her husband's suit to collect $110,000 of a $250,000 settlement received from her first husband be denied.

Goldblatt's bill was the first of its kind to be filed in Cook county. He declared that before they were married his wife signed an agreement by which he was to receive half of her interest in the settlement from her former husband, John Everett O'Connell, member of the brokerage firm of Brunswick, O'Connell & Co., and part owner of the Chicago Beach hotel.

Mrs. Goldblatt alleges that the day before her marriage she broke off her engagement when Goldblatt insisted on the agreement. They became reconciled and were married after his pleading. The agreement was not entered into, according to the wife's answer, until several weeks after their marriage. Goldblatt, she charges, boasted that he was marrying her for her money.

HUMANE WORKER TO ACCUSE DRIVER IN COURT TODAY

Miss Flora Ehlman, 724 Waveland avenue, treasurer of the Chicago Humane Education society, will tell Judge Alfred O. Erickson in Town Hall court this morning how she stopped a deliveryman who she said was beating his horse into a wild gallop. The driver turned the whip over to the woman when she demanded it.

The deliveryman, Otto Collins, 21 years old, who drives a wagon for J. W. Schloesser & Co., a grocery at 3916 Broadway, will be arraigned before Judge Erickson on a charge of cruelty to animals.

"It was a white horse who looked to be up in years," Miss Ehlman said last night. "He was doing the best that he could, just galloping away, but the young man continued to beat him unmercifully.

"I was standing at Pine Grove avenue and Grace street on Saturday morning. I watched the wagon come tearing down the street. I stepped to the curb and cried, 'Halt, young man!' He did."

Wife of Store Manager Wins Divorce, $400 Month

Mrs. Roslyn Gibson, 7271 South Shore drive, was granted a divorce yesterday from Robert E. Gibson, Philadelphia manager of F. W. Woolworth company stores, by Circuit Judge William V. Brothers. Mrs. Gibson charged her husband had been cruel for four years. She was allowed $400 a month alimony and custody of their son, William, 12 years old. Her attorney, Lloyd A. Faxon, said that Gibson also made a settlement of $50,000. The Gibsons were married on Oct. 14, 1914, and separated in December, 1928.

New Cabinet Man Jabs at Volstead Law.

BY JAY ALLEN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, March 18.—In the history of peoples, prohibition has been synonymous with decay, and wine drinking with prosperity and power, declared Gaston Gerard, new French high commissioner of tourism, at a lunch of the French wine growers today.

Although he did not mention the American dry law specifically, M. Gerard said that the defense of the interests of the French wine growers was one of the most important aspects of the new office, which Premier Andre Tardieu created as part of the cabinet.

Great Medicinal Qualities.

Prohibition, as practiced under the dictates of Islam and Buddhism, have gone hand and hand with degeneration in India and the Mohammedan world, M. Gerard insisted. But the ruddy glow that the wine imparts to those who partake freely is well conductive to rise in certain occidental nations, he added.

Further extolling the national beverage, M. Gerard, who is duty mayor of Dijon, capital of Burgundy, said that the medicinal qualities of the wines should not be overlooked.

"Typhoid bacillus are killed in 20 minutes with white wine and in two hours with red wine," he said. "The surest way to avoid gastric disturbances after eating shell fish is a wash down of good Chablis or Vouvray. French medical authorities have discovered that out of every 100 cases of appendicitis 75 are water drinkers."

France Fifth Wine Exporter.

Representatives of the wine growers said that, in addition to the direct loss that followed enforcement of the Volstead law, American prohibition was a serious menace to French prosperity because the "noble experiment" is finding so many emulators in Europe.

A spread of "the prohibition mentality is what we have to fight now," said a champagne nabob, pointing out that where 40,000,000 bottles of the sparkling beverage were exported before the war, now only 26,000,000 are exported, and as a wine exporting country Franch ranks after Greece, Portugal, Italy, and Czecho-Slovakia.

HIS FICTIONAL HERO IN A FICTIONAL JAIL; BOY LANDS IN REAL ONE

After reading the first few chapters of a serial detective story, John Janutowski, 17 years old, a former Tilden High school student, obtained a revolver and started out to imitate the fiction bandit.

Yesterday Janutowski faced Judge Allegretti in the boys' court on seven charges of robbery and was held to the grand jury in bonds of $70,000. After the court hearing, where several of his women victims threatened him, Janutowski said he wished he had read the entire detective story before he started out to rob, for in the last chapter he found that his hero was caught and sent to prison.

John was arrested a week ago.

REPORT STIMSON AND MACDONALD HAVE A QUARREL

LONDON, March 19.—(AP)—(Wednesday)—The Daily Express displayed on its front page this morning a story to the effect that the harmony of the five power naval conference had been suddenly disturbed by a difference of opinion between Prime Minister MacDonald and Secretary of State Stimson over the handling of the American-Japanese negotiations recently.

The Express says Mr. MacDonald had complained to Mr. Stimson that a misleading impression had been spread that Japan was ready to accept American proposals on the controversial question of Japan's demand for a 70 per cent ratio in cruisers and auxiliaries.

State Street Birthdays

In 1927 the store of C. D. Peacock was ninety years old. In 1929 Carson Pirie Scott & Company celebrated their Seventy-fifth Birthday. In 1927 the business of Marshall Field & Company had been in existence three-fourths of a century. The Boston Store is fifty-seven years old; The Fair, fifty-five years; The Hub, forty-three years; Chas. A. Stevens & Bros., forty years; The Davis Company Store, thirty-five years; and Maurice L. Rothschild, twenty-four years.

Each of these great merchandising concerns has a record of steady, solid progress. Surely it is significant that these stores should live so long and continue to grow and prosper. What better evidence that they have served the public well!

On the occasion of the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of Mandel Brothers we are pleased to express the high esteem in which we have always held that institution. We are glad today to join with their many friends and fellow merchants in hearty congratulations and sincere good wishes.

This pioneer Chicago firm has a long and honorable business record. It enjoys a wide reputation as one of the foremost mercantile houses of the country. It has contributed importantly to the prestige of State Street as Chicago's great retail shopping center.

LEGGE SAYS U. S. DIP INTO WHEAT PIT AIDS FARMS

Grain Price Stabilized by Buying, He Asserts.

BY PAUL POTTER.

Farmers are the chief beneficiaries of the recent wheat buying activities of the federal farm board agency, the Grain Stabilization corporation, Chairman Alexander Legge declared in a Washington interview yesterday.

His statement was in reply to THE TRIBUNE'S inquiry as to who had benefited through the corporation's expenditure of several millions of dollars in recent months in the government's effort to stabilize grain prices.

Explains Farm Benefits.

By helping to maintain the price of wheat, according to Mr. Legge, the board not only is providing a more favorable market for the wheat growers, but it also is benefiting farmers generally by sustaining the prices of other agricultural commodities. This in turn, he believes, fits into President Hoover's program of restoring confidence in business and industry.

In addition to farmers, Mr. Legge said, millers have incidentally been helped by being assured of more steady prices during an emergency, but he does not believe the board's wheat buying has helped the speculators in the grain trade at all.

Just how much wheat has been bought thus far with farm board funds, or how much of the taxpayers' money has been spent or pledged could not be learned from the board nor by any of its subsidiary officials in Chicago. Neither would local officials indicate from whom they had bought grain, or the prices at which their purchases had been made.

Wheat Purchases Estimated.

Estimates gotten in a survey of recent trading in Chicago, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Omaha, Duluth and other markets indicate that the stabilization corporation has purchased or contracted for about 30,000,000 bushels of wheat thus far. Trade figures show that about one-third of this has been cash wheat, at an approximate outlay of $11,000,000.

Assuming for lack of official statements by corporation officials that future trading has been done on a 10 cent margin basis for May delivery, a Chicago statistician yesterday placed the cost of the additional 20,000,000 bushels at $2,000,000. By checking market averages for the days when this future wheat was said to be purchased for the stabilization corporation, he placed the average cost for the entire purchase at $1.07.

Thus the corporation on this estimate would have $13,000,000 of federal funds invested in wheat, with no loss on the future contracts at current price levels. Cash wheat, however, was said to have been purchased while prices ranged between a dollar and $1.18 in Chicago, or $1.25 per bushel in Minneapolis. The carrying charges on stored wheat average 1½ cents per month, so that the statistician estimated the farm board to be paying about $150,000 per month to hold its present delivered grain.

A consignment of 500,000 bushels of wheat sent to the gulf for export and sale through a London commission firm for the stabilization corporation had not left port yesterday, it was stated here. Other seaboard holdings of wheat bought for the corporation were likewise unsalable at present low world prices yesterday.

It was pointed out that No. 2 hard winter wheat on board ship at the gulf or Baltimore was priced at 1 cent under May quotations here yesterday, while the freight rate between Chicago and Baltimore is 12.6 cents a bushel. With this differential of 13.6 cents between the two markets, there is no buying evident, traders declare.

Wheat from Argentina was being sold, delivered in Liverpool elevators, at about 1 cent more than May wheat was priced here yesterday. Unloading charges in British ports, including customs, inspections, and handling costs, total about 6 cents a bushel, with the ship rates an additional 6 to 7 cents a bushel from Baltimore to those ports.

Legge Answers Critics.

Chairman Legge declared yesterday that the farm board was not fighting the law of supply and demand, as many critics have charged.

"If you can find the workings of the law of supply and demand in a situation where the world had 500,000,000 fewer bushels of wheat in 1929 than in 1928, yet the price was 15 cents a bushel less, you are beyond me," he said. "The law of supply and demand was not working when the farm board stepped in. Although we have been criticized in industrial sections as attempting to protect producers against the interests of the consumer, we are simply stabilizing prices.

"We are attempting to do for agriculture what bankers and industrialists did for industry after the stock market collapses. Bankers and others subscribed to a fund approximately as large as the farm board's entire revolving fund, I understand."

CHICAGO DISTRICT'S INCOME TAX PAYMENTS RISE TO $49,465,408

Income tax collections for the Chicago district had reached $49,465,408 when attachés of the internal revenue office stopped work last night. The amount collected at this time a year ago was $57,596,726.02.

The number of returns for the two years has been about even, and last night they stood at 216,300 for this year and 216,800 for 1929. Only 2,000 pieces of mail remained to be tabulated.

Total collections for the first quarter, Jan. 1 to March 15, are not expected to be greatly in excess of $50,000,000. A total of $59,563,115 was collected for the first period last year. The decline is attributed in part to stock losses in the slump and also the decrease in the tax rates, except for which the collections this year, it is believed, would have established a new record.

CONTINUE INQUIRY IN NORTH SIDE MYSTERY KILLING

An inquest into the death of Peter Bica, 120 West Oak street, who was shot and killed on Monday by three men who pitched his body from an automobile in front of 2221 Lister avenue, was continued yesterday until March 29. Bica, a graduate of the University of Rome college and formerly attached to the courts of New York as an interpreter, was not found to have had any connection with an alcohol ring, as the police at first believed. According to his son Thomas, a medical student, Bica led a quiet life. The son could not account for the slaying. He said his father was not wealthy and could not have been the victim of extortionists. The police have become convinced that politics was not the cause of the killing. The only clew to the slayers was the make of their automobile, and the police are investigating this angle in an effort to learn the owner of the machine.

HUSTON'S BROKER IS DRAGGED INTO LOBBY INQUIRY

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Records of an account maintained by Claudius H. Huston, chairman of the Republican national committee, with his personal broker in New York were subpoenaed today by the senate lobby committee after a controversy lasting nearly an hour.

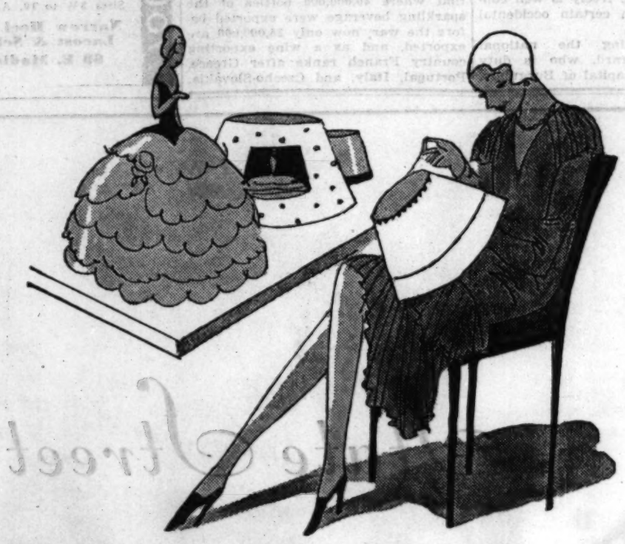

The committee first proposed to subpoena all the records of Huston's dealings with the brokerage firm of Blythe & Bonner. Then it was decided to obtain only the records of $36,100 contributed by the Union Carbide company for the Tennessee River Improvement association. Huston, a former president of this association, has testified that he deposited the money with the brokers and that it all was turned over to the organization, which has been active in advocating the proposal of the American Cyanamid company to lease Muscle Shoals.

ARMY OFFICER HELD IN WIFE'S MYSTERY DEATH

Charged with Poisoning Mate Last June.

Denver, Colo., March 18.— (AP) — Stripped of his army uniform, Maj. Charles A. Shepard, 59, of Fitzsimons general hospital, Denver, was held incommunicado to day in the county jail while government authorities continued their widespread investigation to link him with the alleged murder last June of his 37 year old wife at Fort Riley, Kas.

Maj. Shepard, former head of a California sanitarium and a world war veteran who served in France, is accused of killing his wife by administering poison. Miss Grace Brandon, stenographer at Brooks field, San Antonio, Tex., was said by local authorities to have divulged that Maj. Shepard proposed marriage to her prior to the death of his wife.

Woman Is Cleared.

United States Marshal Callen said Miss Brandon would not be arrested as authorities were satisfied she had nothing to do with the death of Mrs. Shepard. She was described as the unwilling recipient of the medical officer's attentions. She is said to have told authorities Maj. Shepard attempted to get a promise from her that she would marry him if he secured a divorce.

Miss Brandon met Maj. Shepard when he went to Brooks field in 1928 to take a course in aviation surgery. He stayed there four months and during that time Mrs. Shepard remained at Fort Riley, where her husband was assigned.

In May, 1929, following his return from San Antonio, Maj. Shepard's wife became ill. Her husband is said to have given her medical treatment. When death occurred in June, an autopsy was performed and the vital organs sent to the army medical laboratory in Washington, D. C.

Results "Suspicious."

Results of the examination, reports shows, were "suspicious," but not conclusive. The department of justice then took up the investigation and after nine months gathered evidence on which the murder charge was filed.

Maj. Shepard emphatically denied poisoning his wife. He was held in jail after he failed to raise $25,000 bond set at the request of United States District Attorney R. R. Brewster of Topeka, Kas.

Fellow officers at Fitzsimons general hospital, where Maj. Shepard was transferred following his wife's death, expressed surprise at his arrest and several of them said they would aid him in his attempt to make bond.

GARNER SEEKS INVESTIGATION OF TAX REFUNDING

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Investigation of the internal revenue bureau and its handling of income and corporation tax refunds was demanded in a resolution introduced today by Representative Garner [Dem., Tex.], the Democratic leader.

The recent refund of 33 million dollars to the United States Steel corporation alternately was defended and assailed on the floor of the house.

CHILD DROWNS IN POND.

Windsor, Ill., March 18.—(AP)—While playing about the yard of a neighbor, Charles, 2 years old, son of A. R. Schumaker of this village, fell into a pond and was drowned. The body of the child was found in water but two feet deep.

Girgenti is the capital of the province in Sicily which bears its name. It is on the southwestern shore of the island, about 58 miles south of Palermo, and has a population of upwards of 25,000. The town is built on the western summit of the ridge which formed a portion of the ancient town of Agrigentum. Traces of the original architecture are preserved. The chief industry of the district is the mining of sulphur, which is shipped through the port of Girgenti, known as Porto Empedocle, about 5 miles southwest of the main town.

HUCKINS OFFERS NO TESTIMONY; TRIAL NEARS END

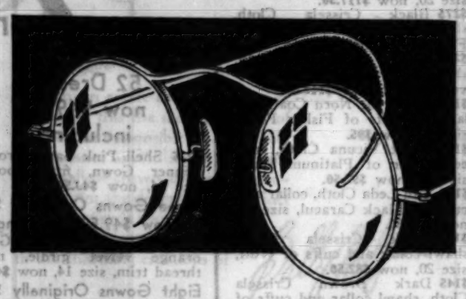

Cedar Rapids, Ia., March 18.—[Special.]—The case of George Huckins may go to the jury tomorrow. When court adjourned at 5 p. m. today, Walter Barngrover, attorney for Huckins, had not concluded his argument, the last before the case is given to the jury.

The defense rested its case suddenly, after the state had examined one witness and closed. Defense counsel refused to put a single witness on the stand after Judge Ellison had denied a motion for a directed verdict.

The fact that there was no defense testimony caused surprise, and S. J. Milner, first counsel for the defense to argue, threw no light on the matter.

STOP BAD BREATH

Thousands of people afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after 20 years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound; you will know them by their olive color. Take nightly for a week and note the effects. 15c, 30c, 60c.

HOOVER WANTS CLEANUP OF JOB SELLING IN DIXIE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—President Hoover today announced his purpose of completing the housecleaning which he commenced a year ago in the southern patronage situation. Commenting on the recent report of a senatorial committee, Mr. Hoover pointed out that the incidents dealt with were not recent and that all federal officials known to have engaged in improper practices had either resigned or been removed. The President said that he had asked the department of justice to consider the senate committee's report.

"Under instructions to the various departments of the government," said Mr. Hoover, "a system has been established by which these reprehensible practices have been absolutely stopped and the system of purchase and sale of appointments, so far as it existed, has been ended."

Worst in Three States.

The President said that the department of justice already had under investigation charges made by the senatorial committee involving two present federal officials in southern states.

In reviewing progress in placing methods of dealing with patronage in the south on a higher plane President Hoover indicated that the bad spots had been in South Carolina, Georgia, and Mississippi, where Republican national committeemen have been ignored by the administration and new organizations set up to make patronage recommendations.

"Unjust to the South."

"Such conditions are intolerable to public service, are repugnant to the ideals and purposes of the Republican party, are unjust to the people of the south, and must be ended," said the President."

"If these three states are unable to initiate such organization through the leadership of men who will command confidence and protect the public service, the different federal departments will be compelled to adopt other methods to secure advice as to the selection of federal employés."

STEAL LIGHTNING ROD.

Marion, Ind., March 18.—[Special.]—Some time Monday thieves climbed to the farm roof of H. O. Burgener, near Mier, and stole 150 feet of lightning rods and wiring.

WASHINGTON NOTES

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Asserting the requirement that at least 30 per cent of naval air pilots should be enlisted men was too large, Acting Secretary Jahncke of the navy today asked congress to pass legislation to do away with the provision.

Confirmation of Judge Thomas Day Thacher of New York as solicitor general was blocked today in the senate by Senator Overman [Dem., N. C.].

Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican floor leader, was ordered by Dr. George W. Calver, the house physician, to his quarters at a hotel because of an attack of grippe.

CAPONE DODGES CHICAGO POLICE; CALLS ESCORT

Gang Henchmen Plan Grand Entry Today.

for the first time may be called an ex-convict.

The turkey and spaghetti grew cold as the folks inside waited for Alphonse. Detective Chief Stege said he had reports of big parties being arranged last night for Capone at the Hotel Lexington, the Hotal Metropole, and the Cotton club in Cicero, which is supposed to be owned by Ralph Capone, brother of the notorious Alphonse. Capone at times has lived in regal style at both the Lexington and Metropole hotels, with an entire floor set aside for himself and his protectors, and again he favored the Hawthorne hotel in Cicero with his presence for more than a year.

Faces Arrest as Hoodlum.

Chief Stege said last night that Capone might not have been arrested if he had come into town quietly yesterday, but he probably will be now because, on consideration, it was decided he comes under the classification of hoodlum and all hoodlums are to be arrested on sight.

Stege, explaining his decision to arrest Capone, said his first intention was to warn him that no resumption of gang warfare will be tolerated—that any murders that bear the semblance of Capone's handiwork will make it "just too bad" for Capone. But he later decided the warning would be more effective if Capone hears it through the bars of a cell. Stege will arrest Capone and turn him over to State's Attorney Swanson for whatever prosecution Mr. Swanson cares to institute, he declared.

Tells Gang War Prospects.

Asked if he thought Capone's return, or supposed return, portended a renewal of local gang wars, Stege said there was such a possibility. He is not informed, he said, of how Capone's financial affairs have been managed during the ten months of the "big fellow's" incarceration.

The recent break-up of the north side gang in which Bugs Moran and Ted Newberry shared leadership might be further complicated by Capone's reestablishment in Chicago, he said, because Joe Aiello, Sicilian terror, is now affiliated with the north side gang and Aiello's relations with Capone have been friendly part of the time and hostile part of the time, according to "business" conditions.

"Under ordinary circumstances I don't think Capone will be slain," Stege said. "He usually keeps from ten to fifteen bodyguards constantly with him and it would be difficult to take him for a ride or to have him put on the spot. But some of his aids might betray him, perhaps because of the murders of John Scalisi, Albert Anselmi and Joseph Giunta in Indiana.

"Our main interest in Capone right now is to know where he is and what he is doing. We haven't any charge against him right now, and unless there would be a good reason for taking him into custody I don't think he will be molested if he goes directly to his mother's home on Prairie avenue."

BRITAIN'S NEW ENVOY IN U. S., TO HAVE RUM

New York, March 19 [Wednesday].—[Special.]—Held overnight aboard the Aquitania, which was delayed off Quarantine for 18 hours by fog today, Sir Ronald Lindsay, accompanied by Lady Elizabeth Lindsay, will land at 8:10 o'clock this morning and proceed to Washington to take over the British ambassadorial duties recently laid aisal by Sir Esme Howard.

Sir Ronald first faced a barrage of questions as to his attitude on prohibition, which has been a topic of considerable speculation in view of his predecessor's decision last summer that he would refuse to sign further requests for liquor shipments to the British embassy.

Asked if he would follow the policy laid down by Sir Esme, he said that he had bought the former ambassador's private stock, which, he understood, included a considerable quantity of mixed liquors and wines.

In the slow speech into which he falls when amused, Sir Ronald said:

"I think that's a rather severe question to ask me upon my arrival. I would like to look around a bit before I decide on this liquor question for the embassy. I have not made up my mind on the subject, and, if I might say so, I think it's a bit personal.

"Nearly all the members of my family are teetotalers, but I decidedly am not."

SENATORIAL RACE STEAMS TOWARD CHICAGO STRETCH

W. R. James Takes Charge of McCormick G. H. Q.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

The Republican senatorship battle began to centralize on Cook county yesterday for the final three weeks of the campaign. W. R. James, president of the west park board, returned from his fishing trip with Gov. L. L. Emmerson in Florida and took charge as Cook county manager for Ruth Hanna McCormick.

Deneen headquarters announced that Senator Charles S. Deneen will open his Chicago campaign on Monday night with a meeting at the Aragon ballroom, 1100 Lawrence avenue. By the end of the week, his managers declare, the senator will have covered all the 101 downstate counties at the rate of seven a day.

James Is "Greatly Pleased."

Mr. James, after being installed at McCormick headquarters, 14 East Monroe street, held a series of informal conferences. "Affairs seem to be in great shape from all reports I get," he said, "and I am greatly pleased with the situation in Cook county.

"I wish to explain why I am so staunchly behind Mrs. McCormick. I know she carries on the political traditions of her father, Mark Hanna. In 1896 Mark Hanna carried the country for McKinley, and his campaign slogan, 'The full dinner pail,' represented his beliefs and foretold his accomplishments. With McKinley came a wave of prosperity. And knowing Mrs. McCormick is an exponent of those policies which promise the greatest measure of prosperity, I believe she should be sent to the senate."

Mrs. McCormick in East St. Louis.

Mrs. McCormick, after speaking twice last night, left for East St. Louis for a day's campaigning in St. Clair county.

Senator Deneen spoke in Springfield last night and is scheduled for Bloomington tonight. Headquarters managers yesterday were busy arranging his Chicago meetings which start next week.

One of the new campaign booklets distributed yesterday dealt with "Senator Deneen and his efforts to help the colored people to higher and better things." It was prepared by a citizens' committee of the colored race. It begins with the days when Mr. Deneen was state's attorney and "appointed the first Negro as assistant state's attorney in the person of Ferdinand L. Barnett."

N. L. Piotrowski, former city attorney and president of the Great Lakes Insurance company, came out for Mrs. McCormick on the world court issue. He was decorated by the republic of Poland for services in raising war time relief funds.

PAIR FLEE UNDER FIRE; FEAR GIRL MET FOUL PLAY

Blood spots and a girl's hat found by Niles police late yesterday in an automobile abandoned after the police had fired on them started an investigation on the theory that a girl had met with foul play.

The suburban police pursued the car, which bore a Wisconsin license, believed to have been stolen, when they saw it speeding south on the Waukegan road. Shots were fired first at the machine and later at the two men occupants, who left the car in a ditch between Oakton and Howard streets and fled along the Des Plaines river.

The blood found in the car will be analyzed by the Chicago detective bureau. The spots were not sufficiently fresh to have been the result of wounds of one of the men, assuming that one of them was struck by a bullet.

Father Who Killed Boy and Shot Himself Dies

Thomas Cawley, 39 years old, 2729 East 93d street, who choked his 3½ year old son to death and then shot himself, died yesterday in the South Chicago hospital. Before his death Cawley blamed his act on his inability to find work and trouble with his wife. An inquest will be held today.

STEAL TAXI; BOB DRIVER.

Harrisburg, Ill., March 18.—(Special.)—Two men who engaged Walter Duncan's taxi forced him to drive into the country Monday night and left him, taking $41 and his sedan.

GERALDINE LANE WINS DECREE ON TIPSY CHARGE

Mrs. Geraldine Faxon Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dean Faxon, 902 North Sheridan road, Highland Park, was yesterday granted a divorce from Joseph Lane by Judge Edward D. Shurtleff at Waukegan on a charge of drunkenness. Mrs. Lane, who resides at 705 St. John's street, Highland Park, was also granted custody of their two children, Joseph Jr., 4 years old, and Harry, 3 years old.

The Lanes were married on Dec. 27, 1923, and separated on Aug. 3, 1929. No mention of alimony was made in the court proceedings. Lane is an interior decorator.

Chicago Man Wins Public Utility Oratorical Meet

Springfield, Ill., March 18.—(AP)—Winners of a state-wide public utility speaking contest were decided here tonight. Tyler G. Price, Commonwealth Edison company, Chicago, took first place. Hjalmer Oyen, Rockford Electric Co., Rockford, was second, and Carroll E. Bichhorn, Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois, finished third. Four hundred electric utility employés entered the contest and the ten preliminary winners contested here tonight. The subject of the contest was "electric utilities' contribution to my community, state and nation."

Makes Friends with Savages Escapes Death

And has still better luck when he gets home

JOHN J. WHITEHEAD, explorer and lecturer, has just returned from eight months in the jungles of South America, where he was searching for traces of the lost Colonel Fawcett and his son.

Dangerous as he found the jungle, he encountered a worse danger at home. But let him tell it.

"One of the great problems of a trip of this kind is keeping in healthy condition. When we started, some of the members of the party had laxatives with them, but made wise by experience I carried Nujol. All too quickly my stock ran out. Soon I was in bad shape—what with a diet of rice and beans, lacking vitamins and green vegetables.

"When we finally got back to civilization, entertained first in Brazil and later in the United States, I became positively ill. Severe stomach pains and poor elimination made me realize that Nujol would again prove the reliable, trusty keeper of health. Sure enough, with the first bottle the trouble disappeared—and you can be sure that no matter what important equipment I have to discard, my next adventure will see me taking plenty of Nujol along."

Don't think Nujol is a medicine. It is as tasteless and colorless as clear water. It brings you, however, what your body needs like any other machine—lubrication. Just as a good bath washes our bodies clean, Nujol sweeps away, easily and normally, those internal bodily poisons (we all have them) that make us feel dull and headachy and sick. Nujol cannot hurt even a little baby; it forms no habit; it contains not one single drug. Doctors and nurses use it themselves and tell you to use it, if you want to be well.

Take Nujol every night for two weeks and prove to yourself how happy and bright and full of pep you can be, if your body is internally clean. Get a bottle today at any drug store. It costs but a few cents and it makes you feel like a million dollars. Start traveling the health-road to success and happiness—this very day!

LISTENERS LOSE AS JUROR QUITS; HALTS SEX TRIAL

But Mae West's Blonde Hair Gives 'Em a Treat.

BY TOM PETTEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 18.—Just as everybody settled down in their chairs today in Judge Amedeo A. Bertini's courtroom and got ready for a sociological lecture on the facts of life as observed by a stage door cop, a juror had to walk out on the show.

He was one of the original quartet chosen yesterday and from the beginning had appeared dissatisfied with his vocation. Late this afternoon after the jury box had been filled he suddenly remembered something—probably that he had left the radio on at home—and after a brief conference with the court was dismissed. He just wasn't the Broadway type.

Mae West, the author-actress and her co-defendants from the cast of "The Pleasure Man," who are on trial charged with giving an obscene show, appeared as relieved as did the departing juror. Miss West, with just the proper amount of hauteur, leveled an eighteen degrees below zero glance at him from under mascaraed lashes, but it bounced easily off the juror's neck about four inches above the collar line. There was a slight stir among the fifteen other defendants present [there are fifty-seven all told, but a lot of them have joined the navy or have gone on the road], but nobody flung a powder puff.

Wheels of Justice Grind On.

James G. Wallace, assistant district attorney, ordered up another talesmen and the wheels of justice creaked a couple of times and resumed grinding.

Today just was not the time to take the lid off the garbage pail. That twelfth juror was as hard to get as the first million dollars. Nathan Burkan, Miss West's attorney, was uncertain, coy and hard to please and Mr. Wallace, who has a good bass voice, kept booming something or other about inconsequential, irrelevant and highly incompetent. Finally Judge Bertini told the eleven jurors not to read the newspapers and sent everybody home until tomorrow.

The high spot in today's proceedings was at about 1:50 p. m. Miss West made her daily pilgrimage down Centre street for the photographers. A hundred or more hangers on attached themselves to Miss West as a sort of tail to a comet, and for a time the parade almost blocked traffic.

Dazzles the Jurors.

The woman who knows more about sex than the president of an anti-vice society gave the courtroom a lesson in style as well as deportment today. Miss West wore what competent observers described as a "formal tea gown of black chiffon with long points which dipped to her Spanish heels." Her blonde hair almost dazzled the jurors as it peeped through a brimless hat of transparent lacy straw.

A wave of interest swept over the row of pale-faced female impersonators when two jurors wearing spats were accepted and when two other talesmen confessed to having seen Miss West's previous drama, "Diamond Lil" and having liked it.

The jury, when completed tomorrow, will learn more about the show rôles from a bevy of blushing police drama critics.

WAUKEGAN SEEKS TO END EXPERIMENT OF RULE BY COMMISSION

A petition bearing 2,700 signatures demanding that an election be held in Waukegan on the question of abandoning the commission form of government and reverting to the aldermanic form was presented to the city council of Waukegan yesterday. The council voted to accept the petition and referred it to Corporation Counsel Arthur Bulkley for investigation as to its legality. Waukegan changed from the aldermanic to the commission form of government in 1912.

HOOVER ASKED TO O. K. DEEPER ST. LAWRENCE

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.] — President Hoover was asked today to support a proposal calling for the deepening of the St. Lawrence river to 27 feet between Lake Ontario, New York, and Ogdensburg.

In advancing the project Chairman Bertrand H. Snell [Rep., N. Y.] advised the President that deepening the channel to 27 feet would provide the same depth as will be afforded by the Welland canal. The omnibus rivers and harbors bill, to be reported to the house shortly, carries a provision for deepening the St. Lawrence channel to 22 feet. Ogdensburg is across the river from Prescott, Canada, where several Canadian grain elevators have been erected. The proposed improvement would cost slightly above $1,000,000. President Hoover is awaiting a report on the Snell project from the army engineers who now are engaged in making a survey.

ALDERMEN MEET TODAY TO PARLEY ON CAR POLICIES

A special meeting of the council local transportation committee is to be held this morning to express its views on questions of policy in the proposed franchise to a consolidated company operating both surface and elevated lines.

The bankers' committee submitted certain suggestion on March 6. The franchise subcommittee, headed by Ald. James B. Bowler, has considered them and decided upon its views, which are to be definitely expressed in a letter to the bankers. This will be submitted to the committee this morning. The points at issue are the rate of return to the company, the depreciation fund, compensation to the city, building of subways, and the cost of street paving and cleaning between the surface tracks.

What Price Ownership of America's Finest Motor Car?

THE question is not one of dollars and cents—but rather of the priceless satisfaction that is so unfailingly a part of Pierce-Arrow ownership.

Pierce-Arrows are made so fine that they are comparatively few. Yet the world recognizes these cars as the proudest product of America's great automobile industry. And why?

The answer, if you are interested, is present in any car of the three new groups which constitute Pierce-Arrow's newest creations.

A first glance reveals long, low-swung, slender elegance, distinguished by colorings characteristically Pierce-Arrow. Inside, prevails a quality of beauty and luxury never before approached in a motor car interior. And the performance:

To the established excellencies of Pierce-Arrow engineering has been recently added a new transmission—affording gears which shift silently at any speed—and an intermediate, free from the usual hum or vibration, capable of 60 miles an hour. (Imagine this in traffic!)

HOOVER ACCEPTS AN INVITATION TO VISIT MEXICO CITY

Will Repay Rubio's Call of Last Year.

BY JOHN CORNYN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, March 18.—President Ortiz Rubio, in the course of an informal interview with the press, today announced that President Hoover had accepted his personal invitation to visit Mexico City during his presidency. President Rubio did not reveal the date of the proposed visit. He is anxious for the American President to return his visit to the United States last year.

The Mexican chief also announced that the government had invited a committee of international bankers, the chief holders of Mexico's foreign debt, to meet with representatives of the Mexican government in Mexico or New York to attempt to reach a more definite understanding on the debt question, with a view to making a settlement which the Mexican government could and would live up to. An agreement, he said, would encourage the owners of factories and business to extend their activities, giving work to thousands of unemployed.

The government, President Rubio said, is determined to abolish gambling places of unsavory reputation and the resorts of lawless characters. He declared the government is doing all possible in the war on vice, but the gamblers and keepers of vice resorts are taking to cover, and Mexico is up against the same problem that confronts the great cities of the world in hunting out criminals and proving cases against them.

The president also revealed today that the government is about to call a convention of miners, representing the mining interests of Mexico, with a view to finding a means of improving the mining situation and counteracting the heavy drop in the price of silver. At this convention, the miners will be encouraged to present the real difficulties of the mining business and to propose ways and means of improving the situation.

The president declared that he had no intention of listening to trouble makers, who have attempted to put stumbling blocks in the way of government officials who have had backbone enough to fight off grafters, who have been the curse of all Mexican administrations. He said that he stood stoutly behind Dr. Puig y Cassaurane, the business head of the federal district, in his fight against the reintroduction of politics into the district administration.

For some time, it has been charged, powerful political machines have been attempting to force Señor Cassaurane to play the old game of political graft, which has cost the district fully half of its income and has left the national capital and suburban towns in a deplorable condition.

No British Officer Shot for Cowardice, Commons Told

OFFICERS PLAN PERSONNEL FOR CITY AIR RACES

Plans for setting up a working personnel for the Chicago air races to be held next August were discussed yesterday at a meeting of the officers of the Chicago Air Race corporation held at the Hotel Sherman. Formal appointment of directors to head the various branches of the work of planning and promoting the races is expected to be made at a meeting of the board of directors which will be held soon.

The officers proposed the appointment of the various operators and airplane manufacturers to honorary offices on the board of directors and plan to amend the bylaws of the corporation so that leaders in the aviation industry may be included in the organization.

At the suggestion of Col. Robert R. McCormick, chairman of the board of the race corporation, the officers will endeavor to interest foreign nations in sending aircraft to Chicago for participation in the air carnival.

Other officers of the race committee present at yesterday's informal conference were Earle Reynolds, president, and Capt. M. M. Corpening, secretary.

Egyptologist Finds Tomb of High Priest of Cheops

CAIRO, Egypt, March 18.—(AP)—The tomb of Akht Heteb, high priest of Cheops, who built the great pyramid, and of the priest's private doctor, is reported to have been discovered near the Cairo pyramids by Selim Hassan, Egyptologist. Hassan recently disclosed the tomb of Ra Wer, who was the son of Heteb's doctor. The newly found tomb, which measures thirty by thirty-six feet, is said to have been found intact and to contain several mummies in addition to a fine statue of Akht Heteb. The tomb also contains many inscriptions in perfect condition.

HINDENBURG ASKS INDUSTRY TO AID GERMAN FARMER

Demands Agriculture Get Use of Reserve Funds.

BERLIN, March 18.—(AP)—President von Hindenburg again departed from his traditional reserve in political matters by signing the hotly contested German-Polish liquidation agreement to advance a proposal for farm relief today.

Realizing that Germany's eastern provinces are fighting for their very lives and that they stand or fall by agricultural relief, he proposed in a message to Chancellor Mueller, accompanying his signature, that industry should turn over part of its reserve for farm relief, thereby establishing a certain equilibrium between industry and agriculture.

Says Trade Pacts Hurt Farms.

After emphasizing that the primary purpose of the Polish liquidation agreement is to safeguard the Germans across the eastern border [who are now Polish subjects], he said that it was equally essential that their suffering compatriots in eastern Germany likewise be guaranteed their existence.

"Commercial treaties concluded in the last few years and the new German-Polish commercial agreement," he said, "have, in order to provide German industry with new possibilities in trade, imposed great sacrifices upon agriculture by admission of imported farm products and have caused in many sections, especially in the east, the interpretation that intentional neglect of vital agricultural interests was involved.

Says Industry Favors Plan.

"It seems to me just and proper and calculated to remove this misapprehension if, in these years of stress, agriculture be granted by industry certain compensations in this way—that every year, perhaps for the next five, certain amounts from industrial taxation shall be allocated to industrial purposes.

"From discussions recently with leaders of German industry I gained the impression that this idea of connection and compensation finds ready understanding also in industrial circles despite their own troubles and despite their own complaints of the heavy burdens imposed upon production."

Adopt New Defense Law.

The reichstag today adopted the new law for the protection of the republic by a vote of 265 to 150. The law supersedes the old defense law, which went out of operation on July 22, 1929.

Under the old law the former kaiser was specifically forbidden to reenter Germany. The new law does not contain this provision, and while under it the former kaiser theoretically would be free to return, nobody, not even the monarchists, considers even the possibility of his return.

JONES 5 AND 10 LAW HAS NEARLY DOUBLED DRY JAIL SENTENCES

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—An increase in the length of jail sentences handed out to violators of the prohibition law since the passage of the Jones five year maximum penalty act is shown by statistics published today by the department of justice. The attorney general's figures reveal jail sentences aggregating 8,920 years were meted out to 15,377 offenders during the eight month period ended Oct. 1, 1929, compared with 4,911 years for 12,857 defendants sentenced during the March to October period in 1928.

An increase in the number of places padlocked under injunction proceedings also was noted. According to the department's statistics the number of permanent padlock injunctions imposed during eight months in 1928 was 3,236, while 4,762 were imposed in the March to October period in 1929.

Former Representative William S. Bennet of Chicago, general counsel and vice president of the Edward Hines lumber organization, was announced today as one of the star witnesses for the drys when they resume their testimony tomorrow.

HITS LANDLADY; 10 DAYS IN JAIL.

James Novak, 50 years old, was yesterday sentenced to the Bridewell for ten days by Judge Joseph McCarthy on the testimony of his landlady, Mrs. Emma Smith, 220 South Peoria street, that he had struck her.

CITY'S REJECTION OF DUMP OPTION PILES UP COSTS

New Refuse Disposal Deal Before Council Today.

The high cost of city refuse disposal again will be a topic of discussion in the city council today when the aldermen are asked to approve a contract for dumping at 19th and Lincoln streets. The project calls for a price 186 per cent greater than the offer rejected by the city one year ago.

The proposed contract is with the W. J. Newman company, which has leased the quarry hole of the Chicago Union Lime works. It calls for the payment by the city of 43 cents for each cubic yard of refuse dumped there during this year. Last year the city could have bought the site for $650,000, whilh represented a price of 15 cents per cubic yard for the 4,500,000 cubic yard capacity of the hole. The cost of hauling the refuse from the wards to the dumping site, also included in the contract, is 30 cents a cubic yard.

City Fails to Exercise Option.

The failure of the city to exercise its option on the quarry property led Ald. Charles S. Eaton [5th] and Arthur F. Albert [43d] to demand in July, 1929, that the council call in the state's attorney to make an investigation. Corporation Counsel Ettelson was called before the finance committee and after some argument and the reading of a 23 page statement the matter was dismissed.

The aldermen based their demand for an investigation on the handling of the condemnation suit which was brought by the city to obtain the quarry hole. The suit ended early last year and the court entered an order under which the city was to pay $650,000 for the property.

Three months time was given by the court for the purchase. The time lapsed without the city's making payment. During the finance committee investigation, Ettelson said he had not formally notified the aldermen of the option by letter but that he had discussed it informally with a number of aldermen in his office.

High Cost of Passing Up Option.

As a result of the failure to obtain the quarry hole the city began hauling refuse to McCook at a total cost of $1.13 a cubic yard due to the distance. The contract with Newman will reduce the total cost, including haulage expense, to approximately 73 cents a yard which is still 28 cents a yard higher than the total cost [45 cents] would have been had the city exercised its option on the quarry hole.

The city now has started a new condemnation suit to obtain the dumping grounds. An agreement is reported to have been made by the attorneys for the Union Lime works that the price now paid by the city to dump there will not be used as evidence in the suit. Several aldermen said the fact that the proposed contract price is higher than the cost would have been if the option had been exercised will be a factor in making the condemnation judgment higher than the last one.

YRIGOYEN PARTY GETS WALLOP IN ARGENTINE VOTE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUENOS AIRES, March 18.—The disaster which has overtaken the Yrigoyenist Radical party during the recent election in the city of Buenos Aires for national deputies is without parallel in Argentine political history.

Although the scrutiny of the ballot boxes is not yet complete, an overwhelming victory for the Independent Socialists is already assured as well as a strong probability that the Socialist party—from which the former seceded in 1925—will oust the Radicals from second place and thus obtain four minority seats.

The present count shows the Independent Socialists with 82,259 votes, the old Socialists with 68,234 votes, and Radicals with 66,493 votes. The result is generally interpreted as the federal capital's vote of censure of the government's conduct on national affairs. However, the Yrigoyenists are carrying most of the provinces, from which, despite the defeat in Buenos Aires, his party will probably return to the chamber stronger than ever.

Turning the light of Truth on false and misleading statements in recent cigarette advertising

WHAT ANOTHER MANUFACTURER of cigarettes chooses to say about his product is not our affair. Even when he sees fit to misrepresent his product and leave false impressions concerning it, that still is his business—not ours.

But—when, in his advertising, he goes beyond his own product and makes false statements or leaves misleading impressions about other cigarettes—then it is time that the truth be told.

"The extra secret heating process removes from (————) harmful irritants, corrosive acrids, which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way, and which cause throat irritation and coughing."

"No matter how much or how little you pay for cigarettes you have a choice of only two general classes, and not more than two. In one class you have the billions of cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way and in the other class you have (————), the toasted cigarette, a product of modern science, a cigarette from which harmful irritants have been removed by that extra secret process described by the phrase 'It's Toasted'."

WHEN THESE STATEMENTS were first made, we assumed that they were a casual phase of that manufacturer's advertising and did not represent a deliberate and calculated policy. After making a few such statements, he abandoned this particular form of advertising. However, other statements used in his advertising came to the attention of the Federal Trade Commission on a question of their truthfulness.

As a result of the action of the Federal Trade Commission he was ordered to stop his admitted practice of using in his advertising false testimonials of non-smokers to the effect that they kept slender by smoking his brand of cigarettes, and was further ordered to stop using other fake testimonials and the specious argument that all can keep slender by smoking that brand of cigarettes. He then began to use again the form of statement quoted above or variations of it.

IF ANY MANUFACTURER chooses to say that the tobaccos he uses contain "harmful irritants, corrosive acrids, that are injurious to the throat," and then to claim that these things are removed by the heat-treating process, that is his own affair. But when he tries to create the impression that it is general practice to use in cigarettes such rank tobaccos as he describes, we object to the attempted reflection on the industry.

We have never used in our blend those rank tobaccos which can be properly described as containing "harmful irritants, corrosive acrids," nor do we believe that they are used by some of the other manufacturers.

If that manufacturer wishes to advertise heat treatment, calling it toasting or what-not, that is his right. But when, in so doing, he tries to create the impression that he is the only maker of cigarettes who treats tobaccos with heat, the truth again needs to be told.

The publication of a fake testimonial is no greater perversion of the truth than to imply that the heat treatment of tobaccos is an exclusive process with any single manufacturer.

THE FACT is that the use of heat treatment in the manufacture of tobacco is about the most commonplace and universally practiced method in the industry. It has long been standard practice.

We use heat treatment in its most modern and scientific application, both in the preparation and in the manufacture of those mild, fragrant, ripe tobaccos that carry their natural goodness into CAMELS.

The first CAMEL Cigarette we ever made was manufactured under the heat-treating process. Every one of the billions of CAMELS produced since has been manufactured under heat treatment. We rely upon heat to the limits of its possibilities to make our good tobaccos better. It cannot make inferior tobaccos good.

WHETHER OR NOT a manufacturer, to have something to talk to the public about, attaches a contrivance to his heat-treating machines to catch, condense and bottle the vapors that come from them can have no more effect toward improving the tobacco than your catching and bottling the vapors that come from your teapot would have toward improving the tea in the pot.

Our own brand, CAMEL, continues to grow, but we are, nevertheless, unwilling to let these far-reaching false statements or impressions regarding the cigarette industry go uncorrected.

A GIFT TO THE TELEPHONE COMPANY.

Representatives of the city and the telephone company have negotiated a new franchise to replace the contract which expired a year ago. Under the former contract the company obligated itself to pay whatever costs arose in connection with moving the telephone lines to permit the construction of a subway. This clause is omitted from the agreement now awaiting the approval of the council.

In our judgment, the clause should be renewed. It must be assumed that when the company agreed to pay for the removal of its lines it received something in return elsewhere in the contract. Likewise, when the company laid down its cables in streets likely to carry the subway, it must have done so with a view to their removal; and whether the company did so or not it should have set up a reserve for the removal of these lines.

What the cost of moving the telephone lines may prove to be we do not know, but whatever it may be, the representatives of the city have no warrant for making the company a present of that amount. That, in effect, is what the pending ordinance proposes.

PROBLEMS OF CENSORSHIP.

That customs officials should have authority to exclude from the United States any publication which seems to them of immoral character deserves the serious consideration the senate is giving it. There is a subterranean foreign publication of clearly pornographic matter which probably would better be excluded at the customs barrier than left for local suppression. But it is the principal weakness of censorship that its limits are very difficult if not impossible to define so as to prevent abuse of power. Senator Black very truly said there is a "twilight zone" in which opinion sharply differs as to what is censorable and what not.

Virtually every rumpus over censorship occurs in this zone, although the serious evil which censorship is erected to protect society and the individual from does not lie in this zone at all. Pornographic writings surreptitiously written, printed, and distributed are the vicious stream which should be and can be prevented from reaching the immature, if we exert sufficient vigilance. Even a customs official might be trusted, with some instruction, to deal with such matters. But censorship is not content with concentrating upon this duty. The debate in the senate and every other discussion of censorship reveals why. To the champion of sweeping censorship there is no twilight zone. What he approves is for him the unquestionable norm which he proposes to establish in law and impose by the force of government upon every one else. One of the most familiar sayings attributed to Lincoln was that no man is good enough to be another man's master. That one man should dictate what another man shall read is to make the latter largely a slave to the former. But the censorship zealot has no misgivings on that score. He has no hesitation in imposing upon others, if he can, his own intellectual and moral judgments, theories, standards, or prejudices. Yet in a nation whose fundamental law guarantees freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom of conscience, no individual or group of individuals, nor no government agency should dictate to the adult what he shall read any more than what he shall think.

Censorship is forever delivering decrees which time makes ridiculous or proves erroneous and obstructive to human progress. It has always been the servant of some sort of tryanny which a new generation or a subsequent age escapes or overthrows. The confident moral judgments of Senator Smoot are dissented from by many even of his contemporaries who under the American system are or ought to be as free to make their own judgments as he. He or they may be right or both may be wrong. The point we would have those who demand censorship in America consider more respectfully than they do is the right of the individual to his own intellectual and moral freedom.

CHARMED SPRING.

If spring comes can winter be far behind? Not in the infinite varieties of these parts, where a glorious uncertainty promises everything and does it all. The grackles which were so many squeaking hinges Sunday, swinging back the doors for the flight of full migration, were hunting their grub in the snow Tuesday and the song sparrows and meadowlarks, the blue birds, cardinals and chickadees had to work icicles off their bills before they could again release the song of their greeting to the lilac buds.

Life hereabouts is full of this inadvertent charm, this swift change of moods. It is esthetically stimulating. Other regions offer poor substitutes for it. California, when its dead march of even and uneventful days becomes intolerable even to a Californian, shakes itself up violently with tremors and storms. That is intemperate. One should not become impatient to the extent of an earthquake. Nor can Florida's resort to gales be regarded as an intelligent diversion. It is better to be content, as people are here, to shake up the calendar and bring June and January in together.

PENNSYLVANIA'S FAREWELL TO ARMS.

Pennsylvania received Mr. Capone as a bum and released him as a dignitary. The gentleman seems to have gained importance and to have become a personage by passing the larger part of a year in prison for carrying a pistol in Philadelphia. It has been reported that his various benefactions while he was under lock and key amounted roughly to $150,000, probably a wishful exaggeration. Anyway, he grew in moral grace as he served his term. If he had any complaint to make of the abruptness with which Pennsylvania justice hopped upon him when he was, as he thought, only an inoffensive traveler killing time between trains, and made him do time for killing only that, his sense of injury undoubtedly yielded to considerate treatment.

Pennsylvania justice kept him for his full stretch. His charities ingratiated him, and even so impersonal a thing as justice would like to keep such a man as long as possible, but would be willing on taking leave of him to pay him respect. For reasons difficult to find in the life of a philanthropic man there were rumors that his enemies waited without the dungeon to machine gun him and that therefore the state must protect him by unusual procedure. This would have been very strange. Were not Mr. Capone and his bodyguard the only two persons who ever had carried any sort of deadly weapon in Pennsylvania? That was the impression gained at the time, but possibly Pennsylvania takes cognizance only of persons of well known benevolence and incarcerates only charitable hoods and gorillas.

Mr. Capone, it is true, was not escorted to Chicago by the Philadelphia Fencibles, the governor did not make a farewell address, and a salute of guns was not fired, but otherwise little was left undone to indicate the pleasure of the state in having him in residence so long a time. It was a pleasure which Illinois would have been willing to make permanent.

IN THIS CORNER, AGAIN, MR. DEMPSEY.

Primo Carnera has now run his string of knockouts up to ten. Mr. Chuck Wiggins of Indianapolis having been set up in the St. Louis alley for this purpose. Mr. Malloy, the promoter, estimated the take at $60,000, which is getting on toward pugilistic respectability. It is, however, requiring a great slaughter of ancients and unknowns and may be injuriously affecting the reputation of American man power abroad. Why pay debts to such a soft creditor? Presently he will have no navy and then consider what one invader has been able to do with extra large boxing gloves, paving his path with the prostrate bodies of Americans.

This big boy should be regarded as ripe soon for larger financial undertakings. When he is ripe he may be found to be good indeed, but the process of cultivating him is taking too much American reputation as fertilizer. It must be about time to put a nationally minded referee and a fighter in the ring with him and ascertain whether he is good enough to meet real competition. If he can lick both of them he is, and a deficiency in American pugilism and a decline in American refereeing must be conceded, painful as it will be.

Mr. Dempsey, who remains the favorite Neanderthaler even in retirement, may try another fight. It may be unreasonable for him to permit the idea to attract him, but they nearly always do. Mr. Dempsey's legs probably are far from what they used to be, tiring more easily. His timing couldn't be as accurate. Advancing years advance rapidly in the ring, but it is natural for a person to think he's as good as he used to be when he isn't doing the things he used to do. One way to preserve the old ability is never to have had any. Then advancing years find nothing to take away.

If Mr. Dempsey persuades himself that there is still another fight in the age ridden old hulk Carnera would seem to be the ideal for the match. When Dempsey was younger he liked to work on them when they were big. He took them on as acreage and laid them out as subdivisions. He might make a very pretty development of the big boy to top off both their careers and restore his country's prestige.

Editorial of the Day

A GENUINE HELP TO MICHIGAN.

[Grand Rapids (Mich.) Press.]

The senate by reversing its mistaken action on the sugar tariff and, breaking all party or factional lines, placing the duty at a point high enough so that beet sugar farming and beet sugar manufacture can live in the United States, affects an important part of Michigan agriculture and industry in a vital way.

Michigan has not needed to be told that the beet tariff is not protective, because that fact has been all too apparent in our closed sugar factories and in the number of unemployed, particularly in the central and thumb districts, whose livelihood depends wholly upon this type of work.

For the government—voting not only ample but monopolistic tariffs for so many industries already fat and waxing fatter—to abandon the beet sugar business after deliberately encouraging investment in this young industry for thirty years of federal fostering was a peculiar kind of folly.

After a third of a century it was proposed to abandon this protection to the industry and to the sugar consumer. No attention was paid the obvious fact that the sugar tariff was not an excessive but a less-than-protective tariff under which the industry could not operate. No consideration was given the curious and well demonstrated fact that support of this home competition actually curbed price boosting instead of encouraging exorbitant prices. No thought apparently was devoted to the fact that the "big interests" affected by the tariff were not, in this case, the struggling industry defended by the customs duties, but the great refiners and importers in New York with their Cuban connections.

Fortunately the senate has come to its senses. No farm demand had a better right to be heard than this. No infant industry was in more genuine need of support.

THE SLIGHT THAT FAILED.

A girl met an old flame and decided to high hat him.

"Sorry," she murmured, when the hostess introduced him to her, "I didn't get your name."

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may. W. M.

IT'S THE DOLDRUMS RIGHT NOW—with the senate reading books that the customs officers say are too wicked for the rest of us to get hold of. And the naval parley bobbing its head above water now and then and gasping for air. And Mr. Capone disappointing large crowds by remaining securely hidden. That is, he was securely hidden yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, but that has nothing to do with Mr. Capone's whereabouts this morning. (See front page.)

Anyhow, the naval parley had better do whatever it's going to do pretty quick. After the baseball season opens we'll forget there ever was a naval parley. We Americans are like that; we'll stick to a show as long as it's snappy and full of action, and then we get up and grab our hats and walk out.

And, speaking of one thing and another, while we hate to think of the senators reading those wicked books, perhaps it's all for the best. If they weren't doing that they'd probably be boosting the tariff. And probably the books are as bad as the customs officers think. It all depends. There are some people that think "How to Know the Wild Flowers" is dreadful, and that "Elsie Dinsmore in Camp" would drag us to the gutter. It's a queer world.

WINTER SUNSET.

The atmosphere was thick with furtive thinking
Articulate in gestures. Fingers strayed
Discreetly, intimate, were laid
On elbows, wrists, and necks,
Caressed,
Evasively, the pearls upon a woman's breast.

In the crescendo of persistent drinking,
Desire became a blur
Of velvet, silk, and fur.

Then sharply through the smoke of cigarettes,
The sullen passion of the setting sun
Absorbed her helpless body.
One by one,
Her thigh, breast, shoulder, yielded to the light . . .
And it was night.

POLLY CHASE BOYDEN.

LET US LOOK at this thing in the light of cold, hard logic. The police are uttering loud lamentations because Criminal Court Judge Schwaba ruled they had no right to search gangsters without a search warrant. It seems logical. If you want to get married you get a marriage license; if you want to hunt you get a hunter's license; and if you want to peddle things you get a peddler's license. Naturally, if the police want to search a gangster they should get a search license.

THE POLICE SHOULD REMEMBER the dear old motto we used to write in our copy books back in school days, "True Politeness Always Pays." They say a gangster won't wait for them to go over to a court and get a search license. Tut, tut, police! Try politeness. When you see a gangster with a gat bulging ominously in his pocket step up to him and say gently, "I'm very sorry, sir, but you wait here until I run around and get a search warrant to frisk you and take that cannon offen yuh. Now, don't go way, sir, just wait right here." Then the gangster will reply: "Very well, my good man, I shall wait patiently on this spot until you come back with the search warrant and the wagon and a pair of handcuffs. But as the night is chilly and I have a date to rob a delicatessen, I pray you, you poor fish, to make it snappy." And then when the policeman returns, in two or three hours, with his search warrant, the hoodlum will be right there waiting for him. (Lykell, lykell, lykell.)

TELL PATRICIA TO TAKE A CHANGE OF VENUE TO JUDGE IMMENHAUSEN.

Mister O'Type: And sure and did ye see the picture in THE TRIB Tuesday of Officer Timothy Donovan handing Patricia Moran a ticket for not havin' a new number on her automobile on St. Patrick's day in the mornin'? And when I read that same sure I said and there is no justice in the world at all, at all, and I'm a waitin' for Patricia Moran to be taken by this Officer Timothy Donovan into the Municipal court of Justice Joseph McCarthy and being fined a hundred thousand dollars and having Bailiff Martin Casey tellin' her she must pay it before she leaves the court. Ach, worra, worra, and sorry I am that I ever left ould Ireland!

NANCY FROM KILDARE.

WAIT! Time out! Don't name the new planet Percival! We've changed our mind. We've got another suggestion. You see, that new star was discovered just about the time all the whoopee started over Al Capone getting out of jail. There you are; call it Alcapone. That sounds as classical as Neptune, O'Ryan, Jo Peter, or any of 'em. Gosh, what a wow of an idea! But wait; not yet; we'd better find out first if it's a shooting star.

LOVE.

Love is a hair shirt
Or a silken gown
Worn proudly—sadly—brazenly,
Through the leering town.

And who am I to bargain,
When what is done is done—
A runner spent with running,
A-running toward the sun.

JUDY SHEA.

LAGNIAPPE.

NOW IS THE TIME for every good man to come to the aid of the country and everybody should pick out some one thing to do to hasten the return of prosperity. Of course, we're all going to have a good 'ob in—let's see, how many days is it now? It was to be sixty (60) days from March 8; that's when it started. Today is March 19. Let's see—that makes it 49 days more. 49. (Can you stick it out for 49 more days, Al?) Well, anyway, that doesn't relieve us from doing our bit. We must do it, even though the thing we should do is disagreeable. All right; we'll buy an automobile. We hate the damthings; we've always hated 'em. But it's our duty and we will. But we meet with difficulty at the very start. We asked ten people what was the best kind of car and each one of the ten named a different brand, hooting loudly and coarsely at every other one timidly suggested by us. What to do, whatodo!

AH, LITTLE POLLYANNAS, let's have a bright and cheerful smile from one and all. Even though the blizzard is blizzarding all over the place and there's naught but snow and cold and slush and everybody is coughing and sneezing to beat the band, let us remember gayly that spring, old spring herself, comes hopping in day after tomorrow. And it's damn near time. H. H. L.

BED-WETTING.

THE way to stop bed-wetting is to want to stop—that is, want to do so hard enough. This is the opinion of Dr. R. C. Hamill. He expresses his opinion so convincingly that I know of no better way for an interested parent to spend twenty cents than for the July 27, 1929, issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. Let that interested parent not only read this article but wrestle with it, as the preacher advises the sinner to do with his problem.

Dr. Hamill reports on eighty cases seen in the Children's Memorial hospital of Chicago. In this institution children who bed-wet are referred to the department of nervous diseases for study of their behavior. Ten of the eighty cases were not treated for one reason or another. In five, no treatment was given because the parents were antagonistic; one mother would not bring her child back because the doctor gave him no medicine. Forty of the seventy children treated were cured, some in one day and one treatment, and many in a week or thereabouts. Eleven were improved, but were still under treatment when the report was made. Eight were improved, but were not cured, nor were they under treatment. Two were unimproved, two relapsed after having improved, seven were unimproved and had stopped treatment.

The treatment is wholly mental. The child is impressed with the fact that he bed-wets because he wants to—at least, he had rather wet the bed than to get up in the dark or in the cold or something else. He is told that he can stop when he wants to. The parents come in for their share of the treatment, and theirs is the larger share. The real problem is treating the parents of the bed-wetting child and making them like it, accept it, fall in with it, and do their part in carrying it out. As a rule the principal obstacle to a cure is the suggestions made to the child, and to young children parental suggestion is all powerful. They must stop putting evil thoughts into the minds of their children if they want to find dry sheets in the morning. Next Dr. Hamill whips the physicians. They, too, add to the difficulties of the problem with their operations on tonsils and circumcisions, their painting with nitrate of silver and dosing with atropin, their changing of habits of water drinking and eating. What they say to parents reaches the children directly or indirectly and supplies fine excuses for continuation of the habit.

Dr. Hamill abandons all of this. He puts the responsibility squarely up to the child and makes him carry it. He persuades the parent to hold the child squarely to that responsibility. And that is the sum total of the treatment.

SMOKING INNOCENT.

Mrs. B. writes:

1. Does excessive smoking cause the pupils to dilate?
2. Cause reddish streaks in the eyes?
3. I am a woman of 22 and am very nervous and have little pep. Does smoking cause all this?
4. What would cause the pulse to change from 55 to 90?

REPLY.

1. No.
2. No.
3. Probably not.
4. Excessive smoking may be the cause.

PUFFINESS ABOUT EYES.

Mrs. L. A. P. writes: What is the cause of puffiness around the eyes and swelling of the feet and ankles? Some say heart disease, others kidney disease, and still others constipation.

REPLY.

The two most important causes are Bright's disease and heart disease. There are other causes, but constipation is not one of them. This condition was once known as dropsy in an early stage.

The cause should be discovered and made the basis of treatment.

SUFFERS FROM HEARTBURN.

M. J. S. writes:

1. Is it usual for a person who has been operated on for gallstones to suffer from heartburn?
2. Is it harmful to use baking soda two or three times daily as a remedy?
3. Can heartburn be eliminated entirely?

REPLY.

1. Many do. The operation generally leaves some pathology behind.
2. I think so. It stimulates more heartburn.
3. In many cases it can be, but the job is not an easy one.

TURNIP GREENS.

E. C. writes: Is there any iron in turnip greens? How much?

REPLY.

Yes, about three thousandth per cent. Kellogg says turnip greens is richer in iron than any other greens. It is also rich in chlorophyll, which contains no iron, but which acts in the same way iron does.

ALIEN OWNS PROPERTY.

Joliet, Ill., March 16.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—1. A noncitizen purchased property five years ago by taking over a first mortgage and paying balance on contract. The latter will be paid up in two years. Is there a law that it passes to the state after six years, unless owner is citizen?

2. If present owner has just taken out first papers to become citizen is that sufficient to qualify for title if such a law exists?

3. If not, can property be sold to any one under the present circumstances by the noncitizen to a citizen, provided it is done before the end of the sixth year? J. T. K.

WORDING OF POLICY CONTROLS.

Chicago, March 16.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—My 18 year old brother took out a twenty year endowment policy making me the beneficiary. When my brother dropped it I took it over. Now I am told that I can get nothing out of it if he died, that the money would go to his mother or be divided between all the brothers and sisters. M. J.

Your rights depend on the wording of the policy. We suggest that you write to the office of the company.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

MARCH 19, 1865.

CHICAGO.—The storm in the east has cut off telegraphic and railroad communication with points east of Buffalo, and only a few news dispatches coming in a roundabout way were received. The storm, from what we learn, must have been one of the most severe ever experienced in this country and as widespread as severe.

CHICAGO.—Brig. Gen. Eugene A. Carr of Illinois, one of the most gallant officers in the service, has been promoted to the rank of brevet major general. This is a substantial recognition of merit we are glad to record. Gen. Carr is a brother of Col. Clark A. Carr of Galesburg.

ST. LOUIS.—A guerrilla named M. D. Erwin was hanged at Macon City yesterday.

WASHINGTON.—Information from the Army of the Potomac shows that our troops are in the best possible condition and ready to move at any time occasion may require. Rumors continue that the rebels contemplate the evacuation of Petersburg.

MEMPHIS.—From a reliable source it is learned that twelve days ago Mobile had 20,000 troops garrisoning it. Gen. Forrest's rebel forces are moving up towards Tupelo and Guntown, anticipating a move by Thomas' cavalry from Eastport, Miss.

QUINCY, Ill.—Jackson Grimshaw of this city has been appointed collector of internal revenue for the Fourth district of Illinois.

ST. LOUIS.—Ex-Gov. William F. N. Arny of New Mexico reached this city from Santa Fé on March 15. He left Santa Fé on Feb. 13 and has been on the way since. The stage was obliged to lay over some time at military posts to await escorts. The Indians all along the route were more or less hostile.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

MARCH 19, 1900.

LONDON.—The Morning Post expert thinks that Mafeking has been relieved by Col. Plumer by this time as the Post has a cable from Maj. Baillie, its correspondent, saying: "Wire instructions." The message is from Lobatsi, March 13. Baillie has been within the Mafeking defenses for several months.

LONDON.—Reports from the Free State all indicate that the burghers of that republic are surrendering in large numbers and are bringing in arms of all sorts. Lord Roberts makes them take an oath to refrain from further fighting, then sends them back to their farms.

BERLIN.—Representatives of 125 German cities protested against the exclusion of American meat from Germany. Their resolutions declare that such prohibition will weaken Germany's economic power and jeopardize her relations with all her neighbors, as well as America.

CHICAGO.—Capt. Addison King, 70 years old, 1135 Wrightwood avenue, who sailed the oceans and then the lakes for years, died yesterday. His wife, Mrs. Annie King, one year older, died the day before. They came to Chicago in 1850.

CHICAGO.—According to a map prepared under the direction of the Rev. J. C. Armstrong of the City Missionary society there are 746 saloons in the First ward, represented by Ald. Coughlin and Ald. Kenna.

PHILADELPHIA.—B. C. Cheney, husband of Julia Arthur, the actress, announced her retirement from the stage for the season and perhaps permanently.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

MARCH 19, 1920.

BERLIN.—The Ebert government is again in control in Berlin. Vice Chancellor Schiffer, in whose hands the sudden retirement of Dr. Wolfgang Kapp temporarily placed the administrative power, and Gustave Noske, minister of defense, are engaged in bringing about order in the city and restoring activities to a normal basis.

CHICAGO. — Prohibition's sweet singer, Fred W. Klenzle, and his artistic accompanist [on the revolver], Walter H. Meebe, are asleep in the Sheffield avenue police station. Mr. Klenzle, according to papers found in his pockets, is one of Maj. A. V. Dalrymple's agents. He and Meebe were seized in the Nichols saloon, Sheffield and Wrightwood avenues, where they created a disturbance by Klenzle's singing and Meebe's shooting.

WASHINGTON. — Grand Duchess Olga, sister of the late Czar Nicholas of Russia, has been found by American Red Cross workers, living in a box car near Novorossisk, south Russia. She was clad in rags and grateful for any food and clothing she could find.

WASHINGTON.—Having adopted a fifteenth reservation committing the United States to sympathy for the cause of Irish independence, the senate cleared the decks for a final vote on the German peace treaty with its league of nations covenant tomorrow. The Irish reservation was adopted by a vote of 45 to 38.

WASHINGTON AND THE CHICAGO PORTAGE.

Hollywood, Cal., March 13.—I noted with interest the plans of the forest preserve commission and others to restore and preserve the portage between the St. Lawrence and Mississippi valleys, southwest of Chicago.

The ordinance of 1787, under which Illinois was governed and then became a state, provided "the navigable waters leading into the Mississippi and St. Lawrence, and the carrying places between the same, shall be common highways, and forever free, as well to the inhabitants of said territory as to the citizens of the United States, and those of any other states that may be admitted into the confederacy, without any tax, impost or duty therefor."

When Gen. Washington was waiting for the final treaty of peace in 1783 he made a trip to the battlefield of Saratoga and the Mohawk valley with Gen. George Clinton. They were called the Big Georges of the revolution. Washington pointed out to Clinton the inevitable route of a canal up the valley from the Hudson to the shores of Lake Erie. Thirty years later it was built. Just after he returned from that trip he wrote to Lafayette, under date of Oct. 12, 1783:

"I have it in contemplation to make a tour through all the eastern states, thence into Canada, thence up to the St. Lawrence and through the capes to Detroit, thence to Lake Michigan by land or water, and thence through the western country by the River Illinois to the River Mississippi and down the same to New Orleans, thence to Georgia by way of Pensacola, and thence through the two Carolinas home. A grand tour this, you will say. Probably it may take place nowhere but in imagination, though it is my wish to begin it the latter end of April of next year."

He would have made that portage at what is now Chicago to reach the Illinois river. He went as far as Pittsburgh in 1784, but never made the far northern or western tours except in imagination when he became so busy creating the government of the United States. EUGENE E. PRUSSING.

THE UNIVERSALITY OF SQUICKETS

Chicago, March 17.—The article by R. S. Kelly in your issue of the 14th inst., as regards the cultural importance of squicket stones, prompts me to write of an experience of mine some thirty years ago while in Alaska. Near the mouth of the Yukon river, where it empties into the Bering sea, I came upon a crumbling pile of masonry set on a high bluff, overlooking a broad sweep of water at a bend of the stream.

The crown piece of this old monument was a rough hewn shamrock shaped stone of green gneissic composition which had fallen from place and was half buried in the earth.

Fifteen years later, on the top of a mountain near Guadalajara, Mexico, I found a similar cairn. Here the squicket stone was broken into several pieces, but the design could be easily traced.

It is possible that these were both the original squickets, set up by the great Irish navigator, Hegon O'Regon, twenty centuries ago. If so, the world should know more of O'Regon. This subject is one that is worthy of a volume by an author of Mr. Kelly's ability and wide research experience.

Every true lover of the ancient Irish culture who lives in the Chicago district should join Mr. Kelly's squicket club. P. O'NEEL.

ON THE TRAIL.

Chicago, March 17.—In order to relieve the nervous tension in the mind of a confirmed logomaniac, pray tell us what or who is a "squicket." All of several different up to date dictionaries, as well as the Encyclopedia Britannica, are silent on this exciting subject.

GEORGE B. LAKE, M. D.

AN INVITATION TO CHICAGO.

Hammond, Ind., March 10.—I am inclosing a page from a letter received from a sister in Kansas in reply to an invitation to spend the summer of '33 with us: "We're already talking of '33 and hope to do our bit to make the World's Fair a success, but do please get rid of those gangsters before then. It makes my blood run cold to even think about it. All that lawlessness is well advertised in the papers and we may get cold feet in spite of our wish to see you." ROLLIN WEBB.

MEAT IN THE DIET.

Chicago, March 14.—THE TRIBUNE of March 12 carried in its Inquiring Reporter column the views of five persons concerning Henry Ford's ideas on diet. Since two of these views include disparaging statements concerning meat, we ask for the privilege of replying to them.

The view that fruit should be used for breakfast, proteins for luncheon, and starchy foods for dinner is not new. Many food faddists have made the same suggestion. A knowledge of human digestive processes gives absolutely no foundation for such advice. Our digestive apparatus is designed to handle fairly concentrated foods containing proteins, fats, starches, and other classes of nutrients. If this were not the case, what a blunder Mother Nature made when she produced milk containing protein, fat, and sugar in fairly equal proportions and when she made the cereals which contain protein, fat, and starch. In the cereals starch predominates, but protein may make up ten to twelve per cent of the cereal, and the fat content of the whole grain is not negligible.

In the column referred to it is stated by one person that most people eat too much meat. Another says that elderly persons should eat no meat at all. Those statements are not based on fact. The average protein requirements are placed at between 60 and 120 grams daily. Meat supplies from one-third to one-sixth of these amounts. Surely this does not support the statement that most people eat too much meat. Meat is wholesome for elderly people just as it is for others. It was once the fashion to advise the elderly to cut down on meat or omit it. Since that time it has been shown that meat in the mixed diet has no connection with the degenerative diseases of elderly people. As a result the informed physician no longer denies meat to his elderly patient unless the restriction of all protein foods is clearly indicated or unless certain diseases make it necessary as a temporary expedient. C. ROBERT MOULTON,
Director, Department of Nutrition, American Institute of Meat Packers.

PAYMENT TO VETERANS.

Chicago, March 17.—A gentleman signing himself "Unemployed Veteran" requests that the government pay the ex-service men their adjusted compensation immediately to obviate the present distress and, incidentally, place more money into circulation. I cannot, however, see the logic of such an argument. If the service men are in need of the money now their want will be greater yet in many cases fifteen years from now, and it is unreasonable to assume that the government will devise further methods of payment to them at a later date. Furthermore, he seems oblivious to the fact that the amount listed on the policy is the principal, plus interest for twenty years; if therefore a payment plan should be put into force he would not be entitled to $1,500, but merely $750, the principal. Mr. Coolidge, in truth, stated that the country owed the boys nothing, as it was their patriotic duty to serve, though he overlooked the fact that provision was made for too many men to hide behind a woman's skirts, hire a farm, or work for a steel mill or shipyard, and Uncle's charity has already been strained.

What is needed is a liberalization of civil service laws, giving ex-service men a better break and eliminating the postmaster's hands in the appointments in that branch, and a federal employment bureau to take care of indigent vets.
"ONE OF THE 17."

THE TIME TO BUY.

Chicago, March 17.—All commodities now are remarkably cheap.

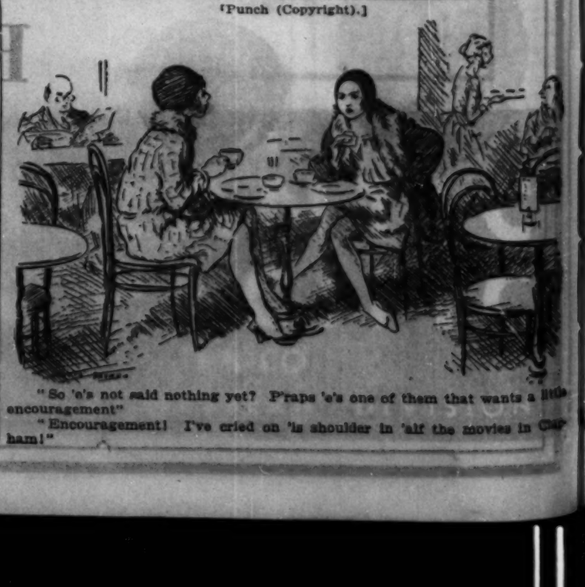

If, therefore, any one who can spare a little money buys now something that will be needed in the near future, it will have more effect in bringing back prosperity than all the legislation and newspaper talk that can be trotted out.

There was never such an opportunity to obtain bargains in clothing, shoes, furniture, radios, canned goods and other items too numerous to mention.

It is futile to try to say how many people such buying will benefit if we start this campaign now. Each one's money is small, but millions buying will mean hundreds of millions of dollars going into circulaton, so that the pessimism that prevails today will turn to optimism quickly. O'CHALLAHAN.

U. S. TO SEARCH 21 OCEAN LINERS FOR NARCOTICS

Believe Smugglers Send Out False Tips.

New York, March 18.—[Special.]—The steamship France of the French line was subjected to an all day search by United States agents today for $4,000,000 worth of smuggled narcotics supposed to be aboard. It was the last of continuous searches conducted by the government of France, the police of Toulon, and Capt. Jean Barosse of the liner, and like the others was fruitless.

Out of all the searching by the French line and the customs bureau and the narcotic branch of the treasury department forces came to the conclusion that the drug ring deliberately furnished false information through the police of Paris to the French government in the hope that all undercover and other observers would concentrate their attention on the France in the Mediterranean while the big shipment was put on a vessel somewhere else in Europe.

Plan Thorough Search.

Therefore arrangements are being made for a search just as drastic and thorough as that made of the France to be instituted on every one of the twenty-one Atlantic liners expected here within the next week.

There also will be searches of trans-Atlantic liners arriving in Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, and the Canadians are to be asked to have an eye on ships touching at Halifax or going up the St. Lawrence.

In the meantime at the federal building, Sir Duncan Orr-Lewis of London was telling the grand jury about his experience in having a trunk containing $144,000 worth of narcotics slipped into his baggage on the White Star liner Majestic, which arrived here last Thursday. Sir Duncan's name has been kept out of reports of the investigation, so far because of his obvious innocence of any connection with the smuggling enterprise.

Drugs Seized at Pier.

But today, when he learned that the grand jury was hearing evidence about the actual ownership of the trunk which had been marked with his name, and also about one Charles Wimmer, who claimed it after it had been repudiated by Sir Duncan, he insisted on being a voluntary witness.

United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle said today that the shipment supposed to have been put on the France in Europe was undoubtedly involved in the operations of an organized band who are shipping dope from German factories to the United States, and used Sir Duncan Orr-Lewis' name as they did that of a passenger on the Ile de France in hiding two trunks full of narcotics from the ship two weeks ago. These drugs were seized on the pier.

EASIER DIVORCE LAW APPROVED IN CANADIAN HOUSE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

OTTAWA, Ont., March 18.—Protestant easier divorce advocates won a smashing victory over Roman Catholic anti-divorce advocates in the house of commons today. By a vote of 104 to 91, the house agreed to reinstate the Ontario divorce court bill over which the two elements had previously battled to a tie of 78 votes, and when the speaker cast a negative vote to defeat the measure.

The bill will take from parliament all of Ontario's divorce cases and places them before a specially constituted court at Toronto. Roman Catholic members, including a solid Roman Catholic Quebec membership, opposed it bitterly. This is the third house of commons division on divorce issues this session.

Even the MacKenzie King cabinet members split in the religious division, four ministers voting for and eight ministers against it. Without question the bill will now carry when it is presented for second reading. Its passage will remove an issue, upon which the senate and commons have been at loggerheads for two years, the senate divorce committee last session having threatened to stop the parliamentary divorce machinery if the separate Ontario divorce court were not set up.

Hundreds of Thousands Of Wise Americans Demand Kruschen Salts

Keeps you in good health all the time—skin clear and body free from fat.

Just think of it: these new, better and different salts were only introduced into America a few months ago—yet a host of intelligent Americans are healthier and happier because of their supreme products.

Kruschen Salts are the daily health dose of millions of people the world over—they are the largest selling medicinal salts in Great Britain.

One-half teaspoon of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning gently but surely stimulates the liver, bowels and kidneys to healthy elimination.

But the six vitalizing and rejuvenating salts in Kruschen do more than cause regular elimination—the man or woman who takes them regularly need have no fear of poisons polluting the system which is the cause of many annoying and depressing ills.

One bottle of Kruschen Salts (lasts 4 weeks) costs but 85c and one bottle will prove of vast benefit to people who have constipation, headaches, indigestion, nervousness, rheumatism, depression, colitis, and auto-intoxication.

Not only that, but one bottle will bring about body activity—increase in energy, vigor and ambition, sparkling eyes and freedom from pimples and blemishes—mil-lions know all this—you ought to know it.

LEWIS MOVES TO EXPEL REBEL MINE LEADERS

Calls Them on Carpet at Indianapolis Tuesday.

BY THOMAS WREN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Indianapolis, Ind., March 18.—[Special.]—John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, announced late today before the convention of coal miners that leaders of the recent rump meeting of miners at Springfield have been summoned to appear here Tuesday before the executive board of the union to show cause why they should not be expelled from the regular miners' union.

Adopt Revamped Constitution.

The letter calling the rebels before the executive board for trial was sent out by Thomas Kennedy, secretary-treasurer, following two actions of the convention. One was adoption of a resolution summoning the men, the other was adoption of an amendment to the union constitution providing for means to suspend or expel officers for violation of union laws.

Those named to appear are Alex Howat, president of the Kansas miners, and elected at Springfield to lead the rebel organization; John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor; Harry Fishwick and Walter Nesbit, president and secretary of the Illinois district; Carl Wright, Joseph Loda, Frank Doherty, J. M. Thurston, Fox Hughes, George P. Mercer, Joe Cassassa, Allan B. Haywood, F. W. Wesnchoff, Gus Fritz, O. E. Hartley, Brice Holland, George N. Stouffer, Frank Farrington, and Emil Uhholz.

Call for Salary Cuts.

The convention also unanimously disapproved resolutions demanding the resignation of John L. Lewis as international president. Five of the demands for the Lewis resignation were grouped for the vote was unanimous for the committee's report of nonconcurrence. Another resolution asking for the resignations of both Lewis and Fishwick was rejected unanimously. Other resolutions demanded that the international officers take material reductions in salaries "as did the rank and file in wages." These are expected to come up for consideration tomorrow.

Ignore Lewis Demand.

Springfield, Ill., March 18.—(AP)—Officers and members of the policy committee of the new miners' organization today continued laying plans for taking over control of all mine union activity, disregarding edicts of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, calling on leaders of the insurgent miners to appear before the international executive board. Lewis has demanded they show cause why they should not be expelled from the United Mine Workers of America.

"John L. Lewis cannot evict us," declared Alex Howat, president of the new organization. "We recognize him only as a member of the local union at Panama, Ill., and do not owe any obedience to his orders."

FIVE CO-EDS CAPTURE PROWLING MONKEY AT U. OF WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis., March 18.—(AP)—Presumably afraid of mice but fearless where monkeys are concerned, five University of Wisconsin co-eds today restored the campus to normalcy and freed it from visions of simians capering on the sward.

Sunday, a monkey fled the Zoölogy department. The girls, members of the Arden club, trapped him on the roof of South hall, but, using his tail, he swung to freedom.

Early this morning, a girl woke from her sleep at the Arden club to find a hairy face peering at her. She screamed. The five huntresses assembled, armed with golf clubs and canes. Surrounding the bed, they trapped the monkey.

Says He Spread $100,000 Bogus Travelers' Checks

Detroit, Mich., March 18.—(AP)—John B. Gest, awaiting trial here, has confessed that he and another man plastered the United States from coast to coast with $100,000 in counterfeit travelers' checks against the Mellon National bank of Pittsburgh, it was announced today by Ralph E. Baker, assistant prosecutor, who said that the other man is Joy Harper, now under arrest in Mexico City, and that a warrant will be asked here for Harper.

DR. HEKTOEN'S CONDITION SAID TO BE IMPROVED

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—The condition of Dr. Ludvig Hektoen, University of Chicago scientist and chairman of the medical division of the National Research council, was described as slightly improved today at Providence hospital, where he is seriously ill with parrot fever.

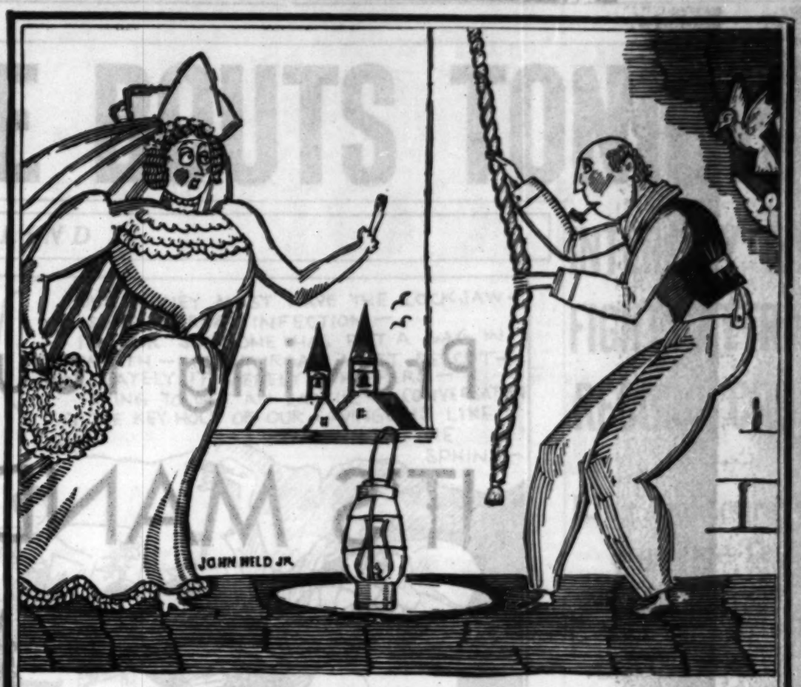

The physicians have been encouraged by the patient's favorable reaction to the serum treatment administered yesterday morning. The advanced age of Dr. Hektoen—he is 67—caused some uneasiness when it was first discovered that he had fallen a victim of psittacosis, but he has gained steadily since the serum was administered.

Another parrot fever case among the decimated staff of the hygienic laboratory of the United States public health service was announced today. B. M. Murphy, a colored laboratory helper, is the latest victim. Another man has become ill and may have psittacosis. Harry Morgal, foreman of the laborers at the laboratory, is also a victim of parrot fever.

Woman Seeks Governor's Post in South Dakota

Huron, S. D., March 18.—(AP)—Miss Gladys Pyle, secretary of state, announced today she is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of South Dakota at the May primaries. She is opposed by four men who are already in the race.

Miss Pyle, the first woman elected to the South Dakota legislature, is serving her second term as secretary of state.

"THOSE WEDDING BELLS SHALL NOT RING OUT!"

"And why not, my child?" demanded the sexton, quite baffled. "I have changed my mind," cried the fair damsel. "I could never live with a man with such a voice . . . He must change to OLD GOLD . . . the cigarette made from queen-leaf tobacco . . . They refresh the throat."

STEPS that led to the introduction of New ISO-VIS Motor Oil

A GROUP OF MEN were gathered in the research laboratory of Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Before them stood a motor. It had been driven 25,000 miles—the "turn-in" period of the average car. Bit by bit it was taken down. Micrometer measurements were made. In the 25,000 miles of driving it was found that wear on every moving part was far less than normally occurs.

They had witnessed one of the final steps in the perfecting of an oil that should add thousands of miles to the life of the average engine.

Literally hundreds of these tests were made before we announced New Iso-Vis Motor Oil. Scores of cars of various makes were used. Here are the results:

This last feature alone makes New Iso-Vis one of the most important advances yet made in motor oil. The body of New Iso-Vis does not change from the moment you put it in your car till you drain it off. You can get New Iso-Vis Motor Oil at all Standard Oil dealers and service stations. The better care you take of your car the more you will come to insist upon this new type of oil.

New Iso-Vis forms decidedly less carbon than most oils. This is not a mere claim—thorough tests prove it. New Iso-Vis saves time, trouble and money in carbon removal.

HIGH SPEED—all speeds—a steady grind over all sorts of roads in all kinds of weather. New Iso-Vis "stood the gaff"—came thru this gruelling road test with flying colors. The engine parts—by careful micrometer measurement—showed much less than usual wear. The test furnished conclusive proof that New Iso-Vis lubricates more efficiently and increases the life of the car.

New ISO-VIS 30¢ a quart

The New Polarine is also affected by our new refining process—giving it a degree of lubricating efficiency which we believe is exceeded only by the New Iso-Vis. The price is 25¢ a quart.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

IT'S MANDEL'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY!

Some people are behind the times at thirty. Other people are more modern than their grandchildren. That's why few realize that Mandel's is 75 years old... but we're going to have our anniversary! We're usually shockingly forgetful about our anniversaries and such, because we're too busy looking to the needs of young Chicagoans of all ages... but this one we've planned for 'way in advance. Because Mandel's is 75 years old is no reason for congratulating ourselves... we merely mention the fact. It's up to us to show what we've learned about serving you in 75 years.

So we've set aside 75 days... one for each year, like candles on a cake... to prove beyond question that we know the modern meaning of fashion, of value. We've gathered together exhibits... the hoop skirt femininity and hirsute masculinity of the 60's, the romance of the days of "A Bicycle Built for Two," exhibits of Chicago right up until to-morrow, things we'll wager you'll enjoy! And, what's equally interesting to you, we've seen to it that our fashions will be letter perfect every day, our prices on their very best behavior. It's going to be an important event for every Chicagoan!

We've made great plans for each one of these 75 days. Keen young men and women have gone to market, with the strictest of instructions... and they've brought back fashions and values that are a credit to their keenness. Each day, alert Chicagoans will take advantage of these events... because modern Chicagoans (always alert to fashion and to value) will recognize their importance, fashionably and financially.

It's an anniversary of a modern store... dedicated to young ideas... run by people who know their fashions, who have modern ideas about the length to which the diminutive dollar should go. Which is one of the reasons why young-minded Chicagoans (whether of 17 or 70) come to Mandel's... for Mandel's is...

- a store of youth
- a store of fashion
- a store of.....

22,000 TO SEE GOLDEN GLOVE BOUTS TONIGHT

CATHOLIC PREPS OPEN U. S. TITLE BATTLE TONIGHT

32 Teams from 23 States in Meet.

Previous Champions

1925—Spalding Institute, Peoria, Ill.
1926—St. Mel High school, Chicago.
1927—St. Xavier High school, Louisville, Ky.
1928—De La Salle, Joliet, Ill.
1929—De La Salle, Joliet, Ill.
1930—De La Salle, Chicago.

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Teams from 23 states began to roll into Chicago yesterday for the seventh annual national Catholic high school basketball championship conducted by Loyola university. The tournament will begin in the gym at Sheridan road, a block north of Devon, at 7 o'clock tonight and continue through until a champion is crowned Sunday night.

Seven of the eight quarter-final teams of last year, including all four semi-finalists, will be back this year striving for the George Cardinal Mundelein trophy, emblematic of the United States title, and a dozen other trophies. But they'll have the strongest kind of competition from 25 other quintets which have won their invitations by brilliant basketball and exceptional records.

Two Teams Withdraw.

Two changes in the entry list were announced yesterday by officials of the meet. Cheverus Classical high school of Portland, Me., wired that it would be unable to make the trip, as its schedule would not be completed until tonight, and its place was filled by St. Mary's high school of Ottumwa, Ia., runner-up in the state tournament.

The other change was the substitution of St. Rose of Lima, O., for Elder High of Cincinnati. Elder's withdrawal, it is reported, was due to opposition by the Ohio State High School Athletic association.

Three games in the first round will be played tonight and the first round will continue through tomorrow. Starting at 9 o'clock in the morning tomorrow a game will be played every hour, with only an hour's time out at noon and 6 o'clock, until 9 o'clock in the evening—a program of eleven games.

De La Salle Plays Tonight.

Tonight's games involve two former champions, the first being St. Xavier of Louisville, Ky., which plays St. Mary of Walsenburg, Colo., at 7 o'clock. An hour later the defending champions and champions of the Chicago league, De La Salle institute take the floor against St. John's academy of Rennsalaer, N. Y.

De La Salle is a strong threat to repeat for four of last year's regulars are back, including Roy Boland, and E. Krause, all-tournament selections.

St. Stanislaus of Bay St. Louis, Miss., runnerup last year and a favorite of the fans, again is entered but doesn't get into action until tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Loyola Academy, runnerup in the Chicago Catholic league, and Chicago's second representative in the tournament will see its first action at 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when they play another high scoring combination, Cathedral High school of Denver, Colo. With a record of twenty victories in 23 games, the Mountaineers have averaged only a little under 40 points a game. First round pairings:

TONIGHT.

8 p. m.—De La Salle of Chicago [defending champion] vs. St. John's academy, Rensselaer, N. Y.

Goodrich Scores Technical K. O. Over Joe Dundee

Atlanta, Ga., March 18.—(AP)—Ted Goodrich, young Atlanta welterweight, tonight scored a technical knockout over Joe Dundee of Baltimore, former world's welterweight champion, in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout. The former champion was out on his feet. The referee stopped the contest and awarded the verdict to Goodrich. Goodrich weighed 151; Dundee, 150½.

New York, March 18.—(AP)—To the accompaniment of a brilliant series of individual performances that created one new world's record, equaled another twice and set a new championship mark, the Illinois A. C. retained its team title in the national A. A. U. indoor championships at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Although Dr. Paul Martin, Swiss Olympic veteran, running for the New York Athletic club, beat out Ray Conger of the Illinois A. C. in the classic 1,000 yard event, the Chicago club finished four points ahead of its New York rival with 18 points to 14.

A mighty man from the far west, Herman Brix of the Los Angeles A. C., accounted for the one world record of the night when he made a thundering heave of 51 feet 2⅛ inches. The recognized indoor 16 pound shot put record was 50 feet 3 inches.

Lee Sentman, hurdling champion of the Big Ten, made a spectacular New York debut, equaling the world's accepted indoor figures of 8 6-10 seconds in dethroning Monty Wells of the Boston A. A. in the 70 yard high hurdle final after Wells had hit the same figures in a previous heat.

Martin's furious last lap and a half sprint to outfinish the gallant Conger accounted for a meet record in the 1,000 yard event, his 2:12 6-10 clipping a fifth of a second off the best time ever made in this indoor fixture.

In a great pole vaulting duel with Tommy Warne of Northwestern university, Fred Sturdy, former Yale ace now competing for the Los Angeles A. C., won the event after both had cleared 13 feet 9 inches, retaining his title. On a second attempt at the same height to break the tie Sturdy succeeded and Warne failed, placing second. Vern McDermott, University of Illinois, won third place on a vault-off after tying with Bill Cone of Yale at 13 feet. McDermott's final effort was 13 feet 2 inches.

Start Early, Then You'll See That Opening Fight

In justice to the fighters, to the other fans and yourself start early for the Golden Gloves inter-city fights at the Stadium tonight. The reason is essentially this—no indoor sporting event has drawn such a crowd as tonight's fights and it will take time to reach the Stadium, more time to park your car, perhaps a bit longer to get the long files of fans through the doors and seated.

For those who drive, the lesser used streets, probably won't have such a crush of traffic as Washington boulevard, Ashland avenue and Warren avenue. Your tickets are marked with the entrance—either Madison or Warren avenues—and it might save an extra block's walk in remembering this when you park your car.

If you drive here are some alternate streets, the main traveled one being named first.

From the northeast and southwest—Ogden avenue.

Even with those alternate routes traffic is likely to be heavy and driving difficult, so start early. And this also applies to those who come by street car (Madison street cars run past the Stadium door) or elevated (there is an elevated station on Madison street, two blocks from the Stadium). While the public transportation lines will run extra cars, as usual, the large crowd may make such transportation slower than usual.

If you drive your own car, don't try to get too close to the Stadium to park. There are public parking places on each end of the Stadium building and another across the street on Warren avenue, but they can't hold more than a tenth of the cars, so most motorists will be forced to park on the streets. And it's not unlikely cars will be lining the streets as far as four or five blocks from the Stadium.

NEW YORK TEAM SETS FAST PACE IN FINAL DRILLS

BY FRENCH LANE.

A brave, cocky band of New York boxers awaits the call to arms in the intercity battle at the Stadium tonight.

The New Yorkers' final drill in the Medinah Athletic club gym just as darkness was settling over Chicago last night offered the proof. New York's coaches put their chin masseurs through a strenuous drill which included everything but boxing.

When the coaches called a halt to the final rehearsal about 95 per cent of the New York boys were pleading for a few minutes' more work. The coaches actually had to push Capt. Jimmy Siciari, Max Glickman, the New York heavyweight, and Artie Rodenback, the Gotham light heavyweight, out of the gymnasium.

Can Pass Buck to Coaches.

Maybe these boys didn't fancy a shower bath. New Yorkers who are roustabouts on the piers, necktie salesmen in the Bronx, truck drivers along the old Bowery, or mechanics on Coogan's Bluff wouldn't naturally fancy a bath on such a March day in Chicago.

But anyway the coaches insisted on a shower, and if pier workers, cab and truck drivers, and necktie salesmen contract a severe cold, whooping cough, or the measles between now and the time they are to crawl through the ropes they can pass the buck to the coaches.

The fine spirit the New York boys displayed at the end of their last strenuous rehearsal was heartening to the other New Yorkers here in charge of them. Al Copland, who has been beating the bushes of metropolitan New York digging up the powerful maulers, was stalking the floor of the Medinah gym when the drill started. Under his arm he carried a copy of the book "Murder at Sea." The title was printed in large red letters. Maybe Al wanted his New York boys to read that title and get the murderous habit. But not all the boys on the New York team.

Thirty Boys in Action.

To the Chicagoans, including your correspondent, who draped themselves around the balcony railing in Medinah gym as the final New York workout

Because It's Sport

[Sports Editor, New York Daily News.]

In a country that is known the world over for its love of sport there are as a matter of fact only a very few real big events that may be called sport, and the Golden Gloves intercity match is one of them. Outside of a big football game, the open golf championship and the amateur, the Davis cup matches, the Kentucky Derby, the big boat races, and the meeting of the New York and Chicago Golden Gloves champions, the rest of our so-called sport is nothing but a series of pleasant and sometimes entertaining business conferences. Of course, it is the intercity series we are going to discuss now.

Ten thousand were turned away in New York last year. And a great many more will be disappointed here tonight. THE TRIBUNE will establish a new world's record for attendance at an indoor sporting event with 22,000 present in the Chicago Stadium and about 30,000 more staying at home because they couldn't get tickets. Now, over in White City Monday night, Jim Mullen showed Mickey Walker, middleweight champion of the world. The hall accommodated 4,000, but only 3,500 asked to be admitted. Of course, Walker was boxing a setup, but no matter, he is a world's champion professional fighter. He has had hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of publicity. And it didn't draw. And if he were to box Ace Hudkins, or any one, with the exception, possibly, of Dempsey, they wouldn't pack the crowd in the Stadium that will be there this evening.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE and The News are presenting what? A cab driver from New York against a cab driver from Chicago. A necktie salesman from New York against a coal miner from the middle west. A mechanic for an electrical company against a college boy. A truck driver from the streets of New York against a worker from the steel mills of Gary, Ind. O ho! You wish you were there. Your imagination is being fired. Boy, those New York truck drivers are tough, eh? Yes, but those mill workers from the Indiana rolling mills are hard men, too. Wow—when they meet!

The thing begins to catch you. This, in other words, is sport. These fellows who are fighting are working men who put in hard hours at their labors. Some of them work in offices. Others come from packing houses, from mills, from mines, from the docks. Look at Sylvan Taylor, husky colored boy, who works as a roustabout on the New York piers. Look at his opponent—Andy Smith, butcher boy. Work, work, work, eight or nine or ten hours a day. The one hauls and tugs at sides of beeves. The other wrestles cases and barrels. In their spare time and for recreation they box. They practice and they run on the road and they drill themselves. And tonight they will pit their skill and their ambition against one another for the love of their sport—and incidentally the prizes, the excitement of boxing before so many witnesses, and I presume, too, the honor of their communities.

And so the vast crowds that clamor to see this real sport must have confidence in the integrity of the business. Two of the greatest newspapers in the world are behind it—THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE and the New York News. To the best of our ability we guarantee the honesty of our boys. We trust one another, and we believe that the public trusts us. The News and THE TRIBUNE want only amateurs to box in these tourneys.

Thus before we left New York two of our men were dropped from the squad, one because we did not care to meet his demands and the other because we found that he had boxed for money upstate. Upon our arrival in Chicago we read that THE TRIBUNE had dropped a boxer for similar reasons. These were not substitutes either. They were stars. Both the News and THE TRIBUNE sacrificed a victory over one another for the sake of amateurism, and what it means to the sport loving public.

W-G-N WILL PUT GOLDEN GLOVES ON AT 8 P. M.

The unlucky fans who aren't even able to get one of the 1,200 general admission for the Golden Gloves bouts tonight, which will be placed on sale at the Stadium at 5 o'clock this afternoon, won't be denied all participation in the Chicago-New York fistic war. At least those who own a radio need not wait for tomorrow's paper to learn how each of the boys fought, and whether they won or lost.

W-G-N, THE TRIBUNE'S radio station, will broadcast every bout, starting at 8 o'clock and continuing until the final winner is announced.

CHICAGO BOYS LIMBER UP IN FINAL DRILLS

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

The Chicago Golden Gloves amateur boxing team which will meet New York tonight at Chicago Stadium in a series of sixteen fights is ready for the bell. The boys went through a light workout yesterday at the C. A. A., posed for pictures in their new uniforms, and then shadow boxed for three rounds.

The show will open at 8 o'clock. Sammy Levine, Chicago 112 pounder in the secondary division and Jimmy Hughes of New York will start the evening's bouts. Following this will come the opening battle in the first division when Chicago will send Johnny Emmerick of East St. Louis against Jimmy Siciari of New York. The latter was a member of the New York team last year, fought in the second division and defeated the Chicago entry in the first bout in Madison Square Garden.

Kaplan Meets Donohue.

From then on, two bouts in each class will be contested, with Sidney Kaplan of Chicago and Billy Donohue of New York, runners-up in the 118 pound class following. Indications are this will be one of the best fights on the card.

Johnny Mauro of New York and Paul Leberto of Chicago will be the contestants in the final of the 118 pound class. Leberto is a stiff right hand puncher who can stand up under punishment. Mauro can punch with either hand and this should be another battle.

Then will come the three rounder between Joe Roman of Chicago and Jimmy Turco of New York, second place winners in the 126 pound division. And following, Chicago will depend upon Benny Goldblatt to carry Twenty-two thousand men and women—more if they can pry themselves into the Chicago Stadium—will watch 32 young fellows box tonight. They box to settle the question: which city has the better amateur fighters—Chicago or New York?

Twenty-two thousand fans—more if they buy general admission tickets to be sold when the doors open at 5 p. m.—will comprise the greatest throng an indoor boxing arena ever housed.

Twenty-two thousand folk — undoubtedly more—will cheer as they never have cheered before as those 32 grinning, game hearted kids, flyweights, bantams, and heavyweights, four in each of the eight classes, trade point for point, blow for blow, knockout for knockout in an amateur tournament which has the boxing fans of a city by the ears.

Charters Plane for Trip.

Folks are coming from all parts of the central states to see this amateur boxing carnival. A business man in Cincinnati wired last night that he had chartered a plane and would arrive in Chicago at 5 p. m. He's an optimistic fan. He hasn't a ticket and after the airplane ride must take his chance of getting one of the precious general admissions.

Parties are coming from Springfield, Peoria, South Bend, and Davenport. A delegation of 330 taxi drivers will occupy one section. They want to see Grant Fortney, taxi pilot of Chicago, teach Max Glickman, taxi king of New York, to stay on his own side of the street.

First Come First Served.

For once a fight show is being held where millions and social prestige have not been shown favors by the box office men. Tex Rickard promulgated the idea that the 600 should get the ringside seats at a fight. The civic uplifters followed Tex's plan when they allotted the best tickets to the Tunney-Dempsey battle on Soldiers' field to civic leaders.

The twenty-two thousand tickets to the intercity classic have been sold through one box office—an improvised box office in the rooms of THE TRIBUNE'S public service offices. And they've been sold—these tickets with a top price of $3—to the purchasers who asked for them first.

To be sure, the fact that this is a popular priced show has had a great deal to do with kindling the demand for seats. But the reasonableness of the admission fee can't be given all the credit. There have been numerous popular priced professional boxing shows in Chicago where wide open spaces were more numerous than occupied seats.

Show Has Real Value.

The Chicago Stadium, world's largest indoor arena, will be packed to the rafters tonight principally because of one factor—the fans have learned to appreciate the value of a Golden Gloves show.

They aren't the most skillful boxers in either Chicago or New York—these thirty-two boys who wear miniature Golden Gloves on their watch chains. They aren't versed in the tricks of the boxing racket. They don't know how to stall and fake. They aren't interested in purses, intent upon winning a wager.

They are fighters.

Thirty-two kids and young men who fight because they like it, win because they don't know what it is to ease up, lose only because the other fellow was stronger or luckier.

There wasn't a boy in either the Chicago or New York camp last night who was nervous and afraid of what tonight might bring. They were impatient for the clock to tick away the hours that delay their appearance under the ring lights before that 22,000.

Tonight Is Their Big Night.

Until tonight they were nonentities.

For four rounds or less tonight they will be important figures. Before they were clockers in the steel mill, coal miners, taxi drivers, and office boys. Then they will be the best that New York or Chicago can produce in the flyweight, the lightweight, or the heavyweight amateur ranks.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE challenged the New York News to match Golden Glove teams three years ago. The challenge was accepted and the first inter-city tournament was held in the Coliseum. Eight bouts were won by New York; eight by Chicago.

Chicago has a chance tonight to square the standing.

CUBS PREPARE TO LEAVE THEIR AVALON CAMP

Boys Relax in Last Day Workouts.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Avalon, Cal., March 18.—Baseball continued to be the least of the Cubs' worries today. With the rag end of the spring training routine almost at hand, Chief McCarthy declared for nothing more extensive than a two hour afternoon drill, thus permitting the regular members of the league's titular squad to pass the remainder of the day at golf or loafing on the main stem where the day's inflow of tourists could gaze and pass remarks about the luck of some people.

Lets 'Em Clown.

Even the drill itself lacked the usual business-like procedure common to anything bossed by the square visaged McCarthy. He just sat around and let them clown whenever they felt like it. When they felt differently they engaged in a few rounds of batting practice, and for the last few minutes of the workout the infield settled down to a bit of serious practice on batted balls. Lester Bell's arm, which is a slow starter, has strengthened considerably.

Tomorrow, being getaway day, will not be marked by much labor. McCarthy will have the fellows in uniform by 10:30 and work them until noon. Then they'll turn in their paraphernalia for packing and get their extra shirts in custody for the trip to Los Angeles, where they will stay eighteen days.

Pitching Staff Undetermined.

McCarthy still has to pick four new men to make up the ten man hurling staff he hopes to carry. For these four jobs there are about six fellows with possibilities, and it is not going to be an easy matter to separate the genuine articles from the spring flashes. The surest way to accomplish this will be to work all of them as much as possible. To do this he will have to employ at least two and maybe three men in every exhibition game.

McCarthy's present scheme is to start off Thursday with a five and four round program. He doesn't think any of the flingers are able to go any farther. Guy Bush tried out his curve at Los Angeles last Sunday, and will not curve again until he gets back there.

BRAVES WHIP YANKEES, 7-5.

St Petersburg, Fla., March 18.—(AP)—One bad inning cost the New York Yankees a ball game with the Boston Braves today, the final score being 7 to 5.

With Bill Henderson in the box the Braves put together three walks and a like number of doubles to score five runs in the sixth inning. The Yanks outhit their National league rivals, 13 to 8, but their blows were kept scattered by Selbold, Jones, and Smith.

Bush Hires a Hall for White Sox Training

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

San Antonio, Tex., March 18.—Texas weather boosters won't like this, but we are obliged to tell you that Manager Donie Bush of the Chicago White Sox this afternoon hired a hall and drilled his athletes indoors.

Singing in the rain is an optimistic practice of which Boss Donie is not guilty at this season of the year. When his third successive game was washed out today, Mr. Bush went out and hired the hoss ring at Exposition park here and an hour later had his troupe performing on the tanbark. He paid for an option on the premises and hereafter each rainy or muddy day will find his charges working industriously therein.

Jolley Center of Interest.

Today's scheduled game with the New York Giants was to have been a benefit for two local orphanages but the precipitation had been so severe that the contest was called off at 3 o'clock this morning. There was a bright sun throughout the day but there was mud on every side. The orphanages will get the receipts of the game on March 26.

Interest around the camp today was centered around Carmen Jolley. When the mud spoiled everything the railbirds were forced to limit their observations to the tanbark appearance. Those who were seeking comparisons with established major leaguers saw enough in the hoss ring to decide he is not comparable in style to any of the big show performers. He is of different build than any of the big fellows and has a batting and throwing style all his own.

Play for Legion Today.

Smead lost no time in getting acquainted with the entire ensemble. He already knew Kamm, Cissell and Harris and they took pleasure in setting him in with the rest of the boys.

If the weather will ease up the Giants and Sox tomorrow will journey to Kerrville, 30 miles from here, for an American Legion performance.

SHIRES MAY BE SEMI-PRO.

Dallas, Tex., March 18.—[Special.]—Unless he receives word or a new contract from officials of the Sox within a week, Art Shires will go in for semi-pro baseball either in Chicago or in the Rio Grande valley, he declared Tuesday night in a long distance telephone conversation from his home at Italy, Tex.

The best proposition, he indicated, came from an official of a Chicago semi-pro team that wanted him to be a player manager.

GOSLIN, SPENCER SOUGHT.

Biloxi, Miss., March 18.—(AP)—Although President Griffith of the Washington Senators refuses to comment, reports circulated today that two other major league clubs were angling for "Goose" Goslin, star outfielder, and Roy Spencer, catcher, who have been hold outs so far.

The clubs mentioned were Cleveland and Detroit. The Indians were said to be seeking Spencer's services, while Bucky Harris was understood to want the slugging "Goose" for the Tigers.

TIGERS, 8; CARDS, 5.

Bradenton, Fla., March 18.—(AP)—Wildness of Carmen Hill in the seventh inning gave the Detroit Tigers a victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in an exhibition game here today, 8 to 5. It was the fourth defeat of the spring season for the Cardinals, who have scored three victories. Sparky Adams, Cardinal second baseman, had a perfect day at bat with four hits.

ROBINS, 2; BROWNS, 1.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 18.—(AP)—A trio of Brooklyn hurlers had the better of a pitching duel with two St. Louis Browns moundsmen today and the Robins won, 2 to 1.

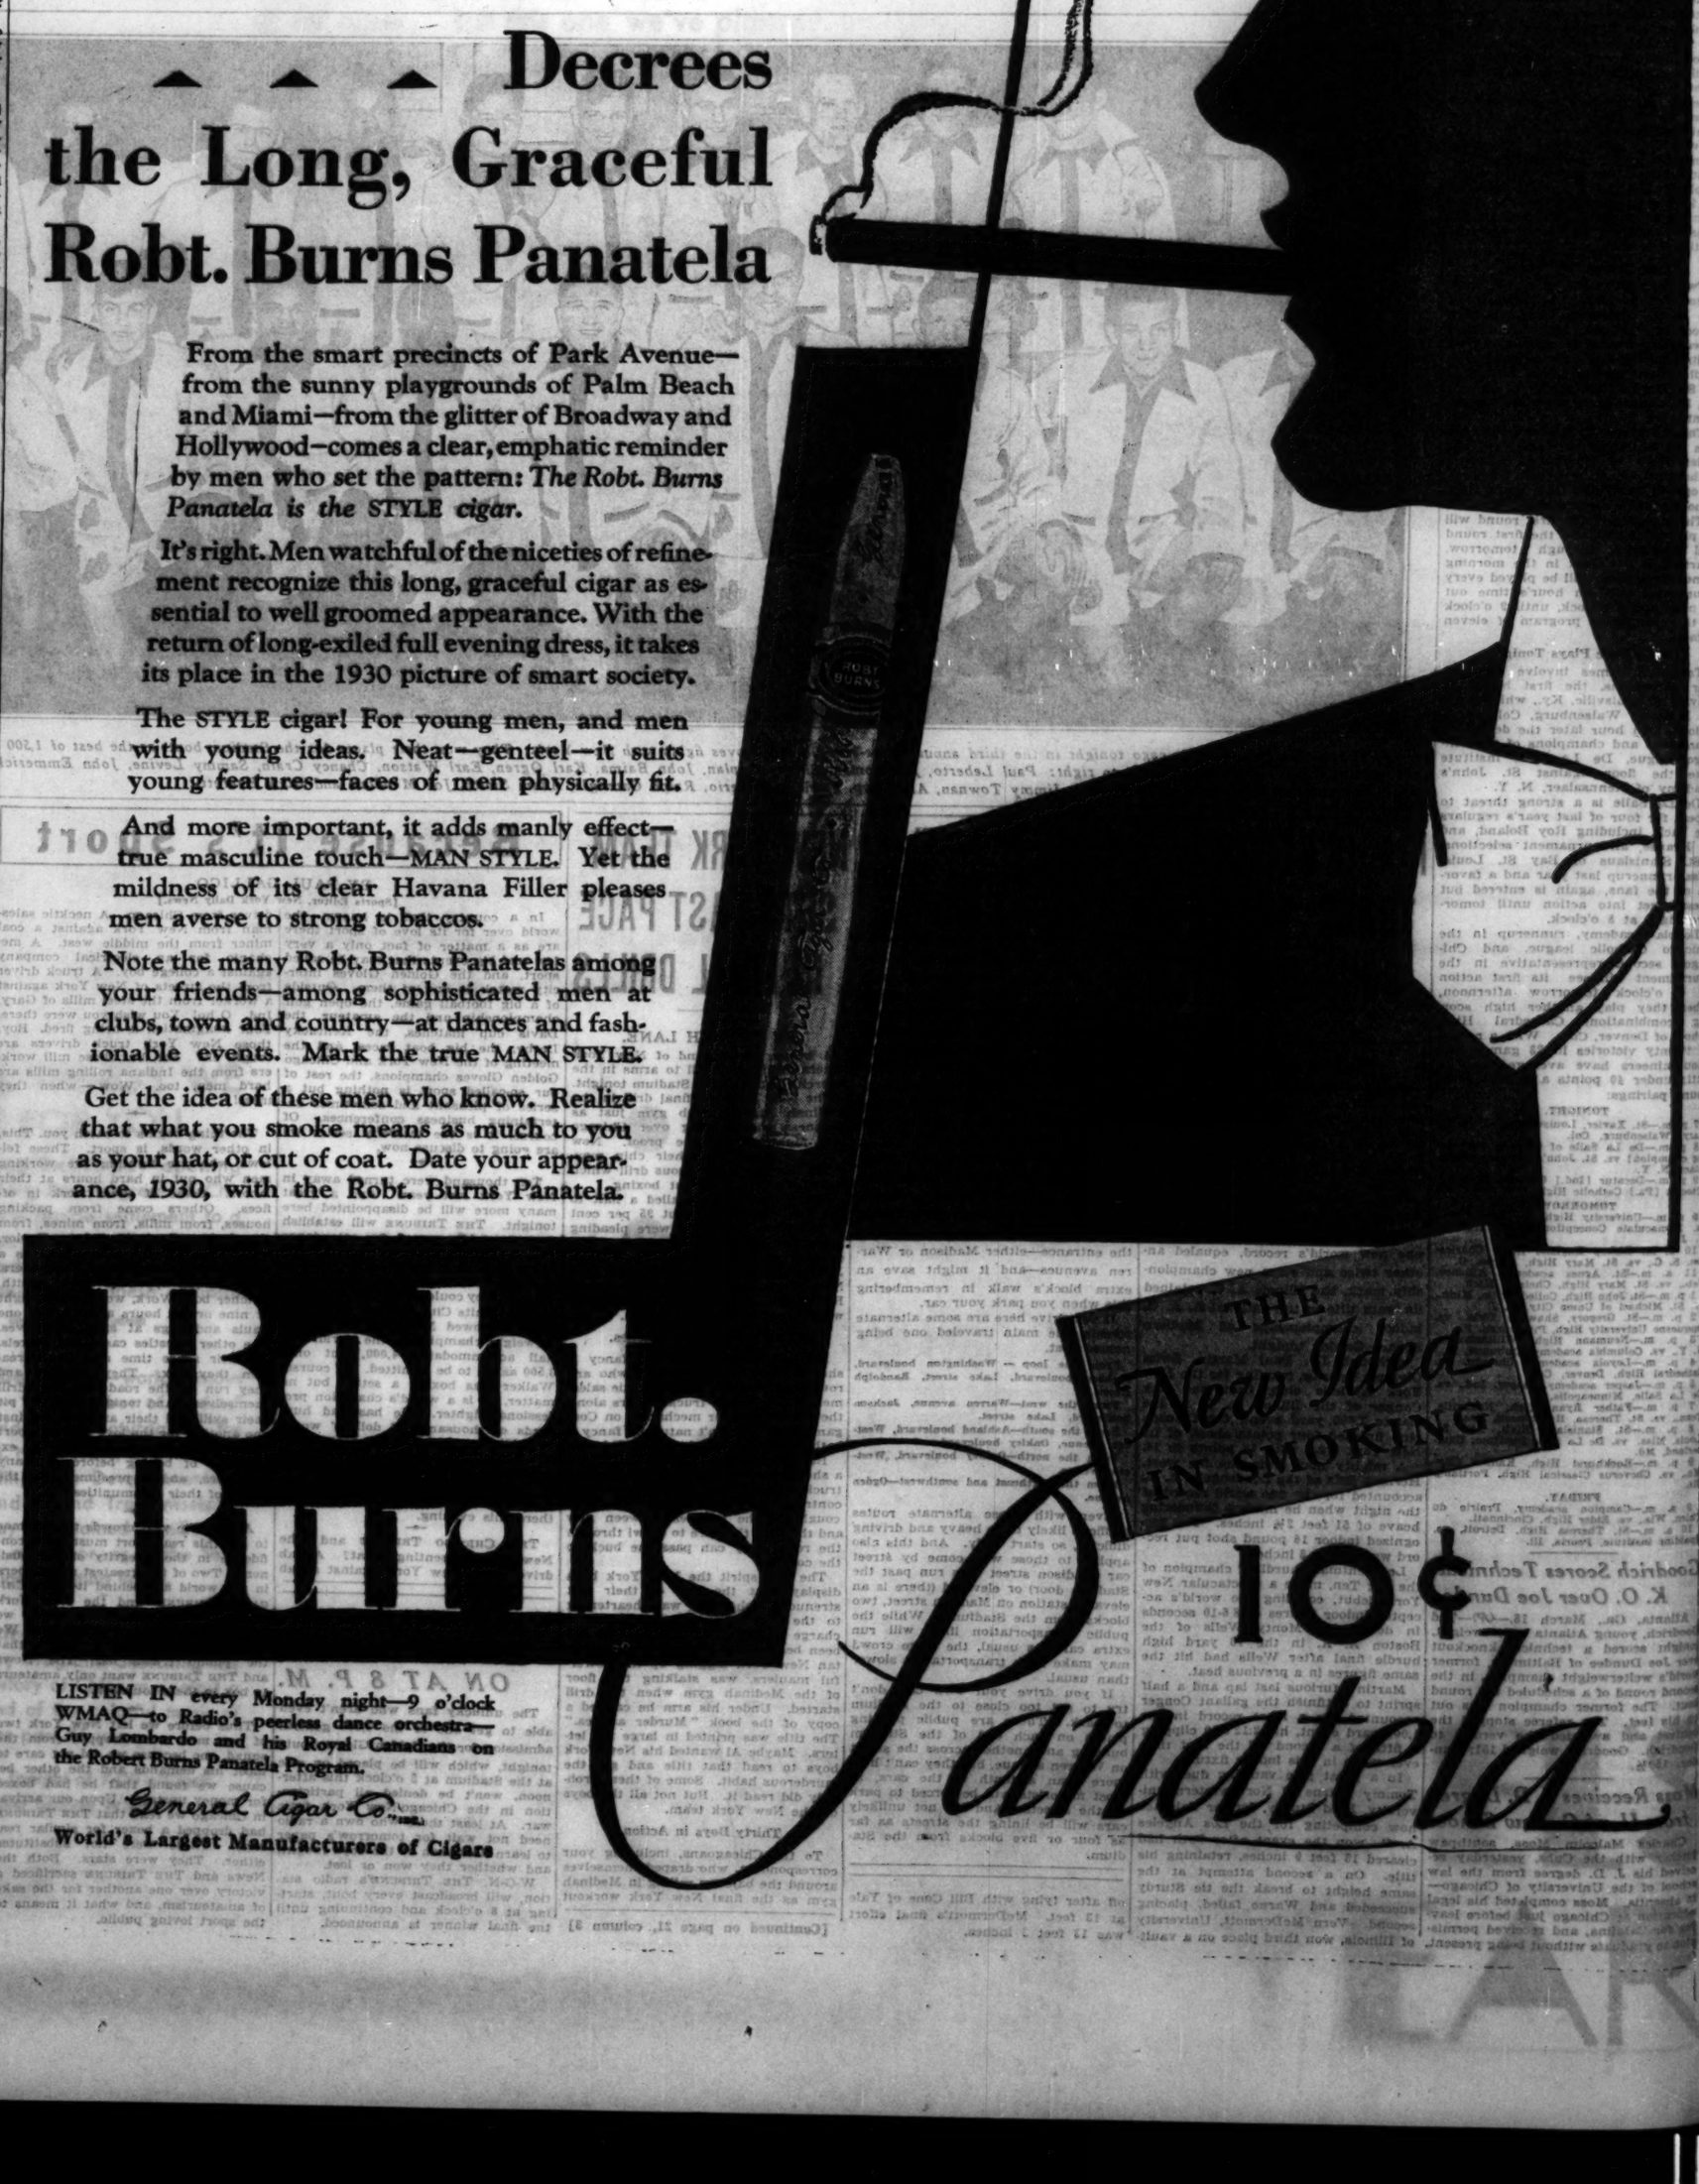

John Toledano Wins 2d Match for 3 Cushion Title

French Lick, Ind., March 18.—(AP)—John H. Toledano of New Orleans, southwestern sectional champion, won his second straight game in the national amateur three cushion championship tournament here today by defeating Bernard Fritz of Nashville, southeastern champion, this afternoon. Toledano won by 50 to 33 in 84 innings. His high run was four; Fritz's 3.

Broban Whips Resakin in State Handball Tourney

Twenty-three players competed in the second round of the Illinois state single handball championship at the Lake Shore Athletic club last night. Ten were eliminated in the previous night's games. Jack Broban, city champ, triumphed over Resarkin in one of the best tilts of the evening, 21 to 5 and 21 to 9.

CUBS PREPARE TO LEAVE THEIR AVALON CAMP

Boys Relax in Last Day Workouts.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Avalon, Cal., March 18.—Baseball continued to be the least of the Cubs' worries today. With the tag end of the spring training routine almost at hand, Chief McCarthy declared for nothing more extensive than a two hour afternoon drill, thus permitting the regular members of the league's titular squad to pass the remainder of the day at golf or loafing on the main stem where the day's inflow of tourists could gaze and pass remarks about the luck of some people.

Lets 'Em Clown.

Even the drill itself lacked the usual business-like procedure common to anything bossed by the square visaged McCarthy. He just sat around and let them clown whenever they felt like it. When they felt differently they engaged in a few rounds of batting practice, and for the last few minutes of the workout the infield settled down to a bit of serious practice on batted balls. Lester Bell's arm, which is a slow starter, has strengthened considerably.

Tomorrow, being getaway day, will not be marked by much labor. McCarthy will have the fellows in uniform by 10:30 and work them until noon. Then they'll turn in their paraphernalia for packing and get their extra shirts in custody for the trip to Los Angeles, where they will stay eighteen days.

Pitching Staff Undetermined.

McCarthy still has to pick four new men to make up the ten man hurling staff he hopes to carry. For these four jobs there are about six fellows with possibilities, and it is not going to be an easy matter to separate the genuine articles from the spring flashes. The surest way to accomplish this will be to work all of them as much as possible. To do this he will have to employ at least two and maybe three men in every exhibition game.

McCarthy's present scheme is to start off Thursday with a five and four round program. He doesn't think any of the flingers are able to go any farther. Guy Bush tried out his curve at Los Angeles last Sunday, and will not curve again until he gets back there.

BRAVES WHIP YANKEES, 7-5.

St Petersburg, Fla., March 18.—(AP)—One bad inning cost the New York Yankees a ball game with the Boston Braves today, the final score being 7 to 5.

With Bill Henderson in the box the Braves put together three walks and a like number of doubles to score five runs in the sixth inning. The Yanks outhit their National league rivals, 13 to 8, but their blows were kept scattered by Seibold, Jones, and Smith.

Bush Hires a Hall for White Sox Training

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

San Antonio, Tex., March 18.—Texas weather boosters won't like this, but we are obliged to tell you that Manager Donie Bush of the Chicago White Sox this afternoon hired a hall and drilled his athletes indoors.

Singing in the rain is an optimistic practice of which Boss Donie is not guilty at this season of the year. When his third successive game was washed out today, Mr. Bush went out and hired the hoss ring at Exposition park here and an hour later had his troupe performing on the tanbark. He paid for an option on the premises and hereafter each rainy or muddy day will find his charges working industriously therein.

Jolley Center of Interest.

Today's scheduled game with the New York Giants was to have been a benefit for two local orphanages but the precipitation had been so severe that the contest was called off at 8 o'clock this morning. There was a bright sun throughout the day but there was mud on every side. The orphanages will get the receipts of the game on March 26.

Interest around the camp today was centered around Carnern Jolley. When the mud spoiled everything the railbirds were forced to limit their observations to the tanbark appearance. Those who were seeking comparisons with established major leaguers saw enough in the hoss ring to decide he is not comparable in style to any of the big show performers. He is of different build than any of the big fellows and has a batting and throwing style all his own.

Play for Legion Today.

Smead lost no time in getting acquainted with the entire ensemble. He already knew Kamm, Cissell and Harris and they took pleasure in setting him in with the rest of the boys.

If the weather will ease up the Giants and Sox tomorrow will journey to Kerrville, 30 miles from here, for an American Legion performance.

SHIRES MAY BE SEMI-PRO.

Dallas, Tex., March 18.—[Special.]—Unless he receives word or a new contract from officials of the Sox within a week, Art Shires will go in for semi-pro baseball either in Chicago or in the Rio Grande valley, he declared Tuesday night in a long distance telephone conversation from his home at Italy, Tex.

The best proposition, he indicated, came from an official of a Chicago semi-pro team that wanted him to be a player manager.

GOSLIN, SPENCER SOUGHT.

Biloxi, Miss., March 18.—(AP)—Although President Griffith of the Washington Senators refuses to comment, reports circulated today that two other major league clubs were angling for "Goose" Goslin, star outfielder, and Roy Spencer, catcher, who have been hold outs so far.

The clubs mentioned were Cleveland and Detroit. The Indians were said to be seeking Spencer's services, while Bucky Harris was understood to want the slugging "Goose" for the Tigers.

EX-LOYOLA CAGE STARS DEFEAT PURDUE, 32 TO 26

Led by Feed Murphy, a team of former Loyola basketball players triumphed over a quintet of former Purdue stars, piloted by Stretch Murphy, in the second "Battle of the Murphys" last night at the 122d regiment armory. The score was 32 to 26.

Feed contributed three baskets and two free throws, while his namesake scored two baskets. The victors led at half time, 14 to 10. Bremmer and Dorn also featured for the victors, each scoring eight points. Gibbens led the losing scorers, collecting three baskets. Lineup:

1930 Style Decrees the Long, Graceful Robt. Burns Panatela

From the smart precincts of Park Avenue—from the sunny playgrounds of Palm Beach and Miami—from the glitter of Broadway and Hollywood—comes a clear, emphatic reminder by men who set the pattern: The Robt. Burns Panatela is the STYLE cigar.

It's right. Men watchful of the niceties of refinement recognize this long, graceful cigar as essential to well groomed appearance. With the return of long-exiled full evening dress, it takes its place in the 1930 picture of smart society.

And more important, it adds manly effect—true masculine touch—MAN STYLE. Yet the mildness of its clear Havana Filler pleases men averse to strong tobaccos.

Note the many Robt. Burns Panatelas among your friends—among sophisticated men at clubs, town and country—at dances and fashionable events. Mark the true MAN STYLE.

Get the idea of these men who know. Realize that what you smoke means as much to you as your hat, or cut of coat. Date your appearance, 1930, with the Robt. Burns Panatela.

HAWKS CLINCH SECOND PLACE BY 4-1 VICTORY

Play Les Canadiens

THE Chicago Blackhawks will play their first game in the play-offs for the Stanley Cup at the Stadium Sunday night against Les Canadiens of Montreal. The second game will be played at Montreal March 25 or 27. The winner on a basis of total goals in the two games advances into the second round.

Waiting until the final game of the regular season to score a victory over Toronto, the Chicago Blackhawks made it emphatic at the Stadium last night by defeating the Maple Leafs 4 to 1 before a crowd of 9,000. The victory just as emphatically established them in second place, for it put the Hawks a game and a half in front of the New York Rangers in the final standing.

For half the first period the speedy Leafs outplayed the Hawks and Toronto got away to a goal lead.

But with second place assured by the Rangers' defeat, the Hawks turned loose with some dazzling bits of skating and stick work, taking chances and they clicked on the chances. They scored two goals in the second period, plus a third which was disallowed for offside, and two more in the third period.

Bailey, Ingram Turn Fighters.

The first and third periods were clean and all were fast, while the second carried just enough rough stuff to please the crowd. In that session Ace Bailey and Frank Ingram got mixed up in their dates and thought it was tonight, for they staged one fine round of a Golden Gloves bout for which each of them drew a major penalty.

Toronto's first and only score came two and one-half minutes after the game started on a brilliant bit of passing between Happy Day and Ace Bailey. Bailey passed from the left boards to Day at the right. Day whipped the puck back to Bailey and bored in and when Ace had drawn Gardiner to his side of the net, he sent the rubber back to Day who scored easily.

A score five minutes before the end of the period, when Gardiner was forced to make one of the dozen standing-on-his-ear stops he made during the night, brought the Hawks to life and from then on until they had a safe lead a few minutes from the end they kept the crowd constantly cheering.

Hawks Roll Up Score.

Two minutes later Gottselig scored by turning a sizzling side pass from Bostrom into the net. It was both a fine pass and fine reception. Less than half a minute later Ripley drove the puck into the net with a long angle shot, but it was called back for offside.

The Hawks started the third period in whirlwind fashion, Couture scoring on a pass from Arbour in 50 seconds. Ty stole the puck from a Leaf behind the net and passed to Leo, who made the short shot count. Five minutes later Cook carried the puck down center ice, pushed one of his soft passes between the defense men, and Adams, winging in from the left, picked it up and shot it home.

Fickle Spring Weather Often Fatal to Birds

BY BOB BECKER.

Although the short spell of unusually mild weather which visited northern Illinois last week-end brought a number of robins and other early migrants, yesterday's snowstorm proved that it takes more than one warm day in March to make this country "safe" for the early birds.

Authorities who have devoted considerable study to the feeding of birds always have urged that feeding stations should be maintained right through the month of March.

Yesterday's snowstorm backed up this contention. Better keep the supply of bread crumbs, canary seed, and peanuts, rolled oats, wheat, cracked corn, or whatever assortment you have available for your bird friends. This food not only will give them a big lift but it also increases your chances of getting many to nest around your place.

Although it is generally thought that songbirds have some unknown sense which enables them to anticipate changes in weather, studies of migratory movements of many species shows that this is not true. Our birds do fly blind at night. We know of some species that can set out across an ocean and find an island without fail. Their sense of direction seems to be uncanny. But they can't "feel" weather changes to keep out of storms.

For example, you can go to the gulf coast of Texas or Louisiana in the spring and see songsters coming in from a long hop across the open water to run smack into a norther which may cause many deaths among the migrants. They should have avoided such weather, but, unwarned, went on just the same.

Chicago Boys Limber Up in Final Drills

off top honors in the featherweight division. Benny's opponent will be Joe Comforti, one of the best boys on the New York team. The easterner can hit with either hand and knows the defensive angles of boxing. Goldblatt is a boxer and Comforti a puncher.

Al Santora, New Yorker, or rather Jerseyite, will swap punches with Lefty Earl Watson in the lightweight preliminary to serve as an appetizer to the meeting between Chauncey Crain, colored fighter from George Kamberson's Lawndale gymnasium, and Patsy Pasculli. Crain is a stiff right hand puncher who may connect any time. He is in superb condition and is confident he will win his fight. Ralph Carnegie of Benton Harbor, Mich., will exchange wallops with Pete Simnoetti in the 147 pound class secondary division. Then will come the long awaited match between Karl Ogren of the Belle Plaine A. C. and Walter Palm of New York. This should be a punching fight as both like to sock.

John Baima of Chicago and Eddie Fuchs of New York will clash in the secondary division of the 160 pound class. Edward Steeve of the University of Illinois and Andy Melia of New York will be the middleweight finalists. Steeve can hit and box while the New Yorker is of the boring-in type who will give the Chicago fighter plenty of trouble.

Joe Mendoza, local light heavyweight, fights Mike Vetrano, New Yorker, in the first of the 175 pound matches. Buck Everett of Gary, Ind., and Arthur Rodenback will be the light heavyweight contestants in the first division. Buck is considered one of the best fighters on the Chicago team by Coaches Young and Yanger. Rodenback can punch with his right hand and will be dangerous at all times.

Adam Smith of Rockford, Ill., will be Chicago's representative in the first of the heavyweight battles and Sylvan Taylor, colored fighter, will wear New York colors. The closing fight will bring together Grant Fortney, Chicago's hope in the heavyweight division. His opponent will be Max Glickman.

The Chicago team will go on the road this morning. They will take a brisk walk in Grant park and then return to the C. A. A. where they will rest until 2 o'clock, when they will be weighed. Officials of the Chi took place the scene was a bit discouraging.

New Yorkers Speed Through Final Drills

Thirty boxers, boys who appeared fit and ready to go through any sort of an ordeal, were in action at one time. In the ring was Glickman the heavyweight, Rodenback the light heavyweight, Andy Melia the middleweight, and Joe Comforti the featherweight. Pounding the punching bag was Capt. Siclari, whose battle tonight with Johnny Emmerick may be one of the most furious on the program, and on the floor, shadow boxing, skipping the rope, and aiming punches at the sand bag, were Jimmy Hughes, Johnny Maure, Patsy Pasculli, Walter Palm, Pete Simonetti, Johnny Turco, and all their teammates.

The New Yorkers make no secret of the fact that they look on Walter Gardiner, the Esthonian, as their surest winner. And they made no secret of the fact late yesterday that Walter weighed 149 pounds, which is two pounds more than he must weigh when he tackles Karl Ogren.

Attend Theater at Night.

Except for the tossing of punches at each other the New York drill varied little from the training program the boys have been sent through for the last month. They were on the road despite the snowstorm yesterday morning. Their gym workout continued for nearly two hours.

Last night the New Yorkers were guests at a loop theater. They didn't tumble into their beds until shortly before midnight. But they will be permitted to sleep as long as they like this morning.

GOLDEN GLOVES.

SIXTEEN picked New York amateur boxers will meet a like number of Chicago and middle western champions in the third intercity Golden Gloves tourney, sponsored by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE and New York News, at the Stadium tonight. For these visitors The Wake bespeaks from the immense crowd to be present an attitude of sportsmanship.

Every one of these sixteen New Yorkers and every one of our local boys will be doing his best, trying his hardest to win. Naturally our home spectators will be partisan. We want to win, to avenge the defeat suffered a year ago in Manhattan. So we'll bestow the bulk of our plaudits on our middle western mitt slingers. But we'll still have enough left to give recognition to skill and courage if shown by an opponent.

When we visited New York a year ago Gothamites who filled every seat in Madison Square Garden were a partisan crowd. They fairly howled with delight as some of their men upset our most touted boxers. Yet they gave us a gratifying measure of appreciation with a sense of sportsmanship which The Wake hardly had expected. In fact, they booed one of the "bad" decisions given against Chicago, and Paul Gallico, sporting editor of the New York News, awarded a complimentary "winner's" medal to that particular Chicagoan officially pronounced defeated.

Remember, please, all these boys, local and visitors, are not hired performers. They are competing for honors and medals. The financial fruits of their efforts go to charity. So may we ask only applause, lavish if you wish, of worthy effort, and nothing of disparagement when some boy's best is not good enough. Then you will be participating in the true amateur spirit of the occasion.

Army, Navy to Bury Ax; Will Play This Year

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 18.—[Special.]—The Army and Navy will adjust their disagreement over rules governing the eligibility of the Army's football players in a short time and the game will be resumed next fall after the close of the regular football schedules of the two schools.

They will play somewhere close to home in the reconciliation show, possibly in Baltimore, this being the Navy's turn to select the site under the old sequence which was interrupted after the 1927 game, but perhaps in New York. At any rate, they will play, and in the rapprochement, any die hard officers of either side who try to insist upon a strictly legal settlement of the controversial items will be gently but firmly advised to regard the Army and Navy as one service and the officers of the opposite cloth as brothers in arms and sporting opponents, not as enemies.

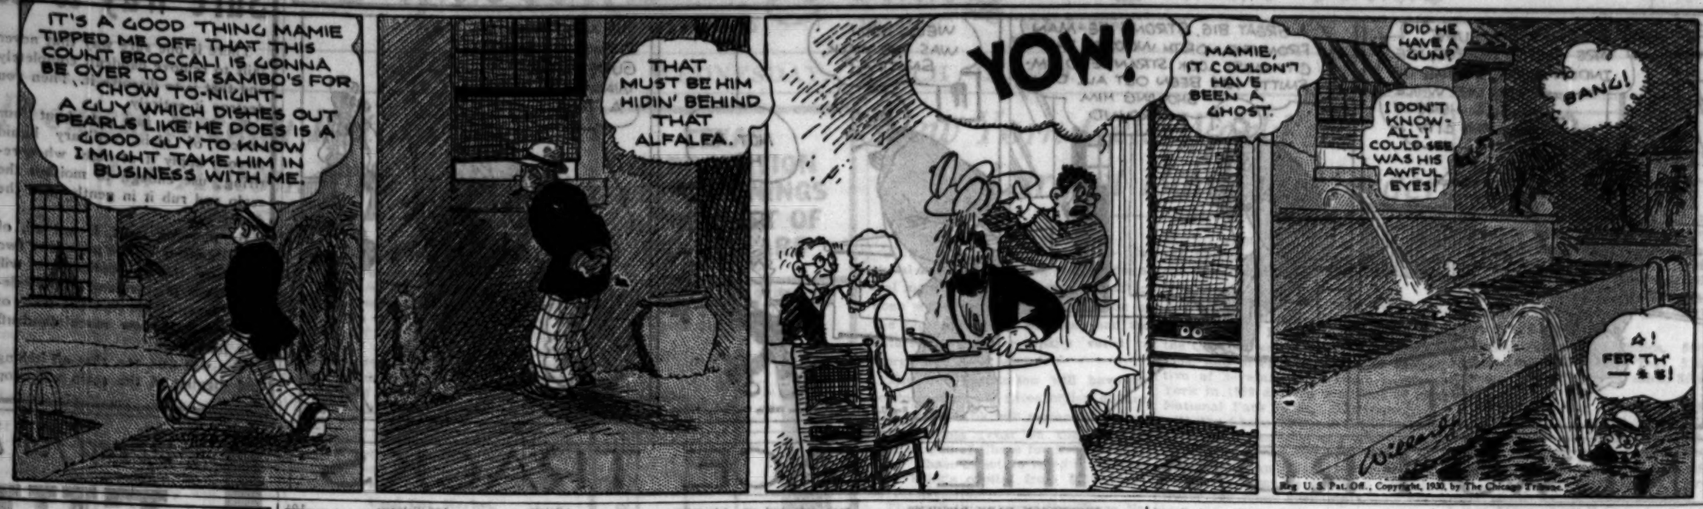

The chiefs of the two departments have been reluctant to force a reconciliation out of respect for the doughty habit of mind which both schools try to develop in the graduate days of the army and navy officers to the end that they shall stand their ground against whatever odds in war, but this problem will be overcome, if not by an appeal to their comradeship, then by an appeal to their respect for authority.

The settlement is certain to accord the Army the right to use any cadet on the team for three years regardless of any previous varsity football service in civilian schools, and each side will acknowledge the other's right to keep its own conscience. The Army's justification of its stand will be that congress established the maximum age for entrance at West Point as 22 years, with the definite purpose of attracting boys from civilian colleges.

The important thing now is that on the word of an authority much more competent than Congressman Fred A. Britten of Chicago, a fairly competent authority on the navy side, himself, being chairman of the house naval affairs committee, the settlement is imminent, the navy wants to play, as does the army, and there will be a game next fall. Moreover, the old army-navy football contract which still called for three more games when it was abrogated by Admiral Louis M. Nulton in 1927 will be torn up and forgotten, and the new relationship will be undertaken with less formality and greater mutual trust. Mr. Britten said the series would be resumed in Chicago in 1932. He was too conservative by two years, but Chicago will get a game.

If I seem to be assuming oracular authority in all this, it is only because this is being written in Washington, where existence moves in official circles and one obtains information from such creatures of convenience as the White House spokesman and Mr. High Authority.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 18.—Now it is old Chuck Wiggins of Indianapolis who splashes water on the ringside customers going into the tank for the greater glory of Primo Carnera. Of course, the old chuckler has been pretty well done for these last several years, but the fact that Primo met him at all can only mean that he is all through, because Primo is under retainer to the Garden corporation and the plan is to bring him through undamaged and not even embarrassed to the summertime, when he is to go into the Polo grounds with Victorio Campolo.

Campolo Makes an Error.

Sig. Campolo himself committed a serious faux pas down in Miami when he permitted Johnny Risko to go piling into him throughout seven of their ten rounds and slap him about regardless of a great margin of tonnage, but the referee eased the situation somewhat that night by calling the bout a draw. Fainting Philip Scott made a great to-do about American justice that same evening amid the itching palms, when the leering Lithuanian, Jack Sharkey, hit him a dab on the hip, but Risko has had little to say about the decision that robbed him of his earnings when he had finished with Sig. Campolo.

Risko No Squawker.

Risko is an American, and he doubtless goes to the brawls with the cynical American understanding that a union man shouldn't cause trouble. With a much braver record than Fainting Phil, he was outlawed in New York on the ground that he wasn't fit to fight the Garden corporation's man, Campolo, while Fainting Philip was named for the main event in Miami by act of the cauliflower legislature.

Then, when the tests came, Risko beat his man, was robbed, and said nothing much, whereas Fainting Phil quit, squawked, and no doubt will be sent back in by special ruling of the prize fight commissioners to plague the customers in some main event at one of the ball yards again.

All of which fits in with my contention that prize fight commissioners and the politicians in congress share a common code of ethics, morals, and self-respect which might be taken as a compliment or the contrary by either body or both.

18,130 SEE BOUT

St. Louis, Mo., March 18.—(AP)—The attendance at the Carnera-Wiggins fight at the Arena last night was announced today as 18,130, which set a new indoor record for St. Louis sports events.

The gross receipts totaled $48,157.70 and the net was $43,807. The state received $2,250.35 in taxes.

Carnera's share was $15,332, the third largest purse of his ten fights in America. His purse in Chicago against Elzear Rioux was $18,000 and in New York against Big Boy Peterson, $17,300. Wiggins received $9,631.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. Then you destroy it entirely.

To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid Arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid Arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

THE FINEST DRIVING LIGHT IN THE WORLD

Allis-Chalmers Net Shows Trend.

BY O. A. MATHER.

Farmers are going right along buying agricultural implements and industrial concerns are not backward in purchasing power machinery despite low grain prices, on the one hand, and a lull in manufacturing on the other hand. This evidence is contained in the annual report of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing company, issued yesterday.

President Otto H. Falk calls attention to the fact that the company ended 1929, which was its most prosperous year, with unfilled orders of $13,872,676, compared with $9,681,214 on Dec. 31, 1928. But by Feb. 30 this year forward orders had risen to $13,-182,000. Furthermore, the increase in unfilled orders last year was registered in spite of the fact that billings totaled $45,262,355, compared with $36,294,561 in 1928.

Net income for 1929 was $4,330,888, equivalent to $3.81 a share on the average of 1,136,048 no par common shares outstanding during the year. The stock was split on a four for one basis and additional shares were sold to the stockholders last fall. Net income for 1928 was $2,933,909, or $2.82 a share, computed on the present basis. The balance sheet as of Dec. 31, 1929, shows current assets of $33,-774,118, current liabilities of $8,986,981, and surplus of $17,566,931.

Other industrial news was less cheerful yesterday. Further slackening in the steel industry was reported, with the average output for the whole country placed around 74 per cent of mill capacity, compared with 76 per cent a week ago and 79 per cent a fortnight ago. The United States Steel corporation now is operating at 80 per cent, compared with 82 a week ago and 85 two weeks ago, while independent plants now are around 68 per cent, compared with 70 a week ago and 73 a fortnight ago.

Auto Reports Vary.

"Producers of heavy rolled steel products in the Chicago district expect heavier backlogs within the next few weeks," Daily Metal Trade says. "It is indicated that the start of the second quarter will develop heavier releases in tonnages from the automotive parts forgers in the Cleveland district. Plate tonnage is expected to increase. Prices are firm in all districts."

Reports from the automotive industry continue rather confusing. Automobile registration during February made a sharp gain over January and came within 2 per cent of registrations in February, 1929. But the two leading producers of small cars accounted for 66 per cent of last month's registrations and also brought the total close to a year ago, whereas other producers suffered a decline of 30 per cent from February, 1929.

A reversal of the recent sharp downward trend in petroleum production occurred last week, although it was partly due to the opening of wells for testing purposes. Daily average crude oil production was 2,584,407 barrels, an increase of 46,099 barrels a day, according to the Oil and Gas Journal, whereas in the preceding fortnight a reduction of 146,890 barrels a day had been effected.

Oklahoma was largely responsible for last week's expansion, making an increase of 47,700 barrels a day.

Sears-Ward Combine Rumor.

The perennial rumor of merger negotiations between Sears, Roebuck & Co. and Montgomery Ward & Co., the two big mail order and chain store concerns, bobbed up again in La Salle street yesterday. It was promptly flouted by Gen. R. E. Wood, president of Sears-Roebuck, and George B. Everitt, president of Montgomery Ward. Several years ago merger negotiations were started, but later dropped when the plan was not approved by the federal trade commission.

Predicts Steady Future for Automobile Industry

BY SCRUTATOR.

A more hopeful view than the one usually expressed about the automobile industry's immediate future was given yesterday in a luncheon talk to the Illinois Manufacturers' Cost association by B. E. Hutchinson, vice president and treasurer of the Chrysler corporation.

His estimate is that automobile production for the next few years will average about 5,000,000 cars a year of all types and that the number made and sold in 1930 will not be much less. The bottom of the post-market crash depression was reached in December, he added, and February was a good average month. Although production of cars was still lower than during the same month in 1929, it was greater than in 1926, 1927, or 1928.

New Registrations.

In fact, registrations of new cars last month in twenty-one states for which statistics were gathered were only 2 per cent less than in February, 1929. This needs qualification, at least to point out that the lowest price cars showed an increase and the higher priced a somewhat greater reduction than the lumped average.

"The automobile business," the speaker continued, "takes the products of a great many other industries. What we make is really specialized hardware. We differ from most other industries in that we gather a large number of things and sell them as a unit. A packing concern, on the other hand, takes a steer or a hog and breaks it up before selling it.

"We take 18 per cent of all the steel produced in the country, by volume. We take a whole lot more by value. Of all the rubber manufactured, 85 per cent goes into tires. Three-quarters of the country's plate glass is taken for motor cars, and 75 per cent of the spindles making heavy fabrics sell their output to motor firms.

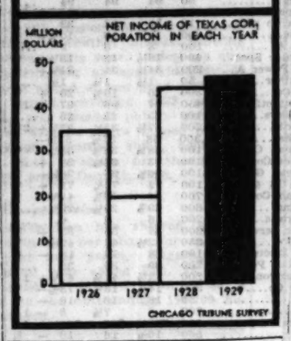

"Highly intricate as the process of manufacture is, we still sell automobiles at less per pound than curtain tacks are sold for."

Used Car Market.

Time payments on automobiles have shown only a slight increase in delinquencies over a year ago, and according to all reports have weathered this storm as well as others in the past. In Mr. Hutchinson's opinion, the used car market, often pointed to as a weakness in automobile marketing, is in reality a benefit.

"There are automobiles worth six billion dollars in use today," he said. "They have an established trade value. They represent six billions of purchasing power. A large part of it is applied annually. Replacement requires about three million new cars a year in this country. There was a foreign market for a million last year. This cannot be accurately forecast for the future, but in my opinion 1928, when 4,600,000 automobiles and trucks were made, was a normal year."

SAYS RESERVE BOARD IS NOT READY TO TAKE STAND ON CHAIN BANKS

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Roy A. Young, governor of the federal reserve board, told members of the house banking and currency committee today the reserve system managers were not yet willing to take a position on the advisability of modifying federal statutes to treat the growth of chain, branch and group banking.

Mr. Young said the problem presented by the changed aspect of banking was the most complicated one the reserve board had had to consider and that it was endeavoring to collect information and form opinions on the subject.

He agreed to file with committee members a statement incorporating statistics as to banking resources of the nation now associated in the banking groupings described, and the history of their development.

The committee decided today that A. P. Giannini and J. A. Bacigalupi, directors of the Bank of Italy, would be called for questioning. Chairman McFadden said Giannini originated the huge system now embraced in the Bank of Italy and that its ramifications included every form of banking being discussed in the present investigation.

WHITE ROCK CO. PAYS EXTRAS ON PFD., COMMON

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 18.—Dividend rates on the common and second preferred stocks of the White Rock Mineral Springs company were increased today and extras were paid on both issues.

The company declared a quarterly dividend of $1 a share on the common, placing the issue on a $4 annual basis, compared with the previous $3 rate, and declared an extra of 50 cents on the common. On the second preferred a regular dividend of $5 was declared, placing the issue on a $20 annual basis, against $15 previously. An extra of $2.50 a share was declared on the second preferred. The first preferred dividend of $1.75 a share was declared.

Freight Loadings for Week Show Decrease

Washington, D. C., March 18.—(AP)—Revenue freight loadings for the week ended March 8 were reported today by the American Railway association to have totaled 873,548 cars. This was a reduction of 25,641 cars below the preceding week and a decrease of 73,991 cars under loadings for the corresponding week a year ago.

New York Gets World's Largest Bank in Merger

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 18.—Chase National bank became the largest financial institution in the world this afternoon when its directors and those of the Equitable Trust company and the Interstate Trust company voted to merge the three banks.

The new institution will have resources of nearly three billion dollars. The Chase bank will replace the stock of Equitable Trust on the basis of four shares of Chase for five of Equitable. Chase directors voted to increase that bank's capital from $105,000,000 to $148,000,000.

Through this merger the Chase National bank jumps over the heads of the National City bank and the Guarantee Trust company into first place among the banks of the United States.

Cite Previous Ranking.

Until now the National City bank has ranked first in this country, with resources of approximately $1,900,-000,000. The Guaranty has been next with resources of around $1,602,000,000, and the Chase was third. The merged institutions, Chase, Equitable and Interstate, will have, it is believed, resources of more than $2,800,000,000.

At the end of last year the Chase National bank had deposits of $1,248,-218,351, capital of $105,000,000, and surplus and undivided profits of $136,-364,145 and total resources of $1,489,-582,496. The Equitable Trust company had resources of $878,955,705—that is, deposits of $765,344,701, capital, $50,-000,000, and surplus, $63,611,004. The Interstate Trust company had total resources of $70,639,902, made up of $60,081,603 deposits; capital, $7,188,700, and surplus, $3,360,599.

The National City bank has been the largest bank in America since 1837 and lately has risen above the great Midland bank of London in resources. At the close of last year it had $2,206,000,000 in resources, while the Guaranty Trust had about $2,017,-000,000. In London the Midland and Lloyd's were over the two billion dollar mark.

Began As a Clerk.

Two sons of New England and a native of Arkansas will join in directing the affairs of the enlarged Chase National.

Albert H. Wiggin, who will be the senior executive officer of the consolidated bank, is a native of Medfield, Mass. Winthrop W. Aldrich, the president, is a native of Providence, R. I., while Pine Bluff, Ark., was the birthplace of Charles S. McCain, the new chairman of the board of directors.

Wiggin, who is 62, is a self-made man. His entire life has been devoted to banking. He became a clerk in the Commonwealth bank of Boston in 1885, and after serving as an executive of several banks came to New York in 1899 as vice president of the National Park bank. His connection with the Chase National began in 1904 as a vice president and director, he gained the presidency in 1911 and became chairman of the board in 1918. During the war he was fuel administrator for New York state.

Turns to Banking.

Aldrich is 45 years old. He is the son of the late Nelson W. Aldrich, United States senator from Rhode Island, who for years was chairman of the national monetary commission. A graduate of Harvard, law was his chosen profession. He turned to banking Dec. 17, 1929, as president of the Equitable on the sudden death of Chellis A. Austin. He was a lieutenant in the naval reserve during the war.

McCain is comparatively a new arrival in Wall street, coming to New York from Arkansas in 1926. He was graduated from Yale university with Phi Betta Kappa honors in 1904. He has spent his life in banking. He came to the National Park bank as vice president in 1926 and was made president a year later. When the bank was merged with the Chase he became president of the consolidated institutions.

GENERAL AMER. TANK CAR CORP. EARNINGS RISE

General American Tank Car corporation set a new record for earnings in 1929, Elias Mayer, president, reports. Net income for the year was $5,770,-740 which was equivalent to $8.33 a share on the average number of common shares outstanding during the year.

Mr. Mayer said that earnings for the first quarter of the current year will show material improvement over the corresponding period of 1929. The firm is a holding company for a number of concerns which manufacture and rent tank and refrigerator cars.

Peerless Motor Car Co. Offers Rights to Stock

Stockholders of Peerless Motor Car company have been offered the right to buy additional stock on a share for share basis at the rate of $8 a share. The plan supersedes a stock option given last August. President J. A. Bohannon states that completion of the present financing will increase the working capital from $2,000,000 to $4,500,000.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 18.—More than 100 stocks achieved new 1930 price peaks in one of the best all around markets of the year today. Virtually all classes of shares joined in the rise at some time or another and such confidence-begetters as U. S. Steel, New York Central, American Can, and Western Union were out in front all day.

The rails had their first really good move in months. Utility issues displayed something of their hitherto wonted vigor, the tobaccos had many good friends, the farm implements were once more buoyant and various specialties were taken out for a walk. The financial community could think of a lot of reasons for being bullish on Uncle Sam's future when the day was over.

Rub Their Eyes.

For the first few hours of the session indeed dealings were at such heavy proportions and on such a broad scope that old traders were rubbing their eyes and wondering if we were not on the verge of a real honest to goodness bull market—something like the joyous, long continued affair which collapsed with such a tremendous roar last autumn. The ticker was distanced more than half an hour which is unusual in a rising market, one big block after another

Not in the public eye

Companies whose names appear frequently on the front pages of newspapers and in the advertising columns of our publications are well known to the public. Their bonds are in demand, are actively traded in on the leading exchanges and are quoted in financial pages every day.

But there are many companies, not so well known, ably managed, with a long history of successful operation and with excellent prospects for the future whose bonds may be obtained at very attractive prices. Such bonds often present an opportunity to the shrewd investor.

6 to 6½% income from the bonds of well-managed American companies

We have available in moderate amounts, bonds of a few companies of the latter type which we have thoroughly investigated and recommend for investment. They yield from 6 to 6½%. We shall be glad to send details entirely without obligation. Write or phone us.

During forty-eight years' experience the Harris Organization has purchased and sold to banks, insurance companies, institutions and private investors over $8,000,000,000 of bonds.

GAINS ARE WELL DISTRIBUTED IN CHICAGO LIST

United Gas Shares Make Good Showing.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

The session on the Chicago exchange yesterday was an up and coming affair for the most part. The leaders for the market were recruited from no particular group. The close found the gains well distributed throughout the list.

United Gas was the big show among the utilities. The issue advanced 3 points to 42¾. Other utilities displayed a steady tone, but their gains were largely of the fractional class. Middle West on sales exceeding 38,000 shares was up a bare fraction, and Missouri Kansas Pipe line closed slightly higher.

Associated Telephone Utilities was up a fraction on fairly active trading. The company is offering today through a banking group an additional issue of $8,000,000 fifteen year 5½ per cent debentures, series C, at 100 and interest.

Prominent Automotive.

Allied Products was conspicuous among the automotive shares, rising 3 on a turnover approximating 4,000 shares. Borg was active and about a point higher while Bendix showed little change.

Investment issues perked up a bit. Bancokentucky was up over a point on news that the company has added to its holdings through affiliation of the First National bank of Paducah, Ky. Burnham advanced about a point and National Security allotment certificates closed up to 97. Merchants and Manufacturers A improved an even 2.

Grigsby finished the day at 18. Steinite and Wextark were slightly higher, the latter recovering a fraction following its precipitate drop on the previous day.

Await Audit.

Among the specialists Lane Drug fell a point to 2½. Directors will await completion of the audit of the firm's books before taking action on the preferred dividend due April 1, it was announced.

North American Car was firm but quiet. President T. R. Brigham yesterday reported to stockholders that estimated net income for 1929 was $765,000 after all charges, including taxes. This compares with $510,070 for 1928 and is equivalent after preferred dividends to $5.44 a share on the common stock outstanding during the year. The 1928 net was equivalent to $3.42 a share on the smaller number of shares then outstanding.

G. M. Brigham was elected to the board of directors to succeed Herman Wachmeister, resigned.

CHICAGO CURB MARKET

Reflecting the strength displayed by the gas issues generally, American Utilities featured yesterday's Chicago curb session in an advance to 12, with over 4,000 shares changing hands. Southern Natural Gas soared over 6 points, Southern Union hit a new peak above 21, and Arkansas Natural Gas common marked up its best price of the year. Ford Ltd. was outstanding in the general list in a gain of 1½ to a new high level above 19. Good gains were recorded by General Realty and Solvay.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, March 18.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw, declined 1-32c today under more liberal offerings of duty frees and only a limited demand. Uncertainty over conditions in Cuba, where the dissolution of the single selling agency is still being advocated, and the easier trend to the spot market were responsible for renewed selling in raw futures. Approximate sales, 43,200 tons. There were no sales in the No. 2 contract and final prices 1 to 2 points net lower. Closing prices follow:

Appalachian Gas Corporation

Convertible Six Per Cent Debentures

Dated March 1st, 1930 — Due March 1st, 1945

Principal and semi-annual interest (March 1st and September 1st) payable at the office of the Trustee. Coupon debentures in denominations of $1,000 and $500. Registerable as to principal. Redeemable as a whole or in part, upon thirty days' published notice, to and including September 1st, 1935, at 105 and accrued interest, the redemption premium decreasing one-half per cent during each year thereafter. Interest payable without deduction for that portion of any Federal Income Tax not in excess of two per cent. Refund of certain state taxes, upon timely and proper application as provided in the Trust Agreement. The Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Granting Annuities, Philadelphia, Trustee.

Subject to the terms of the Trust Agreement, each $1,000 Debenture of this issue is convertible at the option of the holder thereof, at any time prior to maturity or earlier redemption, into 100 shares of Common Stock of Appalachian Gas Corporation. Each $500 Debenture is similarly convertible into 50 shares of Common Stock.

The following information has been furnished by the Corporation:

Business: Appalachian Gas Corporation, through subsidiaries, supplies natural gas under long term contracts to public utility and industrial companies including United Fuel Gas Company (subsidiary of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation), Hope Natural Gas Company (subsidiary of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey), Owens-Illinois Glass Company and The Libbey-Owens Glass Company. Appalachian Gas Corporation owns more than 99 per cent of the common stock of Ohio Southern Gas Company, more than 91 per cent of the outstanding common stock of Wayne United Gas Company, more than 83 per cent of the outstanding common stock of Ohio Valley Gas Corporation, more than 59 per cent of the outstanding common stock of Ohio Kentucky Gas Company and a substantial interest in the common stock of Allegheny Gas Corporation. This group includes some of the most rapidly developing natural gas companies in the Appalachian field, in which field are located the extensive gas pipe line systems controlled by Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, Standard Gas & Electric Company and Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. These interconnected gas pipe line systems together represent the most extensive gas pipe line system serving the largest connected natural gas market in the United States.

Properties: The properties owned or controlled by the companies in the Appalachian Gas Corporation group are located in West Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio—in the heart of the Appalachian field. These properties include 372 gas wells, 313 miles of pipe lines, including gathering lines, and the gas rights in more than 200,000 acres of land, on over 160,000 acres of which the oil rights are also owned or controlled. The gas reserves of less than 50 per cent of the acreage have been reported to be approximately 125,000,000,000 cubic feet. Upon completion of this financing, Appalachian Gas Corporation will have in excess of $1,500,000 in cash to provide for extensions and developments to be made before the commencement of full operations, for the acquisition of additional properties and/or securities and for other corporate purposes.

Security: These Debentures will be a direct obligation of Appalachian Gas Corporation and will constitute its only funded indebtedness to be presently outstanding.

Earnings: Combined earnings of the companies in the Appalachian Gas Corporation group for the first year of full operation, as estimated by independent engineers, are:

Gross Revenues	$2,519,530
Annual Interest Requirements of this issue	$ 150,000

The outstanding funded indebtedness of the companies in the Appalachian Gas Corporation group amounts to $8,469,500, as of January 1st, 1930, exclusive of this issue, and there are certain purchase warrant and conversion privileges providing for the issuance of additional stock of the respective companies. Stock reserved for this purpose is not considered as outstanding stock in calculating the percentages set forth herein.

The above estimates do not include any earnings which may be derived from the future development of more than 100,000 acres in Kentucky and Ohio, nor do they take into account the acquisition of additional properties now under consideration. Other development plans, if consummated, should result in substantial earnings not included in the above estimates.

Management: Union Management and Engineering Corporation will supervise (under the direction of the respective boards of directors) the operations of all companies in the Appalachian Gas Corporation group. The operations of Memphis Natural Gas Company are under the same supervision.

Price 99 and Accrued Interest, to Yield about 6.10 Per Cent

Gas reserves and estimated earnings have been reported upon by Messrs. Brokaw, Dixon, Garner & McKee, Geologists and Engineers, New York City. Legal matters are under the supervision of Messrs. Chapman and Cutler, New York City, and Messrs. Koontz, Hurlbutt and Revercomb, Charleston, W. Va. Acreage figures, in the absence of surveys, are estimated. These Debentures are offered for delivery when, as and if issued, subject to the approval of counsel and acceptance by us. In the first instance, Temporary Debentures or interim receipts may be delivered pending the preparation of Definitive Debentures.

BANKING— A Personal Matter

Banking has to do with people even more than with money. When the heads of a business come in to talk about banking service, they want among other things the judgment of our officers. And we are guided as much by the character, ambition, and grit of those executives as by the progress of the organization they manage. That's why we called this "the people's bank." And never forget, it is still the people's bank in exactly this sense.

WALGREEN GETS STORE IN NEW "ONE LA SALLE"

Drug Rug Firm Leases on Upper Michigan.

BY AL CHASE.

Two interesting leases were the features of yesterday's realty market. Another loop drug store is announced for the ever growing chain of Walgreen establishments, which numbered 420 up to the time of going to press. No. 421 will be at 130-32 West Madison street, east of the corner, in the new One La Salle Street building. The lease is for a fifteen year term and gives the lessee space equal to two standard size stores of that building.

The other of yesterday's important leases was closed at 920 North Michigan avenue, at the southwest corner of Walton place. Cherkezian Bros., dealers in oriental rugs, who have their main Chicago store at 37 South Wabash avenue and their New York store at 230 Fifth avenue, have taken the entire first floor of No. 920 for an undisclosed term. The lessees will open their new Boul Mich shop about April 1. They will retain their loop store. Howard L. Storch of Ross & Bowne was broker.

Buys Winnetka Corner.

Franklin P. O'Brien has purchased the vacant northwest corner of Orchard lane and Myrtle street, in Winnetka, from Edwin D. Wheeler and Margaret Jenkinson. The property, which is 127x165, is to be improved with a residence which the owner will occupy. Henry F. Uhe of the Winnetka office of the E. E. Stults Realty company was broker.

Henry F. Hines of 2836 Cambridge avenue, vice president of the Weidlich Bros. Manufacturing company of New York, has purchased the residence at 1115 Lee street, Evanston, from Samuel I. and Lucille Russell. Ida B. Lascelles of Lascelles & Webster was broker.

Byron Street Deal

Albert and Tessie Grosby have sold the three apartment building at 1706 Byron street, lot 60x125, to Carl and Otillie Steinbach for a reported $30,000, subject to $18,000. The buyers have the southeast corner of Asbury and Lee, in Evanston, in part payment. Steinbach & Co. were brokers.

C. A. Pfingsten & Co., a newly organized corporation, has taken over the business of the National Property Management corporation. The new company, in addition to its management activities, will conduct a general real estate, appraisal, and financing business. Charles A. Pfingsten, for twenty years with the Greenebaum Sons Investment company, is president. Harold N. Rosenheim is vice president and Irving I. Shapiro is secretary and treasurer.

Gives Sons Tiny Part of Fee in Loop for Present

Elias S. Yondorf, mortgage banker, has given a present to his two sons Milton S. Yondorf Jr. and John David Yondorf, in the way of an undivided 4-62 interest in a part of the fee under the Steger building at the northwest corner of Wabash avenue and Jackson boulevard. The ground in question is the corner parcel, the greater part of which is owned by the estate of Joseph Horner, who was the grandfather of Joseph Horner, probate court judge.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, March 18.—(AP)—Cotton goods are firmer and more buying is being done. In the woolen goods division more orders are being placed on fall goods. Silk merchandise is in better call for cutting up purposes. Burlaps here are fairly steady, but labor troubles continue in Calcutta jute mills.

BUSINESS PERSONALS

At the annual meeting of the board of directors of John R. Thompson company, chain restaurant operators, Otto W. Lehman, formerly of the Fair store, was added to the board of directors and Vice President H. M. Henrikson was chosen as general manager.

Nathaway Watson, formerly vice president and treasurer of Federal Securities corporation, was elected a director of Borin-Vivitone corporation at the annual meeting yesterday.

Wade Tatzer, president of W. A. Alexander & Co., general insurance agents, announces that Harve G. Andrew, Chicago insurance man, one of the founders of Rockwood-Badger company and subsequently vice president of the Continental Casualty company, has become an associate of his organization.

Harry P. Russell, a member of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Russell, Miller & Co., having offices from New York to San Francisco and on leading Pacific coast points, was elected a member of the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday.

News and Gossip of Stock Marts

Front Wheel Drive.

On a percentage basis Moon motors ranks among the first of the "big board" stocks in the extent of its recovery from the lows of the year. Friends of the issue regard the front wheel drive as among the most revolutionary steps in the automobile industry in years. They also believe that the first in the field with the new innovation are likely to reap the biggest benefits.

Shows Promise.

Real Silk Hosiery Mills, Inc., promises to make another unusual showing in earnings this year. Sales are currently running at approximately 50 per cent ahead of last year. The annual report covering 1929 results, which was made public recently, showed $9.31 a share earned on the company's common stock, compared with $5.49 a share for the fifteen months ended Dec. 31, 1928.

Net Keeps Rising.

Sheaffer Pen has showed an increase in net per share for each of the past four years. Earnings for the fiscal year ended Feb. 28, 1930, amounted to $1,530,714, or $7.86 a share on the outstanding 194,700 no-par shares.

Business: The Associated Telephone Utilities Company, incorporated in Delaware in 1926, will upon completion of this financing, control through stock ownership or otherwise, groups of telephone properties serving a total population in excess of 3,431,400. These properties operate in 1,434 communities in the states of California, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming. They include 440,235 stations and constitute one of the largest groups of independent telephone properties in the United States. Through interconnections with the lines of the Bell Telephone Companies, the long distance toll lines of the Bell System are available to all subscribers. Of the total gross operating revenues, approximately 20.7% is derived from toll business.

Earnings: Consolidated earnings (including the earnings of all properties controlled and to be presently controlled) for the years ended December 31, 1927, 1928 and 1929, after giving effect to present financing, were as follows:

	YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31 1927	1928	1929
Operating expenses and taxes	7,272,100.49	7,388,774.56	7,950,218.64
Net earnings before depreciation	$ 5,787,772.82	$ 6,571,532.60	$ 7,139,049.33*
Operating companies annual bond interest and preferred stock dividend requirements			2,127,837.20
Earnings accruing to minority common stock interest			70,943.16
Balance			$ 4,940,268.97
Annual interest on entire funded debt of Associated Telephone Utilities Company (including this issue)			1,293,870.00
Balance available for reserves, federal taxes and dividends			$ 3,646,398.97

*Does not include any earnings on $3,241,000.00 of the amount to be provided through Common Stock of Associated Telephone Utilities Company to be presently sold.

Consolidated net earnings, as above set forth, for the year ended December 31, 1929 were more than 3.8 times the interest requirements on all the outstanding debentures of the Company (including this issue).

Equity: These debentures, totalling $23,573,000 of all series, take precedence as to assets and earnings over 45,035 shares of no par value Prior Preferred Stock, 50,000 shares of no par value Preferred Stock and 737,739 shares of no par value Common Stock. These securities, junior to the debentures, have a present market value in excess of $28,000,000. The replacement value of the operating properties, less depreciation, is substantially in excess of all funded indebtedness and preferred stocks of the operating companies and all funded indebtedness, Prior Preferred and Preferred Stock of this Company.

Conversion: Each $1,000 debenture, with all unmatured coupons attached, is convertible at the holder's option into Common Stock on the following terms: To and including May 1, 1932, into 33 shares of Common Stock; and thereafter to and including May 1, 1935, into 30 shares of Common Stock. Each $500 debenture is likewise convertible into Common Stock on the same proportionate basis. After May 1, 1935, all conversion rights cease.

Price 100 and Interest, to yield 5.50%

These debentures are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and accepted by us and subject to approval of counsel. The books and accounts of the corporation and its subsidiaries are audited annually by Arthur Andersen & Co., Certified Public Accountants, Chicago, and the accounts of the majority of the properties to be presently controlled have also been audited for the year 1929 by that firm.

$5,000,000

The Virginian Railway Company

First Mortgage Fifty-Year 4½% Gold Bonds, Series "B"

Dated May 1, 1912 — Due May 1, 1962

Interest payable May 1 and November 1, without deduction for Federal Normal Income Tax up to 2%. Series "B" Bonds are redeemable as a whole or in part at 102½ and interest on any interest date upon four weeks notice. Coupon Bonds, $1,000, $500 and $100. Registered Bonds $1,000 and authorized multiples. Coupon Bonds (except $100 denomination) registerable as to principal and interchangeable with fully Registered Bonds in lots of $1,000.

CITY BANK FARMERS TRUST COMPANY, NEW YORK, Trustee.

These Bonds are a legal investment for savings banks and trust funds in the States of New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and many other States.

Charles H. Hix, Esq., President of The Virginian Railway Company, has summarized his letter to us dated March 18, 1930, as follows:

These Bonds are secured by direct first mortgage on 504.58 miles of road, extending from Deepwater on the Kanawha river, W. Va., through the Pocahontas and New River coal fields, thence east to Sewall's Point on Hampton Roads (at Norfolk, Va.), and on all equipment owned, and on the equity in all equipment leased under trust agreements, by the Company. The Bonds are additionally secured by first collateral lien, through pledge of all the capital stock (except directors' shares) of the Virginian Terminal Railway Co., upon 525.25 acres of valuable water front and that Company's two steel coal loading piers and terminal property at Sewall's Point.

The proceeds from the sale of these Bonds will be used to reimburse the Company's treasury for capital expenditures already made.

There will be outstanding in the hands of the public a total of $60,344,000 Bonds of a total authorized amount of $75,000,000 issued under the terms of the first mortgage, consisting of $55,344,000 Series "A" 5% Bonds and this issue of $5,000,000 Series "B" 4½% Bonds.

The stability of the Virginian's earnings is indicated by the fact that for the nine years ended December 31, 1929, its gross income available for the payment of total interest charges averaged over 2½ times such charges, and in no single year was it less than twice. In 1929, the Company's net earnings available for dividends on its common stock were in excess of 13%.

Outstanding Series "A" Bonds of this issue are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and application will be made in due course to list these Series "B" Bonds.

We offer these bonds if, as and when issued by the Railway Company and received by us, subject to authorization by the Interstate Commerce Commission and to approval of our counsel. It is expected that delivery in the first instance will be made on or about April 2, 1930, in the form of interim receipts of The National City Company.

Price 97 and interest, to yield about 4.68%

WHEAT MARKET PRICES WORK UP IRREGULARLY

See Stabilizing Effects of U. S. Buying.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Wheat market continued to fluctuate in an erratic manner yesterday, with breaks running into a good class of buying, while the bulges bring in profit taking sales. Prices had a range of 1⅝@1⅞c for the day, with the finish at net gains of ⅛@⅜c, May being $1.07⅝@1.07⅞ and July $1.05⅝@1.05⅞.

Houses with eastern connections were good buyers of May early, absorbing the surplus in the pit, but there was no evidence of the government buying, and apparently the latter's efforts have resulted in considerable stabilization of the market.

The trade paid little attention to further rainfall in the southwest, and the general run of crop comments from the hard winter wheat belt were generally favorable, although some wheat is being plowed up in Harvey county, Kas., officially estimated at 10 to 20 per cent of the area seeded last fall.

Would Like Bull Market.

There is every indication that the average wheat trader would become decidedly bullish were there anything in the situation to warrant a major upward price movement, but so far all predictions as to the extent of the foreign demand have failed of materialization, and the outlook for the new crop has not changed sufficiently to induce any buying of consequence. Winnipeg closed ⅝c higher, and sales of Manitobas to Europe were finally estimated at only 200,000 to 300,000 bu. Indian crop is privately estimated at 336,000,000 bu, against 320,000,000 bu harvested last year.

Corn Market Strong.

Outside speculative interest in corn is steadily increasing, and with buying credited to local operators prices moved up 1@1½c from the early low to a new high on the present movement, May being up 6c from the inside figures of last week, and the finish was at the top with net gains of 1½@1⅞c, with May 83⅝@83¾c and July 84⅝c.

It is understood that charters have been made to take out around 1,250,000 bu cash corn from Chicago at the opening of lake navigation, or about 25 per cent of the total stock, and there has been persistent buying by the east the last few days, with 130,000 bu taken yesterday. Stocks in the east are small. Wet weather over the belt has put a stop to field work for several days.

TEXAS. TEXAS.

Here comes the QUEEN

Cheering throngs, the blare of bands, cavaliers on prancing steeds, a shout of "here comes the Queen!" ... this is San Antonio in April, when the famed Battle of Flowers is staged to commemorate the victory at San Jacinto, which made Texas a republic among world nations.

San Antonio's annual spring festival is a fairy tale come true...a lovely, young queen, crowned with pomp by knights of the Order of the Alamo and attended by duchesses and esquires from all parts of Texas, rules for a glorious day over a tumultuous populace bent solely on pleasure.

Take an Easter vacation and come south to San Antonio in time for this brilliant pageant. See for yourself a city 200 years young, where folks take time to really live! Here the romance of a stirring past gives an old world charm to a modern city, where 300,000 energetic people are busily engaged in building a still greater community.

For San Antonio is the mother city of a vast empire. It was no accident that her population increased 600% in three decades... that the number of manufacturing plants jumped 400% in the past ten years...that Uncle Sam is building here the largest military aviation establishment in the world. Sitting at the crossroads of nations for two centuries, favored by climate and natural resources, San Antonio's growth has been steady and sure.

Come see for yourself—run away from dull care—for spring is at high tide in San Antonio!

New Issue

City of Helsingfors
(FINLAND)
Thirty-Year 6½% External Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

To be dated April 1st 1930 — To mature April 1st 1960

Not redeemable for ten years except for sinking fund

Authorized and to be outstanding $8,000,000. Interest payable April 1st and October 1st. Coupon bonds in denomination of $1000. Principal and interest payable in New York City at the office of Brown Brothers & Co., Fiscal Agents for the Loan, in United States gold coin without deduction for Finnish taxes except in the case of Finnish owners. Cumulative sinking fund operating semi-annually calculated to be sufficient to retire entire issue by maturity through purchase at not exceeding 100 and interest or through redemption by lot at 100 and interest, the City reserving the right to deliver bonds to the sinking fund in lieu of cash. Redeemable as a whole or in part on April 1st 1940 or on any interest date thereafter on three weeks' notice at 100. J. Henry Schroder Trust Company, Authenticating Agent.

The following information has been received from Arthur Castren, Esq., President of the Finance Committee of the City of Helsingfors; having been transmitted in part by cable, it is subject to correction:

Helsingfors—Helsingfors, the capital of Finland, founded in the year 1550, is the largest city and the commercial, financial and industrial center of the Republic. Situated at the eastern end of the Baltic Sea on a large and one of the best protected harbors in the world, it is an important seaport and trade center of northern Europe. The total tonnage cleared through the Port of Helsingfors in 1929 amounted to 1,364,000 tons. Nearly one-half of the import trade and a substantial portion of the export trade of Finland passes through the Port of Helsingfors. The population of the City is approximately 235,000, which represents an increase of about 60% since 1910. The assessed valuation of real estate in Helsingfors amounts to approximately $174,600,000. Taxable income of the City's inhabitants in 1928 amounted to about $82,000,000.

Credit and Purpose of Issue—Helsingfors has always enjoyed high credit and its bonds sell in Finland on approximately as low a yield basis as those of the National Government. In the pre-war period the loans of the City carried rates of interest of 3½%, 4%, 4½% and 5%. The proceeds of the present issue will be used to pay off the entire floating debt of the City and to enlarge and improve the facilities of the Port of Helsingfors and to finance extensions of other City enterprises.

Security—The Thirty-Year 6½% External Sinking Fund Gold Bonds will constitute the direct obligations of the City of Helsingfors and will contain a covenant to the effect that if while any of these bonds are outstanding the City shall mortgage, pledge or otherwise specifically charge any of its assets or revenues to secure any loan external or internal contracted by it (other than purchase money obligations) the bonds of this issue shall be secured by such mortgage, pledge or charge equally and ratably with the other indebtedness thereby to be secured.

Debt—Total funded debt of the City of Helsingfors including present issue amounts to $20,733,000 which is about one-third the estimated value of City owned property. The major part of this debt was created for the acquisition and development of revenue producing assets such as electric power plants, gas works, harbor improvements and water works. After giving effect to the application of the proceeds of the present issue the City will have no floating debt. The City owns properties having an estimated value of $62,000,000 of which $51,800,000 consists of real estate and $6,900,000 of public utility properties which include a 40,000 H.P. electric light and power plant with an output in 1929 of 64,000,000 K.W.H., gas manufacturing plants with total capacity of 1,150,000,000 cu. ft. per annum and an output in 1929 of 720,730,000 cu. ft. and waterworks with maximum capacity of 5,800,000,000 gallons per annum and an output in 1929 of 3,100,000,000 gallons.

Net income of City from above public utility properties in 1929 was equivalent to twice annual interest requirement on total present funded debt of City including present issue.

Revenues and Expenditures—During the past six years revenues and expenditures were approximately as follows:

Year ended Dec. 31st	Revenues†	Expenditures (excluding Capital Investments)*	Year ended Dec. 31st	Revenues†	Expenditures (excluding Capital Investments)*
1924	$6,900,000	$6,260,000	1928	$11,920,000	$8,600,000
1925	7,570,000	6,710,000	1929	12,630,000	9,540,000
1926	8,840,000	7,400,000	1930 (budget)	13,000,000	10,650,000
1927	10,000,000	7,860,000

*In addition capital investments were made in the following amounts: 1924, $1,710,000; 1925, $2,320,000; 1926, $2,110,000; 1927, $2,280,000; 1928, $4,350,000; 1929, $4,970,000; 1930 (budget), $3,730,000. †Not including proceeds of loans.

In the foregoing Finmarks have been converted into dollars at par of exchange ($.025185 to the Finmark).

The City has agreed to apply for the listing of these bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

We offer the above bonds when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of our counsel, Messrs. Sullivan & Cromwell, New York, and of counsel in Finland. It is expected that delivery will be made in form of temporary bonds or interim receipts on or about April 7th 1930.

The foregoing is subject to the more complete information contained in our circular, copies of which may be obtained on request.

Price Advance Is General; Trading Lively.

But in the early afternoon pools began to sell on balance and individual traders to skim their profits. This halted the advance in most departments and resulted in a general ... up all around. Sharp recessions developed.

The offerings were readily absorbed for the most part, however, and the beginning of the last hour found the forward movement once more under way. Final prices were up one to five points all along the line.

Oils Lack Energy.

Only the oils failed as a group to share in the day's glory. They seemed unable to make much progress following their demonstrations of yesterday and the latter part of last week.

Allied Chemical infused strength into the chemical group with a spurt of some 7 points.

Local traction shares were the center of a good deal of activity, with sharp advances the rule in Interborough, Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit, and Manhattan Modified guaranteed shares. In circles ordinarily well posted on the trend of affairs in the local transit situation, the large scale demand for the traction shares proved rather puzzling.

Steel Holds Strength.

Continued strength in Steel on top of its sensational spurt of yesterday was accompanied by rumors of a possible extra dividend in consequence of the substantial tax refund recently allowed the corporation which left a balance of some $16,000,000 after provision for a credit against taxes due the corporation in its 1929 profits. At times the old line leaders was fairly buoyant but enough selling appeared during the late afternoon to carry it down from its high of the day. The closing sale was at 184½, a net gain of 1¼ on the day.

With the turn into the afternoon the best type of investment railway shares came into greater prominence under the leadership of Atchison, New York Central, and Pennsylvania. Advances ranging from 1 to around 6 points were the rule in that quarter of the list, with the buying movement in the carrier stocks developing as usual when it became apparent that industrial and other shares, which had been favored earlier, were evidently encountering greater resistance.

Chicago Curb Lists New Stock of United Gas Co.

The Chicago curb has admitted to listing on a when issued basis, with dealing to begin today, the new stock and warrants of United Gas. The basis of exchange will be 1½ shares of the new stock and ½ warrant for each share of the old. The warrants are a perpetual option to purchase one share of stock at $3 1-3. Warrants and new stock will be traded separately.

COTTON UP $7.50 BALE FROM RECENT LOW

Cotton markets have made a wonderful recovery from the recent low point with prices up around 140@155 points in the different markets, equal at the extreme to more than $7.50 a bale. The price of spot cotton in New York yesterday was 15.55, an advance of 50c per bale, equal to $2.50. Futures there were 21@54 points higher, the near delivery leading, while New Orleans gained 45 points on spots to 15.00c and futures 26@44 points. In Chicago net gains were 23@43 points, May leading. Houston was 15.65c and Galveston 15.70c.

New York reported that there was buying by coöperative agents which had a good influence. Liverpool was strong and closed 15@26c higher, on ... sales of 5,000 bales. The news was not particularly enthusiastic for the bull, but the selling pressure has become lighter and the market has responded more readily to fair buying. Prices follow:

MONEY FOR WATER

As part of its work of financing legitimate industry of every type, Commercial Credit is now developing a plan whereby funds will be provided for the manufacture and installation of complete water works systems. This will be of supreme importance to small and isolated municipalities and large industrial concerns who desire to control their own water supply.

Another example of Commercial Credit's important part in American progress and prosperity.

A Higher Net Return

From High-Grade Tax-Exempt Municipal Bonds

Important to investors is the fact that tax-exemption makes the net yield of high-grade Municipal Bonds greater than that received from industrial bonds of comparable character.

FINANCIAL NOTES

A banking group headed by Brown Bros. & Co. is offering today $8,000,000 City of Helsingfors, Finland, thirty year 6½ per cent external sinking fund bonds dated April 1, 1930 and to mature serially to April 1, 1960, at 95 and interest to yield about 6.90 per cent. Applications will be made for listing the bonds on the New York Stock exchange.

The Harris Trust and Savings bank [Chicago] is offering $500,000 Kansas City, Mo., 4½ per cent school bonds. The bonds are due serially Jan. 1, 1931, to 1950, and are being offered at prices to yield 4 per cent.

An investment banking group headed by P. W. Chapman & Co., Inc., and including Reilly, Brock & Co., and Hale Waters & Co., will offer today an issue of $2,500,000 Appalachian Gas corporation convertible 6 per cent debentures priced at 99 and accrued interest to yield about 6.10 per cent. The debentures are dated March 1, 1930, and mature March 1, 1945.

New security offerings scheduled for tody include an issue of $5,000,000 The Virginian Railway first mortgage fifty years 4½ per cent gold bonds, due May 1, 1962, and priced at 97 and interest, to yield about 4.68 per cent.

Plans for new financing are going forward rapidly. An $18,000,000 issue of Cleveland Union Terminal securities and an offering of Big Four railroad bonds, probably to the extent of $20,000,000, are among the issues expected soon.

We recommend purchase at the market for investment

Top yesterday, $10.90; average, $10.00.

Estimated receipts at Chicago today, 5,500 cattle, 12,000 hogs and 19,000 sheep.

Cattle and lambs were pounded to lower price levels yesterday, while gains were scored in hogs on both the cash and futures markets.

Shippers bought hogs freely at 5@10c advance, taking more than half of yesterday's fresh receipts. Local interests operated conservatively, but were forced to pay slightly higher prices, due to the shortage in the available supply. The extreme top reached $10.75, while the general average figured 10c above Monday at $9.90.

There was a good clearance of choice grades and only 4,000 were left at the close, with light supplies in sight for the immediate future. Five western markets expect only 40,000 today against 46,800 the previous Wednesday.

April and May light hogs sold freely at $10.40@10.50, showing mostly 10c advance, compared with Monday's close, while sales of September light were up fully 25c at $10.25. Trading in medium and heavy grades dragged all day, with offers and bids far apart in most instances, due largely to the drastic slashing of prices for these classes on the cash trade during the last few days.

Some March heavy grades sold at $9.55 and some April heavy brought $9.50. On the "to arrive" market light hogs for today's delivery were bid $10.60; medium grades, $10.00, and heavy grades, $9.50.

Abbreviated supplies failed to change the condition of the cattle market yesterday and further price cuts of 15@25c were recorded. Trading was extremely slow and unsatisfactory, buyers taking on only limited numbers at the decline in face of the small supply estimated for today. Well finished beeves were absent, although $13.65 obtained a load of good 1,250 lb averages.

Sheep receipts are running the largest on record for the time of year and with demand only moderate at leading distributing centers losses of 15@25c were general, with some closing sales off even more. Bulk of sales at $9.75@10.25 established a new low level for the year.

Johns-Manville Corp.

C. H. W.—Johns-Manville corporation, manufacturer of asbestos and magnesia products, asbestos packings, roofings, electric and auto specialties, felt insulating materials, etc., in 1929 experienced the best year in its history. Sales and earnings made new records, plants were enlarged and improved, and additional properties were acquired, thereby broadening and diversifying still further the corporation's output. In the first nine months of the year sales and profits were approximately 35 per cent ahead of the corresponding period in 1928, which was the best previous year.

Sales in 1929 totaled $61,994,884, against $47,945,559 in 1928, $44,313,702 in 1927, $45,042,326 in 1926, and $39,201,263 in 1925.

Net profit, after charges and federal taxes, was $6,591,916, against $5,589,398 in 1928, $4,108,159 in 1927, $4,856,033 in 1926, and $3,017,207 in 1925.

COMPARE VALUES BEFORE YOU BUY AN AUTOMOBILE

Low charges for distribution of the new Ford save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in making the car

THESE are days when every dollar counts. The period of reckless spending is over. People are going back to the good old-fashioned principles of thrift and economy. Value is again being carefully considered.

Nowhere is this more important than in the selection of an automobile. For the purchase of a car represents a considerable investment. It should not be decided on hurriedly, but only after analyzing every important factor that concerns cost, value and performance. The time to do this is before buying—not afterward when it is too late.

ON THE basis of cost, performance and the actual comparative worth of every part, the new Ford is a value far above the price you pay. It is made of better materials and with greater care and accuracy because of the recognized efficiency and economy of Ford manufacturing methods.

The value of these methods is known and understood by millions of people. It is not generally realized, however, that these same principles of efficiency and economy are applied also to every step in the distribution of the Ford car. The low cost of selling, financing time payments, etc., means a direct saving to you of at least $50 to $75 in addition to the money saved by Ford economies in making the car. Here are three reasons why this is so.

(1) The Ford dealer does business on a smaller margin of profit because of the greater number of cars he sells. His discount or commission is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference in your favor, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

(2) The Ford charges for financing are low.

(3) No expensive extra equipment is needed when you buy a Ford. It leaves the factory ready for use. The f.o.b. price includes a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield and an extra steel-spoke wheel, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes. Any accessories you may wish for your individual taste are sold considerably below the usual prices. None of these charges for selling, financing or accessories is marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

Get all the facts, therefore, before you buy and figure out just what you are getting for your automobile dollars. Go beyond the f.o.b. price and find out how much more you pay the dealer than the dealer pays at the factory. Analyze the used car allowance. Compare all charges—item for item—value for value.

WHEN you do this you will have a new appreciation of what the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers are doing to keep down the cost of Ford cars. You will also know why it is possible to put so much real value into the new Ford and still retain the low price. The money you pay goes for value in the car. It is not wasted in excessive costs in manufacturing or selling.

The Ace of Spades

By WILLIAM MACLEOD RAINE

SYNOPSIS.

Jim Rutledge, accompanied by Sim Hart, is sent out with a herd of cattle to fulfill a contract made by his father, Chandler Rutledge. On the trail they are overtaken by some men from the Moss outfit, enemies of Rutledge. The Moss men start a stampede and drive off some of the Rutledge cattle. Jim recovers them, but in doing so shoots and injures one of the Moss raiders. The men of the Moss outfit swear to be revenged for the injury and pursue Jim. Jim takes refuge in a ranch house, where he finds Ellen Lawson alone in the house. She hides him when the Moss men come to the house inquiring for him and sends them off on another trail, even though she learns that he has injured her brother. Jim rides on into the town, after saving Ellen from the unwelcome attentions of Pete Moss. Shear, the town marshal, decides to arrest him for the attack on Steve Lawson, but Harrison Pendleton, an old cattle driver, arrives on the scene in time to save him from arrest. Shortly afterwards Shear kills Doc Brown, who he claimed had threatened his life. This causes a great deal of excitement in the little cattle town. Jim goes into the local gambling den and is astonished to find Ellen Lawson there. She tells him she has come to speak to her brother Steve. As they reach the table the lights go out, and when the room is again lighted Shear is found crumpled in his chair dead, with Jim's knife in him. Ellen's right hand is covered with blood. She had become separated from Jim in the dark and some one had jostled her. In putting out her hand for support she had touched the crumpled figure. Jim and Ellen are questioned by the sheriff, Manders, and Jim is arrested, but is later released. Jim is determined to find the murderer to clear himself. Ellen arranges a meeting to warn him against Dave Moss, and Jim learns that Moss is trying to force her to marry his son Pete. He suggests that she marry him. They are quietly married and Jim goes on with his investigation.

INSTALLMENT XLV.

A SUMMONS.

Dr. Aubrey told a story his own way and could not be hurried.

"I found my opportunity this morning by sending the nurse out of the room for some hot water. My patient was reading the newspaper, though I can't say that he seemed to find much pleasure in it. His boots were at the foot of the bed. I observed that they had large feet with long pointed heels set well forward. From my bag I took the plaster cast labeled Exhibit I, and attempted to fit the sole of the boot into the depression. It would not fit at all. The boot is much narrower than the one that had made the print outside the Loughorn."

Jim's eyes sparkled with excitement. "Lets Sam out. Old Devil Dare killed Shear himself."

"Yes," breathed Ellen. "But can we prove it?"

"I'll follow his trail till we do," the young man promised himself. "Things are breaking our way at last. Wonder if the sheriff could arrange to have him come to the office while I was there."

"You let old Dave alone," Ellen said, smiling admonishment at her newly acquired husband. "He's a wolf, an' he'd just eat you up."

"I know I'm a lamb 'side of Devil Dave," Jim admitted. "Still, at that, I'd like to have a talk with him."

He was to have his wish before he was many hours older, under circumstances that were to send a shock of terror through his heart.

* * * * * *

Figures burned in the head of Jim Rutledge. They covered sheets of paper that littered the table. They floated from the end of a pencil in computations of addition, subtraction, and multiplication. For he was making up the accounts of the long trail drive, preparatory to sending his cowboys back to Texas.

A worn notebook with a record of daily expenses supplied the data for his bookkeeping. In it was set down all the money advanced to his riders for tobacco, books, socks, shirts, medicine, and night life remittances. The total for medicine was fifty cents, to buy pennyroyal for mosquitoes. The amount turned over to the boys for purposes of diversion ran to many hundred dollars.

He heard a knock on the front door. Ellen had gone with Mrs. Glen to a strawberry and cream church festival, leaving Jim alone to wrestle out his financial statement. He had been sitting where no shadow from the lighted lamp would betray his position to any foe outside. Now he moved lightly toward the hall, craned his head forward a few inches, and called, "Who's there?"

It was possible that a crash of bullets might answer his question and he preferred not to be in the line of them.

"Jimmie Bissell," a high boyish voice replied. "Got a note for you, if you're Mr. Rutledge."

"Who from?"

"From Miss Mamie Dugan."

"Anyone with you?"

"No, sir."

"Shove it under the door and wait there till I've read it. If it's all right, I've got a quarter for you," Jim told him.

He tiptoed forward, picked up the note, and retreated noiselessly to the light.

The envelope was pink and scented. Jim ripped it open and read:

"Befor Bridegroom, come quick to the cottonwoods south of the track. Do not fail me. I will speak with you, for one little minute, on my way to the Elkhorn tonight. The little jug is corked not so tight now. Me, I am not afraid of old Devil Dave. What can he do to me, who am the darling of the town? But come quick, my friend, oh, yes.

"Not yet have I found the Prince Around the Corner."

The note was not signed. It needed no name to tell the young man who the sender. The references to the little jug and to the prince around the corner could be known only to Mamie Dugan and himself.

The boy was not there. He had not waited for the promised tip. Why? He did not like that. A quarter is two bits, and even if Jimmie had been at the other end he would be glad to collect again. So would any small boy.

Jim had wanted to ask the lad a question or two. He would have been pleased to know that Mamie Dugan had given the note to the boy herself instead of that it had not been seen by anybody else since that time. Now he had to take this for granted.

Young Rutledge went back into the house and reread the message. Mamie had written it with fear knocking at her heart. That was plain, though she had tried to push the dread of it from her under a mask of gayety. She had wanted to tell, something that would incriminate Dave Moss or his son. That was written in the words of her note. But back of them lay a cry for help against forces sinister and threatening, too powerful for her to combat alone. She knew she was in peril, though she tried to laugh it away.

Then, of a sudden, Jim saw back of the written words on that trivial page, something at once curious and dreadful. The lines blurred, turned paper, something at once curious and dreadful. The lines blurred, turned into a web. From the depths there seemed to swim up a creature resembling a spider. Before his eyes it changed to a face of a human being, a face huge and distorted and malignant. For one instant he saw it before the vision vanished.

With swift economy of motion he made his preparations. He looked to his weapons. He wrote a two line note to Ellen, telling her where he was going, and pinned it to the back of the sofa.

Out of the back door he slipped, after having scanned closely the immediate vicinity. Dusk had given way to the growing darkness of night. Jim moved swiftly and warily. He crossed Front street, making a circuit to avoid the more lit parts of town. The railroad grade came to meet him out of the shadows, over to the left.

He was conscious of a growing excitement. There were both suspense and dread in the emotion that had set his heart beating fast. Some bell within rang a warning that the fateful hour was about to strike.

The vague shadows of the cottonwoods loomed ahead. His fingers rested on the handle of a revolver as he passed into them. There was no hesitation in his step. Precautions would not serve him now. Every tree was potential cover for an enemy.

Out of the darkness appeared her figure, an indistinct blur of white outlined hastily. Her dress, he thought. He drew a deep breath of relief, and his strides forward called softly her name.

She did not answer. She did not move toward him. There was a strange stillness in the way she stood. Again he spoke her name.

GASOLINE ALLEY — EVERYBODY OUT OF LUCK

Vatican Paper Hails Pope as Crusade Chief

Says Power of Prayer Will Influence Russia.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, March 18.—"Tomorrow's mass may be considered the inauguration of a veritable crusade," says the Vatican organ, Observatore Romano, tonight. "Once more the tomb of the fisherman, St. Peter, will be seen to have the power of stirring up and unifying the peoples of the world. The echoes of the solidarity of indignant protest from all parts of the civilized world, from men in all classes and faiths in response to the papal appeal, will afford a moving demonstration of this fact."

While Pope Pius' summons of the Roman Catholic world to prayer in expiation and protest of soviet religious persecutions was hailed here by Vatican authorities as having already had effect on Russian government authorities, nevertheless preparations went forth to make the services in St. Peter's a memorable one.

Gratification was expressed at the reports reaching here from Russia that the soviets have issued decrees forbidding mockery of religion, the closing of churches and persecution of the priests. It was pointed out that this shows the power of the pope's appeal to the conscience of the rest of the world, inasmuch as the soviets previously had announced they would inaugurate a new anti-religious campaign in reply to the pope's gesture.

However, Vatican officials said the declarations of the soviet government merit little confidence being placed in them and none can tell if the persecutions will not be shortly renewed.

Tomorrow's prayers and mass will be celebrated by the pope himself in St. Peter's with an enormous attendance anticipated. The most precious relics of St. Peter's will be displayed to add emphasis to the occasion. They include a portion of the true cross, St. Veronica's veil, with which Christ is alleged to have wiped his face as he was on the way to Calvary, and the centurion's lance which pierced his side.

Thirty-three diplomats accredited to the Vatican state will attend the service.

MOSCOW, March 18.—(AP)—An official announcement today said that fifty-six churches in Moscow and vicinity would be closed "upon demand of the people and public organizations." This is the largest number of churches ever closed by the soviet government at one time.

The announcement said that these churches would be converted into cultural and educational institutions, schools, workers' clubs, libraries, laboratories, museums, messrooms, and work shops.

Court Upsets Woman's $781,880 Plagiarism Case Against Morosco

New York, March 18.—(AP)—After years of litigation, Mrs. Grace A. Fendler two years ago was awarded $781,880 on her charge of plagiarism against Oliver Morosco, producer, and Richard Walton Tully, author of the play, "The Bird of Paradise," in a Supreme court decision which today was reversed in Albany by the Court of Appeals.

The suit, which was accompanied by several other legal actions, was based on allegations that the plot of Tully's play was taken in part from her unpublished book, entitled "In Hawaii."

Last August, when Tully was threatened with jail for contempt of court in failing to turn over to Mrs. Fendler all his contracts for royalties from the play, he said he had copyrighted his play in 1910, and that Mrs. Fendler did not copyright hers until 1916.

BEG YOUR PARDON

In Sunday's TRIBUNE, Mrs. Retta K. Martin, candidate for treasurer of DuPage county was erroneously designated as Democratic. She is Republican.

Attorney Barratt O'Hara says THE TRIBUNE was in error in reporting that Mrs. Genevieve O'Brien had come to the financial aid of Samuel Howard Dorr, convicted of the murder of Mrs. O'Brien's husband.

D. A. R. Hears Hoover Lauded as One of the Greater Presidents

Putting to herself the question: "What has President Hoover done during the last year?" Mrs. Florence P. Kahn, representative in congress from California, gave answer last night before the annual banquet of the Illinois chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Stevens hotel.

"I don't believe any President since Lincoln has been confronted with the serious questions that confronted Mr. Hoover when he took office," Mrs. Kahn told 400 delegates. "The country was in a quiescent state. Nothing had been done about the enforcement of prohibition, farm relief, nor had the navy parley in London begun.

"Unfortunately during the presidential campaign Mr. Hoover was a victim of his friends. They all promised so much for him, making him out a superman. He is not that. He's a superfine engineer. And he has been building the foundation on which we hope to see a superstructure rise. I believe the time has turned, and within the next few weeks we will see direct results of the policies Mr. Hoover has been carrying out."

She predicted the country will have a new tariff bill by June 15.

"In case any one tells you we aren't doing anything for our veterans of the world war, throw these figures at 'em," she continued. "The government is spending this year approximately $800,000,000 for veterans—more than it cost to run the government before the war. So far the appropriations for veterans have amounted to five billion dollars. By 1940 the total will reach a peak of 11 billions. When you think that from the year 1 to 1920 there hasn't elapsed one billion minutes, one can have some idea of the tremendous interest the government takes in its soldiers."

She warned against the communist propaganda which is being distributed in this country.

"There is one organization in this country to see through the efforts of the soviet government to undermine this land. That is the American Federation of Labor, which never has ceased to remind members of the dangerous attempts to tear down our government."

Crowd's Applause Is Cheap Reward, Bishop Asserts

The man who works only for the applause of the crowd will get a cheap reward, according to Bishop Granville G. Bennett of Duluth, the noonday Lenten preacher at the Garrick theater yesterday. The services all through lent are under the auspices of the Episcopal Church club of Chicago. Bishop Bennett pointed out that men of today try to get things done through committees and commissions.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

The Answers.

Mrs. Nettie I. Van Patten, 857 Cornelia avenue, outside saleswoman — That was a wonderful discovery in the wonderful age in which we are living. The discovery was due to previous mathematical calculations. However, the planet should be named after the young man who detected it on his photographic plate.

Jack Fenster, 3652 Flournoy street, jobber — The planet should be named after the photographer discovering it. Usually when anybody discovers something it is named for the discoverer. The young man deserves that honor as a reward to him and as an inspiration for others to continue research.

Mrs. Doris B. Jacobs, 7206 Jeffery avenue, personnel woman—I would name it Neptune's daughter. The planet Neptune was named after Neptune, the old mythical god of the sea. Both Neptune and the recently located planet were first predicted by mathematics, so, in more ways than one, they are related. Otherwise, they might call it Doris.

Carl Reimann, 6304 Cuyler avenue, waiter—Why not name it Arizona, in honor of the state and observatory discovering it. I have thought about that many times since first reading that a name is to be chosen. The name Arizona is pretty, too.

Miss Eva R. Obeler, 5522 Everett avenue, stenographer—That topic lies beyond the realm of my knowledge and experience. It has long been a desire of mine to look through one of the large telescopes stationed at one of the major universities. To me the heavens are a wonderful mystery. I would leave the naming of the new planet to those whose lives are dedicated to the study of things celestial.

The alumni of the Chicago Lying-In hospital and dispensary are to give a dinner dance this evening at the Stevens hotel. Dr. Henry Buxbaum is in charge of the arrangements.

U. of Missouri Board May Put President Out

Faculty Revolt Hinted by Kansas City Rabbi.

Columbia, Mo., March 18.—(AP)—Refusing to reopen the year sex questionnaire incident at the University of Missouri, but determined to proceed with an investigation of charges of unrest and academic interference at the school, members of the board of curators were in session here tonight. Apparently they are to settle the question of whether the resignation of Dr. Stratton D. Brooks as president will be asked.

After finishing an accumulation of routine business, the board called in deans of all the schools and some of the leading professors for a conference behind closed doors. What the various deans were questioned about was not divulged. Dr. Brooks was not present when the deans were questioned.

Rabbi Samuel S. Mayerberg and the Rev. L. M. Birkhead, both of Kansas City, who had been active in issuing statements condemning Dr. Brooks for his manner of dealing with the sex questionnaire episode, and also charging him with interference, were here today.

Rabbi Mayerberg, in a statement to newspapermen, said he knew of fourteen members of the faculty who would resign unless Dr. Brooks left the institution. He refused to divulge their names. The Rev. Mr. Birkhead said he had information that Dr. Brooks' resignation would be requested.

Included in the routine business of the morning was acceptance of the resignation of Dr. James Harvey Rogers, professor of economics in the university. Dr. Rogers announced his resignation several weeks ago with a letter in which he said there was unrest among the faculty because of administrative interference.

BY CHARLES COLLINS.

We said good-by to one Dean of Drama—William Gillette—at the Erlanger theater not later than last Saturday night, and now we are welcoming there another distinguished actor with an equal claim to the title—Otis Skinner. In fact, Mr. Skinner outranks Mr. Gillette; he is the active and reigning dean, while his predecessor is definitely emeritus. He is seventy-one years young; hale and happy; and thoroughly capable of resisting both the rigors and the raptures of his profession.

His play is easily remembered from its engagement here last spring. It was then "A Hundred Years Old"; it is now "Papa Juan," and under either name it is still the "Centenario" by the Quintero brothers, gracefully translated out of its Spanish by Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker. A gentle, tranquil comedy it is; a play that flows so quietly and sweetly that many a hurried dramatic critic, rushing to meet his midnight deadline, has said it was too slow for him. And yet, if it were a story of real life, it would be first page stuff—more so than many a murder-mystery melodrama. For it deals with the birthday party of a man who is putting one hundred years of life behind him. The début of a centenarian is always romantic.

The charm of the piece carries easily into its second year. It is a sentimental comedy that broods and smiles over life viewed in a dim perspective. It is unpretentious; it strikes no highbrow attitudes; and yet there is much mellow wisdom in it. Its old man of the hundred years has a habit of speaking like a sage. He's an ornate hidalgo, as stubborn in his ways as an Andalusian bull; he is vain about his status as a centenarian and inclined to domineer over his posterity. But as he arranges the affairs of his household in this slender story about his famous birthday party, he seems to be the inheritor of Confucius and all the other seers. His excellent Panama hat shelters the mind of a philosopher.

This character study is a striking addition to Mr. Skinner's long gallery of romantic costume figures. Papa Juan is exactly in this eminent actor's suave and graceful vein. If he had been in retirement for a term of years and had returned to say his farewell in this piece, we would be cheering and sentimentalizing about him. So here's a cheer for him now as he arrives in the routine practice of the art he has adorned for half a century more or less.

"Papa Juan" was richly staged and none of the freshness has worn off its colorful picture of a rich man's home in a small Andalusian town. There have been a few changes in the cast since its first engagement, but the performance has been held to its original level. The girl of the story is still played by the promising and pretty Mary Arbenz. In the rôle of the young man, who is to help Papa Juan get his wish for a great-great-grandchild, Donald Dillaway is an effective substitution for Hardie Albright.

Mr. Skinner will remain at the Erlanger only a fortnight. Then there will be an end of Deans of Acting at the Erlanger for a while. Howard Thurston, the magician, will follow with his black bag of tricks.

Five Chicagoland Girls Win Honors at Smith College

Five girls of Chicago and suburbs attending Smith college at Northampton, Mass., are among the 42 Smith girls elected to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, according to word from Northampton yesterday. Miss Elizabeth Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Perkins, was one of two members of the junior class to be so honored.

Among 41 members of the senior class elected were: Miss Marian Ofner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Ofner, 556 Arlington place; Miss Jocelyn Crane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber E. Crane, 19 East Ohio street; Miss Mary Louise Buell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Buell, 590 Washington avenue, Glencoe, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Osborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Osborn of Evanston.

Small Colleges May Ask Fund of 500 Million

Great Universities Called Overcrowded.

The urgent need of additional funds for 900 small colleges of this country was stressed at the opening meeting of a three day conference of representatives of liberal arts colleges last night at the Stevens hotel. The conference was called to consider the relation of the college of liberal arts to higher education and to set forth collectively the needs of such schools.

The educators today will take up the discussion of ways and means of raising the necessary funds so such smaller colleges may function efficiently toward the 1,000,000 students now attending them, and the increasing number expected in the next decade.

During today's meeting a plan made public last night by President Albert Norman Ward of Western Maryland college will be considered. Dr. Ward proposed a campaign to raise five hundred million dollars additional endowment funds for five hundred selected small colleges.

The liberal arts college movement has been spontaneous. The meeting here, which is attended by representatives of nearly 300 colleges, is an outgrowth of a recent meeting in Washington of the Association of American Colleges. It was there that Dr. Ward first made his suggestion for a concerted financial campaign.

Among the speakers at the banquet last night was Ray Lyman Wilbur, secretary of the interior, former president of Leland Stanford university, and Dr. Finley.

"Tens of millions of dollars have been spent in recent years to enlarge our already great universities," said Dr. John H. Finley, associate editor of the New York Times and former president of Knox college. "Ten millions more are being spent to keep the college of liberal arts from which they all sprang.

"But we need ten millions more to keep the hundreds of small independent colleges in their intellectual integrity and spiritual power in American life."

"Much of the strength that has come to higher education in the form of wealth, well paid faculties, and large student bodies has been concentrated in those universities and colleges under state or city auspices," Dr. Wilbur said. "Much of this money also has gone into the hands of a dozen or so of the privately endowed institutions.

"There are only 184 colleges with productive endowment of $1,000,000 or more. Of those, 162 are privately controlled. This means that there are nearly 900 struggling colleges in our country. The lot of the college unattached to the taxpayer is hard. It is now a survival race with the weaker colleges, straining to avoid the exit which is inevitable for many of them, encroached on as they are from below by the rising high school and junior college and so drawn from above into the university with its advanced work and professional schools."

Mr. Ward's plan contemplated reduction in the number of such smaller colleges and the strengthening of the survivors.

"There are between 700 and 800 colleges and universities in the country," he said. "In these schools are enrolled approximately 1,000,000 students and within the next decade there probably will be more than 1,500,000 students.

"About 250,000 students are enrolled in the state universities and the same number in the 100 highly endowed institutions. These schools have practically reached capacity enrollments.

"If 500 institutions could raise $500,000,000 they thus could establish their identity to function effectively, establishing an educational foundation.

"One man could not establish such a foundation, but 500 or 5,000 could. Such an attempt would be worth undertaking, for it is entirely possible of fulfillment. It might be that existing foundations working in co-ordination could administer such a fund. Or a great superfoundation including many foundations and large donors might be formed to carry forward the objectives of cultural education."

At the 159th convocation of the University of Chicago yesterday President Robert Maynard Hutchins conferred the degree of doctor of laws on Dr. Wilbur "in recognition of a record of distinguished accomplishment as a skillful physician, a progressive executive of a great university, and as a disinterested and courageous servant of the national government."

WOTTA LIFE! WOTTA LIFE!

Women Hold Political Power, They Are Told

"Now is the time for all good Democratic women to come to the aid of their party." That was the refrain Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming and vice president of the Democratic national committee, wove into her address yesterday at a luncheon in the Hotel Sherman. She spoke under the auspices of the Illinois Woman's Democratic Clubs.

And by coming to the aid of their party, Mrs. Ross emphasized, women will help build up a powerful organization to turn the vote to a Democratic congress—the party's best opportunity since 1918.

"The Democratic party must look to its women for educational work," Mrs. Ross continued. "One of the lessons learned in the last presidential campaign was that no party can hope to win an election without the support of the women's vote, which has the power to determine political contests. The men must woo the participation of women in their high councils and forget their prejudice against women in politics. We come in the spirit of wanting to serve."

Mrs. George Bass, first woman vice president of the national Democratic committee, described Woodrow Wilson's administration as the "golden days" for women in politics. She said that after a decade of woman's voice in politics she believed "we have not quite made good on the things we said we'd do."

She said the women will ask Illinois to redraft the primary so that a precinct committeeman and precinct committeewoman shall be elected and not appointed.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Conkey, national committeewoman of Illinois and President of the Illinois Women's Democratic club, introduced other speakers and guests, including Mrs. Julia Voorhees Johnson, vice chairman of the Democratic party in Illinois; Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, former Illinois national committeewoman, and Mrs. Gail H. Cavanaugh of Paw Paw, Mich.

High School Band of 300 Will Play Here on Monday

Three hundred young musicians, comprising the massed bands of Senn High school, Emerson High school of Gary, Ind., and Hammond High school, will play next Monday evening in the Auditorium theater with Commander John Philip Sousa conducting. The audience, for whom the performance was arranged, will be the thousands of school music supervisors who will be in Chicago next week for the second biennial meeting of the Music Supervisors' national conference at the Stevens hotel.

Edna Vognild Shows Fine Paintings During Exhibition at Revell's

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The All-Illinois society of the Fine Arts has followed the charming exhibit of paintings of children by Adam Amory Albright in the Revell galleries with an exhibition, which opened this week, of paintings in various mediums and of all sizes by Edna Vognild and Robert Kilbert. The walls sparkle with fresh and cheerful pictures. One need feel no awe in facing them; they are friendly little paintings, unpretentious, spirited, summery, and charming. Another practical point in their favor, if some one is looking for a touch of color for a sun porch or overmantel or child's room, there are a number here which would serve and they are not expensive.

Edna Vognild shows a group of exquisite pastels. Her portrait of Edwin Johnson is one of the best things in the exhibit. It is a splendid portrait and without knowing Mr. Johnson you feel the fineness of his character and the strength of his will. It is an unusually successful pastel. Among the other pastels "Belba Lee" and "Doris" stand out and the portraits of the sinuous white Persian cat and the smug Boston terrier are captivating.

Edna Vognild offers amusing moments in her "The Cat and the Canary" and "The Referee." Any one who has ever owned a canary will look long before tearing herself away from the saucy yellow mite perched on the head of the stalwart lion. In her larger canvases the artist maintains her cheerful point of view and the sparkle of her color. Among the most delightful are "Baby," "Gloucester Harbor," "The White Sail," "The Sunlit Prow," and "February Afternoon."

Robert Kilbert has a less diversified show. His paintings are chiefly landscapes from Berrien county, Michigan. The most dramatic and the one that stays by you the longest is, perhaps, "The Last Load," two tired horses against a background of sand, and water, and sky, beautifully misted, almost transparent. One waits for beauty to break through. The same touch of magic is in "Witching Waves." A more sullen beauty lowers in "After the Storm." For the rest those which may satisfy you best are "Treasure Fields," "Reflections," "The Rippling Brook," "Early Morning," "Vistas of the Sea," and "A Sandy Road."

The exhibition will continue through March.

Will Discuss Advertising.

Ralph Star Butler, vice president in charge of advertising of the General Foods corporation, will be the principal speaker at a dinner of Kappa Alpha Lambda, professional advertising fraternity with headquarters at Northwestern university, at the Pearson hotel tomorrow. Among the guests at the speaker's table will be Dr. Walter Dill Scott, president of the Northwestern university.

Doris Thinks Sweet Disposition Is Vital to Happy Marriage

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"There seems to be no place in the world for a good, moral, married woman, any more," cries Mrs. B. W.

At which point we must interrupt to remark that there are just any number of places for good married women. They are in fine demand.

When trouble arises in a domestic menage the wife's first wail is about the dearth of appreciation of morality in women. Instead of confronting the situation between themselves and their husbands, women do go in heavily for the well known dramatics about their stout morality.

Being a good, moral, married woman is not anything to brag about. It is a common virtue. It does not set one woman apart from her married sisters. It is expected that if a woman gives her promise to honor a man she will keep her vow. And the married woods are simply full of wives who never reckon that they are doing more than their simple duty by staying true to their mates.

Even though a husband may go on a rampage with other women, woman's remaining true to her own good self is still not any more than is expected of her. So, when a mate is discovered to be disloyal, women really ough to shed that defense of theirs. The fact is that the wandering type of male would not remain true, anyway, if his wife were not a good, moral, married woman, so that the question of the wife's morality honestly has little to do with the sort of domestic problem that provokes the oft heard wail. The trouble with it, when a hectic problem has to be faced, is that it blinds the judgment that is needed at the moment for action of one kind or another.

There are women who could say quite honestly that they had never committed an infraction against the commandment regulating faithfulness, but who, nevertheless, might be perfect demons to live with. That's what the woman has to get at. What is wrong with her disposition? Why does Hank, or Bill, or Jimmy seek the companionship of other women?

Maybe there is nothing to be said against the disposition. Maybe a woman just happens to draw a man who couldn't stay true to one woman. Being a good, moral, married woman is a virtue, understand, but the complicated relationship of a man and woman thrown together in marriage calls for goodness plus livable traits and lovable traits.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

He Is Indifferent.

"Dear Miss Blake: The boy I love doesn't pay any attention to me. How can I win him? ALICE."

Such indifference doesn't warrant any further effort on your part, Alice. 'Twould be in vain.

A Card Is Sufficient.

"Dear Miss Blake: I have gone with a fellow for a few months. His birthday is soon. Would you advise me to give him a gift? ROSE."

Jeanette Dixon Will Be Married in Monroe, Mich.

BY THALIA

She arrived primarily to attend, with about 30 other members of the Silver-Pierce-Hellyer-Faurot clans, the wedding of Miss Jeanette Sterling Dixon to her nephew, George Morrill Silverthorne Jr. That ceremony will take place on Saturday at Monroe, Mich. The family delegation will go to Monroe for the ceremony, to take place at the Trinity Episcopal church, and the wedding reception to be given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Dixon, at their residence.

Mrs. Liddell comes from New York city. There she has been seeing her daughter, Mrs. Robert Bremner, leave for England. After her visit with her brother-in-law and sister, the George M. Silverthornes, she will go to England herself. She will spend the summer at her place in Scotland. When Mrs. Henry Faurot Jr. and her two youngest children leave in June for a summer in France Mrs. Silverthorne will accompany them as far as England. Mrs. Faurot plans to be at Lac Annecy in the French Alps for part of her stay and in Normandy for the remainder. The oldest Faurot boy, Henry Jr., is to be at camp in Connecticut, and Mr. Faurot probably will be out in Wheaton.

Among the more memorable experiences of the wives of the delegates to the naval parley in England was the reception and tea party given at Buckingham palace, with individual chats with the queen.

Her majesty appeared in the doorway of a room adjoining her private apartments, with the earl of Cromer, her lord chamberlain, who made the presentations. With her also were the duchess of Devonshire, mistress of the robes, and the dowager countess of Airlie.

Mrs. Charles G. Dawes as wife of the American ambassador, was the first woman to be presented. The social affairs also included a tea party at the house of commons, and a reception at the Turkish embassy that was attended by all London society, as well as the conference delegates.

The Woman's Athletic club is having a swimming contest this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The program will include events entitled follow the leader, pigeon race, 20 yards free style, fancy swimming, 20 feet free style (little flounders), a balloon race, an obstacle race, and fancy diving. Mrs. William Nelson Pelouze, Mrs. Harry B. Clow, and Mrs. William Sherman Hay are to be honorary judges.

Mr. and Mrs. Press Hodgkins of 109 Lake Shore drive are to be congratulated upon the birth of a son yesterday at the Presbyterian hospital. Mrs. Hodgkins is the former Miss Louise Carr.

Mrs. Robert T. Newberry of the Ambassador hotel has returned from a sojourn in Arizona.

Miss Betty McNair is going to take time off from her trousseau collecting and wedding planning activities for a jaunt to Bermuda with her father, Frank McNair, and her younger sister, Carolyn, who is at school at Pine Manor. They leave next week and will be gone until the middle of April. Miss McNair and Frank S. Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Sims of 111 Bellevue place, are to be married on June 25, and by the time the bride to be returns from her little holiday she will have most of the details decided.

Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher Hoyt of 1406 North State street will give a dinner party this evening at their residence, after taking their guests to the annual music festival of the Chicago senior high school students at Orchestra hall.

Mrs. Hubert Burnham of Evanston will open her residence tomorrow afternoon for a reception to be given by the L'Alliance Française for M. Francis Bruno Averardi. M. Averardi is to speak on the works of Mme. de Bonigne.

The American Opera society has issued invitations for a program by William Lester, who is to present excerpts from his setting of Francis Neilson's libretto "Manaboso" on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Fortnightly.

MISS BETTY BOYD.
[Koehne Photo.]

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Wilmer Boyd of 1419 Jarvis avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to James Dority West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James West of Toledo, O. Miss Boyd is a graduate of Ferry hall and a senior at Northwestern university, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. West was graduated from Hackley school and from the University of Michigan. He is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity. The wedding will take place in the fall.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., March 18.—Mrs. Robert P. Lamont and Miss Gertrude Lamont, who have made a week's visit in New York, guests of Mrs. Belknap, formerly Miss Lamont, returned to their Washington home last night. Mrs. Belknap will join them here the end of the week for a short visit.

The new British ambassador, Sir Roland Lindsay, and Lady Lindsay arrived in New York today and came at once to Washington. They will be at the Mayflower for some time. The new embassy is not yet ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Isham of New York are making a short stay here and have taken an apartment at Wardman Park hotel. Mr. Isham is a great-grandson of President Abraham Lincoln. His mother, the widow of Charles Isham of New York, has taken up her residence in Georgetown in a wing of the fine old home of her mother, Mrs. Robert Todd Lincoln, which the elder Mrs. Lincoln built for her daughter during the autumn.

Mrs. John Jacob Schreiner of Chicago and her niece, Miss Laura Schreiner of New York, spent the week-end in Washington at the Mayflower en route to Virginia.

BY THE REV. JOHN EVANS.

One hundred bishops of the American Episcopal church will meet Tuesday, March 25, at St. James cathedral, Cass and Huron streets, to honor the memory of Bishop Charles Palmerston Anderson of Chicago and late primate of that church. On the day following the bishops will assemble to elect a presiding bishop to succeed Bishop Anderson.

The Anderson memorial service announced for the evening of March 25 will include a memorial sermon by the Rt. Rev. Ernest M. Stires, bishop of Long Island and former rector of Grace church.

The formal sessions of the house of bishops to elect a primate will follow a service of holy communion at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning.

This will be the first meeting of the house of bishops at Chicago in 13 years. At least a majority of the 150 bishops of the church must be present before the meeting may be formally opened. Chicago clergy generally are said to favor the election of the Rt. Rev. Hugh L. Burleson of South Dakota.

According to observers, other candidates will likely be put into the field. Among them are Bishop James E. Freeman of Washington, D. C., who has been announced to speak next Sunday night at the Sunday Evening club, Orchestra hall; the Rt. Rev. James D. Perry, bishop of Rhode Island; Bishop Stires of Long Island, and others. The Church Club of Chicago will be host to the bishops at a luncheon next Wednesday noon at the Drake hotel.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, March 18.—Miss Henrietta Stockton Hall, daughter of Col. Chalmers Gaither Hall, U. S. A., and Mrs. Hall of Rutherford, N. J., will be married to Arthur Lucian Walker Jr. of this city on May 7 in St. James' church.

Mrs. William A. Barstow and her twin daughters, the Misses Lois and Theodora Barstow, will return Thursday from Bermuda, where they have been for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald W. Rives gave a dinner at the Plaza last night for Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Child.

Mr. Philip M. Chancellor returned from Santa Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas and Miss Naomi Douglas have returned from the south.

Katherine Hamilton Displays Ability in Her Violin Recital

By appearing at Kimball hall last night, Katherine Hamilton added her name to those who have given violin recitals in Chicago. She is young and apparently talented. Playing works of such major dimensions as the Vitali-Charlier Chaconne and the d'Ambrosio Concerto in B minor, as well as two groups of shorter pieces, she displayed a firm tone of good quality, considerable dramatic sympathies, and an intonation which was generally if not invariably true to pitch. She was warmly greeted by her audience. Pauline Manchester was the accompanist.

Two changes from previous announcements will be made in the program of the Chicago Symphony orchestra for the Friday afternoon and Saturday evening concerts. In place of Max Roger's "Romantic Suite," his "Four Tone Poems" will be played, and instead of selections from Berlioz's "Damnation of Faust," Maurice Ravel's "Bolero." Both substitutions will be first performances in Chicago. The "Bolero" has been the subject of unusual acclaim when played in other cities.

The program will hold to its original plan of beginning with Bloch's "Concerto Grosso," and presenting the Chicago pianist, Grace Nelson, as soloist. She will play the MacDowell Concerto in D minor and the Pick-Mangiagalli "Sortilegi."

Albert Goldberg will lecture on Wagner at the Jewish People's institute tonight. He will be assisted by Jane Abercrombie and Claudia Holt-Uihlein, sopranos, and Hugh Dickerson, bass-baritone.

Rival Beauties Claim Trip to Rio as Girl from Yankeeland

HAVANA, March 18.—(AP)—Two participants in the recent beauty contest at Miami, Fla., today are disputing over the question, "Who will represent the United States in the international beauty pageant at Rio de Janeiro next September?"

Miss Beatrice Lee, 17 year old blonde from Salt Lake City, was "Miss Utah" at Miami.

They are the rivals. The former says the title of "America's sweetheart" had as one of the prizes the trip to Rio.

However, Gaston Andrade, manager of the Latin-America division of the Miami show, said he had full authority from the South American pageant officials to select any one he chooses to represent the United States, and his selection is "Miss Utah."

So the battle rages, with the $10,000 Rio prize at stake.

CONAN DOYLE CALLS BRITISH SOCIETY FOE OF SPIRITISM; RESIGNS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, March 18.—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes, who stopped writing detective stories in order to give his time to explorations in the world of spirits, resigned today from the Society for Psychical research after 36 years of active membership. He quit following a sharp clash of the views of himself and his fellow members.

Describing the society's works as "evil influence and anti-spiritualist," and declaring it had not done "constructive work of any importance for more than a generation," Sir Arthur sent a snappy letter with his resignation to Sir Lawrence Jones, chairman of the society's council. He urged other members to follow his course.

According to the psychical society's explanation, the misunderstanding has arisen because of the divergent aims of Conan Doyle, who believed in a "spiritualist cult," while the society was founded solely for the purpose of "critical investigation."

The specific cause for the famous spiritualist's resignation was an article by Theodore Besterman, which was printed in the society's magazine criticizing the sittings of an Italian medium, Millesimo.

Replying to Sir Arthur's objections, the society's secretary said Sir Arthur approves of sittings in complete darkness, without examination of those present, during which phenomena are produced which cannot be produced during controlled sittings. The society refuses to accept such results.

Sir Arthur declared today that his resignation is a private affair and refused to discuss it.

Speeches and Poems Depict Chicago as Future City Beautiful

A sort of love feast, with Chicago as its object, was held yesterday by the Women's Chicago Beautiful association in the Hotel Sherman. Speeches were made and poems recited in which the glories of the city were detailed.

The luncheon opened an appeal for 5,000 additional members of the organization. Mrs. Edward R. Fifield, who presided, urged the women members to carry on propaganda praising Chicago's virtues to counteract stories of violent crime. Mrs. William Westerlund, president, also urged the beautification of Chicago's name as well as its physiognomy.

Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce, said that the civic pride of Chicagoans had been aroused and that they now were going at the root of the crime evil and were bent on stopping it at its source.

Five Japanese Girls to Thank U. S. for Earthquake Relief

YOKOHAMA, March 18.—(AP)—Five Japanese girls, "envoys of gratitude," going to thank the American people for their relief contributions at the time of the great Tokio earthquake in 1923, sailed today on the steamship President Pierce. They are due in San Francisco April 2.

The young women are the Misses Yoshiko Matsudaira, Yoshiko Sato, Sumiro Tokuta, Kimiko Ashino, and Keiko Nakamura. Miss Nakamura was added to the delegation to represent reconstructed Yokohama. The others are representatives of Tokio.

Movie Directors say: "Lovely Skin"

"The one thing which is universally alluring is smooth, velvety skin," say 45 of Hollywood's most famous directors. "To a screen star it is invaluable for the public takes to its heart only those whose skin shows flawlessly smooth in the close-up."

Ruth Elder

Hollywood has long been aware of the great appeal beautiful skin has to the emotions. For years 9 out of 10 screen stars have been relying on Lux Toilet Soap to give their skin the lovely smoothness the public demands.

Ruth Elder's beauty and daring have made her famous. She is now under contract to Hoot Gibson and her lovely skin passes the severe test of the close-up easily. "Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin so wonderfully smooth," she explains.

Betty Francisco

Delightful Kathryn Crawford states: "I always use Lux Toilet Soap." No wonder it is the official soap in all the great studio dressing rooms.

Simple Stunt of Stretching Makes You Seem Taller

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Do you know that you can stretch yourself up to look an inch or more taller?

If you believe that the 1930 silhouette calls for height, why not go in for a few stretching exercises each day. They are easy exercises to take and you can do them almost anywhere.

I am not convinced that the stretching actually adds inches to your frame, but the elastic quality of muscle gained gives the impression of height. Physical instructors contend that inches can be added, but once the bony framework is set you have a hard time pulling it out another inch. Before full growth is maintained it might be quite possible.

Professional dancers, as a rule, give the impression of height when frequently they are of average or less than average height. The illusion is lent by the resiliency of the muscles and the long stretched leg and arm. Stretching the arms up over the head pulls the waistline muscles, refining the waist, it in turn adding to the illusion of divinely tall slimness.

Anyway, in the new code of muscle training you are asked to stretch and stretch. If you think that sounds silly you are invited to run out to the zoo and watch some of the animals out there get in their daily dozen in their limited playground space. They stretch. Or, you can take a tip from your own domestic pet, Sinbad, the cat, or from your Airedale, chow or collie, who, when they have a large business of meal hunting to attend, get ready with a few good stretches.

Stretch before you get out of bed in the morning. Stretch the legs, the arms, the torso. Stretch during the day—arms high over head. Walk around a few turns on the toes, stretching up full height and taller. Put a marker on the wall high up and try to reach it with your hands. It will make you conscious of the need of exercise, of more air in your lungs, and of the height you might be if you pulled yourself upright.

Then, when you are at it, stretch down and touch your toes—just to give more pull on the waistline muscles, for you will want the waist trimmed down to produce the tall illusion.

FARM AND GARDEN BY PAUL POTTER

Smudges that fill the country skies these sunny spring days are beacons that point out the farmers who have failed to realize the value of home grown humus which nature intended for its prairie soils.

State agricultural experiment stations of the middle west have for years been conducting studies of the value of vegetation from farm crops as an agricultural by-product. Their reports indicate a difference of opinion as to the value of plowing under or burning corn stalks and straw piles.

Some stations report the fact that the root systems and weeds remaining in the fields are sufficient humus for the average corn belt soil when properly fertilized otherwise. The newer school of thought maintains that view, with the added declaration that valuable nitrogen in the soil is taken up in converting this vegetation into organic humus.

But the prevailing agricultural interests still are of the opinion that all possible plant food should be returned to the soil. This they declare is because prairie lands were built up over centuries to their pioneer fertility by such natural decaying of plant life.

The practical farmer conserves every possible means of maintaining this rapidly depleting virgin soil condition. He realizes the actual cash value of every square foot of plant food that can be plowed under on the field instead of having to buy it to replace that which is carelessly burned off. He is the farmer who raises bumper crops on the same acres that his neighbor farms, yet has handicapped by setting fire to valuable plant food material in the form of grasses or corn stalks.

Baby Blue for Adults Chaperoned by Black

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS.—[Special Correspondence.]—Paris is a heavy lover of those pretty baby blues that come out of the cradle. There is scarcely a minute in the fashionable day when the Paris couturiers can bear to be separated from baby blue. Simple morning and sports clothes are made in this color, and all the other types of costume, right down through the day and far into the night, adopt it.

Of course, baby blue is too young and too delicate to be allowed out in daylight to wander the city streets alone. It is usually chaperoned by some sober shade like navy or black, or by one of those strong, vital colors like dahlia or green. In sporting circles of fashion it is matched with white.

French fabric makers tell me that they cannot turn out pastel colored woolens and silks fast enough to supply the fashionable run on them, and that baby blue is a high favorite.

Callot Soeurs uses light blue wool shantung for the daytime ensemble shown in our sketch. The long coat of this material is lined with black shantung. A half cape, lined with black shantung, covers the right shoulder and upper arm, and is also lined with black shantung. The white shantung blouse of the one piece dress is joined to the blue skirt by a wide band of black, beginning under the left arm and extending to the waistline at the right side, where it meets a white patch and button.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S OR MISS' DRESS.

The beautifully molded bodice of this smart dress has inverted tucks at the front that take away some of the severity of the long line, and the curved seaming of the skirt and bodice, showing a downard tendency at the back, aid in giving the idea of slenderness. The circular flaring skirt shows dipping sides, and the dress is suitable for any formal daytime occasion. Any of the crêpes, chiffon or georgette will make up beautifully.

The pattern, No. 3244, comes in sizes 16 and 18 years and 36, 38, 40, and 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3⅞ yards of 39 inch material.

An Odd Drink.

Is used to be quite absent-minded. One time I was at a wild duck dinner and everything was going off nicely. Suddenly I was horror stricken to find I was pouring a ladleful of gravy into my coffee. The worst of it was that I didn't know how much I had already put in, so I did the only thing I could think of. I stirred it up and drank it.

Then I glanced quickly around, hoping no one had seen me. Luck was against me, as nearly every face had a most amused expression on it. The duck gravy was good but next time I decided to put it in the right place.

The best recommendation a medicine can have is the word of those who know what this medicine has done. Read, then, the words of Miss Anna Marie Erst, 6623 Newgard Avenue, Chicago.

"I have been in high school for the past three years and have always headed my class. But I worked so hard that I became in a highly nervous condition. My condition run down and then I became constipated. A friend of my father's who had taken Konjola and who knew of my condition advised me to take Konjola. What a surprise it gave me! I am able to carry on my work at school and am still at the head of my class, thanks to Konjola."

You needn't risk health or comfort

Women can now select the same sanitary protection that 85% of America's leading hospitals prefer

YOUR health, your nerves, your vitality suffer if the proper health protection is not observed at certain times. And one of the most important safeguards to health is the right sanitary protection.

Let hospitals guide you

Now you can let hospitals guide you in your choice of sanitary protection, because 85% of them, the great outstanding hospitals of America, today use the very same material of which Kotex is made! This is Cellucotton (not cotton) absorbent wadding . . . a cellulose substance which, for sanitary purposes, performs the same sanitary function as the finest cotton, but with five times the absorbency.

Think what this means! It means that they have found Kotex absorbent more efficient, more comfortable for their patients, just as you will find Kotex more comfortable for regular use.

The layers upon layers of Cellucotton remove the moisture quickly from the surface, and keep it comfortable, safe, dainty.

The fact that Kotex deodorizes is another aid to daintiness. And—the first reason that many women began using Kotex: it is disposable, instantly and completely. That alone is enough to have changed the hygienic habits of women all over the world.

Kotex Company, Chicago, Ill.

KOTEX IS SOFT . . .

1—Not a deceptive softness, that soon packs into chafing hardness. But a delicate, fleecy softness that lasts for hours.

Regular Kotex—45c for 12
Kotex Super-Size—65c for 12

RADIO INVENTOR PREDICTS HOME TALKIES BY 1931

De Forest Arrives for 5 Day Visit in City.

Dr. Lee De Forest, radio pioneer, whose invention, the electron tube, has been adapted to thirty different uses, arrived in Chicago yesterday for a five day visit. He will address scientific groups and technical schools during his stay and will be the principal speaker at a luncheon today commemorating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of Mandel Brothers store.

Now investigating in the field of sound pictures, Dr. De Forest predicted that in 1931 his "phonofilm," or talking picture apparatus for the home, will be perfected and on the market. The device, he said, makes use of the same principle as that which be evolved in the invention of theater "talkies," but on a much smaller scale.

Operation to Be Simple.

The projector and phonofilm apparatus will be placed on the market for less than $350, Dr. De Forest said, and will be as simple to operate as is the home motion picture machine.

Speaking of the talkies, Dr. De Forest believes "the sound engineers didn't do a particularly creditable job with them. There was too mad a race to get a product on the market first, which accounts for the apparent imperfections."

These imperfections, he said, can be overcome by careful operation of the machines and proper acoustics.

"In another year," he added, "every movie theater in the country will be wired for sound pictures, and I believe the home provides the same broad field for the phonofilm."

Television, Dr. De Forest believes, will come into universal use during 1930. Two stations in the east are already in a position to broadcast sound and pictures for those who have apparatus, he said, and more will be added as the apparatus is further distributed. It will be sold for about $150, he said.

Optimistic on Radio's Future.

For the future of radio, Dr. De Forest is optimistic, predicting lower prices as the result of the development of the screen grid tubes which are sold for a price considerably lower than those formerly used.

More than 100 business leaders will hear Dr. De Forest speak at a luncheon today when he will demonstrate, with apparatus, the history of sound pictures and will exhibit his film which records a "Gallery of Immortals," composed of talking pictures of Chauncey M. Depew, former President Eliot of Harvard, Dr. Frank Crane, and former Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, all of whom have died.

This morning Dr. De Forest will address students at Lewis institute, where he once conducted experiments. Tomorrow he will address the faculty of physics at the University of Chicago. He plans to leave for his home in New York either Saturday night or Sunday.

Police Station Lodger Ends Life Under Train

An unidentified man about 30 years old, who earlier in the evening had been given lodging in the Bellwood police station, stepped in the path of a train of the Maywood-Westchester branch of the Chicago Rapid Transit line near 25th avenue in Bellwood last night and was killed. He was believed to have committed suicide.

BRITISH TROOPS ESCAPE TRAP.

NEW DELHI, March 18.—(AP)—A small party of militia, reported to have been surrounded by tribesmen in the Suleiman country on the northwest frontier, has returned to its station. The party was able to leave without any fighting developing.

Indian Chief Is Feature of Radio Evening

Chippewa Tenor Pleases in Song Program.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

The radio evening passed pleasantly. The chief novelty was the appearance of Chief Chibiaboos, Chippewa tenor, on the W-G-N 8:30 to 9 orchestral concert. His tone was fine and his voice pleasing. The songs were of Indian origin or studied imitation: "By the Waters of Minnetonka," "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," "Pale Moon" and "At Dawning." The selections by the W-G-N Symphony orchestra were likewise Indian in character.

Another outstanding feature was Quin Ryan's depiction of the sensational Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight at Carson City, Nev., March 17, 1897, from W-G-N, 9 to 9:30.

The popular weekly concert by the W-G-N Great orchestra, 9:30 to 10, swung around the circle of popular music treated in an uncommon way, and classical music treated in a full toned symphony orchestra way.

The weekly "Salute to Industry" program from New York through KYW, 9 to 9:30, was, as always, sumptuously handled musically.

TEST PROCESS FOR SECRECY IN RADIO PHONING

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

BUENOS AIRES, March 18.—Secrecy of wireless telephone communication appears to have been achieved by a new process which has been tried out during the last three days and nights between Buenos Aires and Madrid.

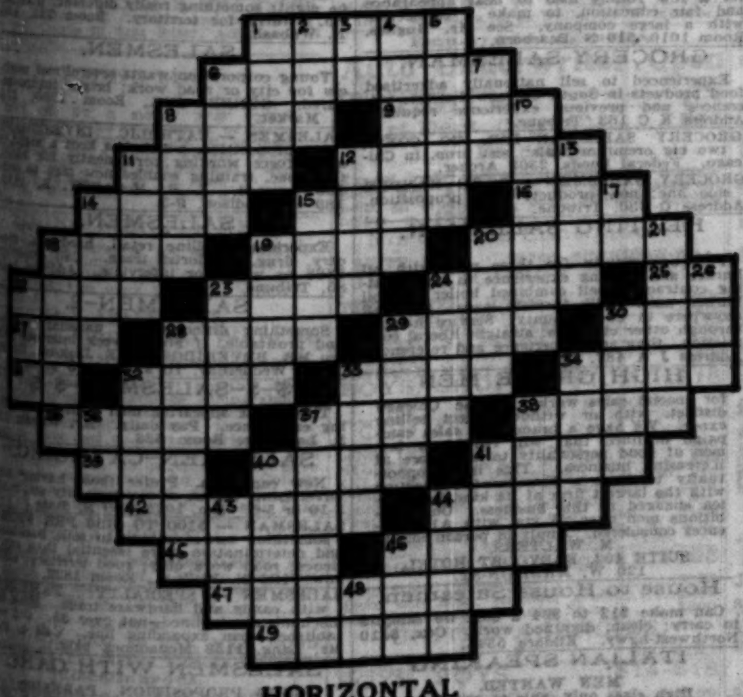

Before being put on the air the voice is submitted to a process which changes its audible frequency so that if picked up by amateurs or others listening in it appears to be only a meaningless sound. The receiving station is fitted with transforming apparatus which converts the voice into its original frequency and it reaches the ear of the person for whom it is intended distinctly.

The experiments have been continued for 24 hours at a stretch to test the different wave lengths for suitability during each hour. It has been found that it is feasible to talk between Buenos Aires and Europe at any hour of the day or night, using four distinct wave lengths of fifteen, twenty, twenty-five and thirty meters at the different hours at which they have been found most suitable.

ARRAIGNED AS AUTO THIEF.

Joseph Weglars, 19 years old, 1708 Hastings street, was held to the grand jury, and Sam Rockman, 16 years old, 1854 West 18th street, was turned over to the juvenile authorities yesterday when both were arraigned before Judge Allegretti in Boys' court on auto theft charges.

NEBRASKA'S BANK GUARANTY FUND LAW REPEALED

Substitute Bill Expected to Aid Depositors.

Abandonment of the old depositors' protective law was effected in a substitute measure adopted last week by a special session of the legislature called to iron out the ills of 65,000 depositors awaiting restitution from the guaranty fund, which had incurred a $20,000,000 deficit before it was repealed.

Called Compromise.

The governor's acceptance of the new law, one he believes a compromise for depositors and bankers alike, relieves all state banking institutions of special and regular assessments, with the exception of a one-fifth of 1 per cent levy to continue for ten years.

This assessment, the governor believes, will produce $3,000,000 in the decade, and this, added to another $3,000,000 in levies forthcoming before the law was removed from the statutes, will materially refill the empty purses of the depositors.

Will Aid Depositors.

A constitutional amendment, to be voted upon this fall, will add another $8,000,000 by state appropriation to the depositors' jackpot if the plan is accepted at the polls.

The Nebraska law, similar in detail to a banking theory once tried by eight other states but now effective only in one—Mississippi—has experienced a trying existence in the last five years, Gov. Weaver pointed out today.

GIRL WITNESS OF FRENCH REVOLT IS DEAD AT 92

Funeral services for Mrs. Louise de la Motte Nockin, who lived through one French revolution and the great Chicago fire, will be held at 3:45 this afternoon at the Nockin residence, 816 South Scoville avenue, Oak Park, where she died early Sunday. Mrs. Nockin was 92 years old.

Born in Paris, the daughter of a deputy of the left wing, Louise de la Motte was ten years old when the revolution of 1848 broke out. When street fighting occurred the father took his wife and child and fled to New York, where the family lived until 1854.

Thence the de la Mottes moved to Chicago, where Louise was married on June 11, 1860, to Joseph M. Nockin, who survives her, being 93 years old. The great fire of 1871 destroyed their home and belongings, after which Mr. Nockins became a city insurance adjuster, a profession in which he remained active until 10 years ago.

The couple had lived in Oak Park since 1895. Mrs. Nockin leaves, besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Woltersdorf and Josephine Nockin, and a granddaughter, Virginia Gibson.

Dandy Way to Tint Gray Hair

By MONA EVERS

I don't blame any woman for wanting to do something about gray, faded or streaked hair, because there is nothing that makes one look older.

Whenever I am asked for a method of restoring gray hair I invariably recommend nothing more or less than a mixture of good old sage tea and sulphur. Common garden sage, when properly brewed and mixed with sulphur and a little alcohol, makes a wonderful recolorer of gray hair. You can either prepare the mixture at home yourself or, more conveniently, buy it already prepared and ready for use. All druggists carry it in the form of Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur, and since the cost is only 75c a bottle, there is really no need to prepare it yourself.

You simply moisten a comb or soft brush with it and draw it through your hair, one strand at a time. One application banishes the gray and one or two more completely restores your hair to its original color, so evenly, so naturally that no one can possibly tell you have used it. Everyone who tries Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tells me he, or she, gets perfect results, so I don't hesitate to pass the secret on to others.

SPANISH CROWDS PAY LAST HONORS TO DEAD DICTATOR

Mourners Line Road as Train Passes.

MADRID, March 18.—(AP)—From the town of Irun, on the Franco-Spanish frontier, to the capital of Spain crowds gathered today at railroad stations along the route taken by the funeral train bearing home the body of former Dictator Primo de Rivera. A state funeral will be held in the city he ruled as a dictator for more than six years.

In the little station at Irun the body was transferred from the special funeral car attached to the French "sub-express" to a wide guage coach on the Spanish connecting train.

Crowds Pay Homage.

At some of the larger stations along the route it stopped for brief formalities and the rendering of homage to the former dictator. At others prayers were offered up by priests as it slowed down and rumbled through the crowds, only to pick up speed again without stopping.

The funeral car was converted into a chapel, lighted by flickering candles about a flag draped coffin. Members of the dead statesman's cabinet took turns in keeping watch, while priests continually murmured prayers for the repose of his soul.

Flags at Half-Staff.

This tribute began from the moment the train crossed the border into Spain. Flags were at half-staff and salutes of artillery were fired.

When the body arrives in Madrid tomorrow morning it will lie in state for about four hours in a chapel improvised at the Norte station, where a representative of King Alfonso, Premier Berenguer and the members of his cabinet, the high dignitaries of the Catholic church, the foreign diplomatic corps, and the foremost figures of Spanish life generally will pay tribute to it.

Shelbyville Ex-Mayor Dies on Pacific Coast

Shelbyville, Ill., March 18.—(AP)—Dr. William J. Eddy, 72, practicing physician forty-five years, former mayor and president of the Shelby County Medical society and Central Illinois Medical society, died today at the home of his son, the Rev. William C. Eddy, at Los Angeles, Cal., relatives announced here. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, and one son.

Candidate for Sheriff of La Salle County Dies

Ottawa, Ill., March 18.—[Special.]—Arthur F. Mason, 48, candidate for the office of sheriff of La Salle county, died at his home here this afternoon. Mason had been a deputy sheriff since 1926, and was for nine years before that a member of the Streator police force. His death was caused by an abscess on the lungs.

FINED FOR RESISTING COP.

A $200 fine was imposed by Judge McCarthy in Des Plaines street court yesterday upon Robert Green, Negro garage attendant of 4417 Walnut street, who, when arrested last Saturday for a traffic violation, tried to wrest away the pistol of Policeman James Brennan.

CHINESE BANDITS MASSACRE 2,000; REVOLT GROWS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, March 18. — Bandit hordes in Kiangsi province have massacred more than 2,000 men, women and children in the Fuan district. Reports reaching Shanghai today said the wholesale slayings were committed early this month under the direction of the bandit chieftain, Gen. Chuteh. He is reported still occupying the district. Fearing further massacres, American, British and Japanese gunboats are patrolling the Yangtse river.

National officials here believe the renewed bandit activity in south China is connected with the political and military crisis in north China, and that the bandits may be allied with Gen. Yen Hsi-shan, governor of Shansi province, and Gen. Feng Yu-hsiang. Gen. Yen's aide, Gen. Fut So-ye, is said to be marching on Tsinan, Shantung province capital.

Rebel Chief Seizes Peiping.

PEIPING, China, March 18.—(AP)—All Nanking government offices and administrative bureaus in Peiping, former capital of China, were taken over today by the local authorities, who said they were acting under orders of Yen Hsi-shan. The action implied a definite widening of the breach between the administration of President Chang Kai-shek at Nanking, in central and south China, and the Shansi Kuominchun generals, headed by Yen. The northern group is now in complete control here.

Hunt Thief Who Continues Robberies Despite Wound

CATHOLIC CHURCH TO CANONIZE 8 CANADA MARTYRS

VATICAN CITY, March 18.—(AP)—The congregation of rites today voted favorably on the merits of two miracles which had been proposed as part of the grounds for the canonization of Canadian martyrs which is to be effected in June. It is necessary for canonization that two major miracles be proved together with the quality of heroism in death.

Slain by American Indians.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18.—(AP)—Eight North American saints will be entered in the calendar of the Catholic church next June, when Canadian martyrs who were tortured to death by Iroquois Indians will be canonized.

Six of the number were members of the Society of Jesus. A shrine near Midland, Ont., marks the spot where they died. Isaac Jogues was killed with Rene Coupil and John de la Lalande, two lay brothers, near what is now Auriesville, N. Y. They are claimed by the American church.

Expert Seeks Right Place for Radio in Children's Lives

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

A book on the care of babies by Miss Carolyn Conant Van Blarcom, a noted authority on the subject, can be had at The Tribune Public Service Office, 1 South Dearborn street, for 50 cents, or by mail for 65 cents.

Certainly one great force that has swung suddenly into the lives of modern children from earliest babyhood is the radio.

I say "suddenly." It is just that. It has come so suddenly that its effects have not been tested, digested, assimilated—call it what you will—into our daily life.

Radio is here. It hasn't had even time to find its place—or to be put in its place—in the life of a child. Only the most thoughtful, the most sensitive, the most observing parents can use it in such a way as to benefit their children and also to protect them from the ill effects of it.

"We have had a radio only a year. I had never wanted one from my experience in my friends houses—shouting to be heard over jazz, and static if I really wanted to listen.

"But then, all my life I have studied and played good music and have been taught to listen. When we seek a restaurant we seek one without the peppy jazz band. So perhaps my music requirements are not the average.

"But I am a firm believer in teaching and acquiring good taste through a constant repetition of it—and only by constantly hearing good music can we really enjoy it.

"So in thinking of it, I found I have usually followed these ideas—though there has heretofore been no 'set plan.'

"First—the radio does not run constantly day and night—that costs money as well as creating confusion.

"Second—it is not turned on full force—that destroys the tone generally, though some radios have a more mellow and resonant tone than others.

"Third—I try not to have much jazz—at least, not the awful jazz. The latter is a stimulant not to be desired constantly.

"Fourth—when there is some particular concert I wish to hear such as the Chicago Symphony and concerts conducted by Damrosch, I try to settle the girls—8 and 4, with books, crayons or some quiet occupation. Then, at some tuneful good number I know would be interesting to young minds, I ask them to stop and listen and tell them something of the music and different instruments' sounds. It has worked fairly well and the 8 year old knows the difference in sound of many instruments, and even a few names of pieces."

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Useful Salt Pork.

After an article on salt pork which appeared recently there came an agreeable letter of appreciation for some of the things I have printed. The writer asked if I would print more ways of using salt pork, and underlined the statement that she would be greatly obliged if I would. Her letter begins thus:

"Today I read with interest your item on 'Salt Pork Dainties' and I am very much pleased indeed to learn of the various ways to fix salt pork. It has only been since last summer, while over in England and Ireland, that I learned to relish it and can truthfully say that I enjoyed eating it when prepared with butter and other ingredients.

"It may be surprising to you to learn that right here in this big city of ours some people I know would not pass the winter without a good supply of this meat. Probably that is one of the reasons they are always so healthy. I believe the general run of Americans do not eat enough rough foods, but like too well the softer and more easily prepared meats."

Salt pork is just as convenient a supply in summer as in winter. We can certainly find no end of summer uses for it, and the camper would be desolate if he did not know how to get some salt pork fat for a pan of fish, for a chowder, or as a seasoning for his vegetables instead of butter.

We sometimes call sliced potatoes cooked in a frying pan "camp fried potatoes." They are also called "cottage fried." At any rate, there is nothing equal to salt pork for the medium in this case, and when the work is well done the potatoes are as palatable as the best French fried potatoes ever cooked.

To do this work, cook out two tablespoons of the fat into a medium frying pan for one pint of raw potatoes sliced thin. The pork scraps, gently cooked in a little butter, may be used for a garnish for the potatoes when they are done. Put the raw potato into the fat in the frying pan, cover the pan closely and set this over a fire that is not too hot. Turn two or three times with a spatula while they are cooking. With exactly the right fire it will take half an hour.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL AND SPECIAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS.
THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, FEBRUARY 25, 1930.

I. THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY will be held at the office of the Company in the City of Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, on Thursday, the first day of May, 1930, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the consideration of the following questions:

1. Whether the Company shall be renewed under the laws of Illinois and Iowa for a period of fifty years after the expiration of the present Articles of Consolidation of June 2, 1880;

2. The increase in the number of directors of the Company from thirteen to fifteen, and the amendment of the Articles of Consolidation to provide therefor;

3. The creation of an issue of $33,228,000 Thirty-Year 4½% Convertible Gold Bonds, to be dated May 1, 1930, to provide funds for the general corporate purposes of this Company, said bonds to be convertible into common stock of the Company at any time on or after May 1, 1931, and before May 1, 1940, at $125 per share, with an adjustment of accrued interest and current dividends to the date of such conversion; and, in order to secure said bonds, the execution and delivery of an indenture setting forth the terms and conditions on which said bonds will be issued and delivered and will be convertible, and the approval of the form of the proposed indenture;

4. The increase of the authorized capital stock of the Company from $140,000,000 to $170,000,000, all of the proposed increase to be common stock; and the amendment of the articles of Consolidation to provide therefor;

5. The repeal of Article VIII of the Articles of Consolidation of June 2, 1880, which provides that the limit of indebtedness of the Company shall not exceed $275,000,000, exclusive of bonds issued for the acquisition of additional railways or property;

6. The amendment of the By-Laws to provide that the Board of Directors may authorize the signature of the president, or vice president, upon the Company's stock certificates to be engraved in facsimile, under such regulations as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe;

7. The election of Directors;

And for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

II. "Ship Ahoy!"

A flick of white sail . . . a wisp of smoke on the horizon . . . a boat going into harbor . . . that's a very nautical way to begin an advertisement, we admit. Yet out here, just about the best location of the entire South Shore, we're so close to Lake Michigan, Jackson Park, and Outer Drive that we feel you will understand THE SHORELINE much better if we speak this way. Many of you people have decided to desert forever all inland dust and heat, we know. Those of you who have a hankering for a lot of sunlight and fresh air will soon be coming over this way and we advise you that our 6 and 7 room apartments with their de luxe appointments and individually fashioned arrangement, ensnare most rental-value seekers! Remember, our model apartment is open for inspection. We'll be seeing you!

Lowest Rate in Chicago on Household Loans $100 to $300

By reason of the large volume and by limiting our service to the larger loans, from $100 to $300, "Household" has been able to reduce its interest rate to almost one-third less than the charges permitted by law.

Here Is the Cost
On 20 Month Payment Plan:

$100 Average monthly cost......	$1.32
$200 Average monthly cost......	$2.63
$300 Average monthly cost......	$3.94

WE DO NOT NOTIFY your employer, neither do we make inquiries of your friends, relatives, or tradespeople.

USED CARS AT WHOLESALE PRICES!

Our prices are so low that our out of town dealers would find it profitable to purchase cars from us and then resell them at higher prices. If you want to make a substantial saving, investigate our values at once.

ERSKINE SEDAN, 1929. Regal model, equipped with 4 whl. brakes, snubbers and many extras. This car is a beauty with an unusually smart paint job. Exceptionally low mileage. We can sincerely tell you this Erskine is like brand new in every respect. $650. Also a 1928 ERSKINE SEDAN, like new, $395.

PONTIAC SEDAN. A fine running car with very good tires. We obtained this Pontiac at a very favorable figure. Other man's loss is your gain, so you can obtain this beautiful sedan for only $295.

STUDEBAKER PRESIDENT, 1928 7 pass. that looks as though it were direct from the factory. The finish glistens like a brand new dollar and the tires have little mileage. Motor has been carefully checked over and adjusted wherever necessary. Equipped with 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. Can be obtained at an exceptionally low figure.

HUDSON COACH. This is undoubtedly the best Hudson buy in Chicago. The finish, upholstery and tires are in splendid condition and the motor runs like clockwork. Has shutter front, bumpers, spare tire, and other extras. $285.

STUDEBAKER DICTATOR SEDAN, 1927, that was oiled and greased every 500 mi. by the original owner, so it's in topnotch condition today. The motor is very efficient and the equipment includes 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. $485. Also a STUDEBAKER DICTATOR SEDAN, in dandy condition, $345.
